

House Bill Outlaws Gambling Machines

SALEM (UPI) — The House voted 38-21 Thursday to outlaw pinball machines and similar devices "used for gambling."

The Oregon constitution prohibits gambling except for racing. The bill went to the Senate.

Rep. Philip Lane, D - Portland, said the pinball machine issue centered on questions of crime and morality.

"The pinball machine of today is nothing more than a gambling device," he said, "in that it allows the player to build up games, and then there is an under-the-counter or over-the-counter payoff."

He said the machines have a reflex unit to assure no player can beat them over the long haul. Lang said the 1957 Portland vice probe centered around the groups controlling such devices.

"The criminal element supports much of its operation by this kind of device," he said. "He said a well placed pinball machine collects $300 to $400 a week."

Rep. Eugene Hulett, D-Eugene, expressed fear the bill also would outlaw machines "purely for pleasure," such as miniature bowling alleys. He said he saw nothing wrong with these.

"You can gamble on anything," he said. "This will simply drive them into back rooms."

Lang and Hulett both once were law enforcement officers.

Rep. Richard Eymann, D-Marcola, said Oregon gets $360,000 a year from a tax on amusement devices.

"I don't believe we can put a price on morality," Lang replied. Hulett said the state can control gambling by enforcing present laws.

Rogue Valley Couple Weekends At Parental Home In Days Creek

By MRS. DURNIN SWINGLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Lewis spent the past two weekends visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy McGee, at Days Creek.

The Lewises have moved to Butte Falls in the Rogue River valley, where Lewis recently assumed his position as Ranger of Butte Falls District of the Rogue River National Forest.

They formerly resided at and near Gardiner, where Lewis was resource assistant for the past three years with the Smith River District of Siuslaw National Forest.

McGee spent one day last week at Butte Falls assisting with interior painting of the Lewis home there.

Donald Perkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Chuck) Perkins of Cottage Grove, formerly of Days Creek, is back in the community to attend the final six weeks of school at Days Creek High School so that he can graduate with his former classmates. After the family moved to Cottage Grove last summer, Donald checked with the school here at intervals to coordinate his course with the local school program so that the transfer could be made.

County road personnel have been cleaning a large mud slide from the Beals Creek Road in the vicinity of the Tiller hill.

Election Turnout Light

Recent school elections on school budgets and directors brought out an approximate 36 per cent of voters in the Days Creek precinct as compared to an approximate 75 per cent in the March 4 election. As the school district extends into the Canyonville East precinct, only an estimate can be made of the number of residents registered from the Ralph Weaver place west.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy McGee recently attended the Douglas County School Board Association dinner meeting at Reedsport Union High School. On their way to Reedsport they stopped at Yoncalla to visit Mrs. McGee's mother, Mrs. Mary S. Gahder, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Nora Mathis, and at Gardiner with their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grubb, and small daughter. The next day Mrs. McGee went to Salem to attend the Delta Kappa Gamma State Convention at the Marion Hotel, and also to visit her friend, Miss Blanche Gibson.

Tiller-Drew Grade School Boys Have Field Trip Outing On Coast

By MRS. MILTON HAMMERSLY

Annual coastal outing combining a field trip and pleasure jaunt for boys of the seventh and eighth grades of the Tiller-Drew Grade School was taken over the weekend Wallace Hovey, fifth and sixth grade teacher, and Richard Slater, school bus operator, accompanying the boys.

Boys Camp Out

They established camp headquarters on the Evans property on the north bank of the Coquille river near Bandon. Fishing from the north jetty produced good catches of ocean perch for angling enthusiasts, and provided some of the camp fare as well as catches to exhibit on return to Tiller. Saturday morning's low tide was opportunity for a study of marine life and the boys observed a variety of starfish, sea anemones and other creatures inhabiting salt water.

Mathews said each boy will complete a project on marine life observed during the trip.

Mrs. Eula Rainville is visiting at the home of her daughters, Mrs. K. W. Bell and family and Mrs.

George Mamerow and family of Vancouver, Wash., and with other relatives in the Portland area.

Dick Harlan of Steamboat Ranger Station was a recent weekend visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Redding of Tiller.

Jon Lillgren and Deanna Campbell, both of Tiller, represented Days Creek High School for recent Law Day observance in Roseburg. Mrs. Hillard M. Lillgren took them to Roseburg for the event, along with two students from Canyonville.

Fishing Reported Poor

Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Puetz and small son made an overnight trip to Lemolo Lake last weekend, but found fishing comparatively poor. They caught two nice trout, but learned that much better angling had been experienced the previous weekend.

Mr. Gerald Rogers, the former Carol Louise Peterman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Peterman of Tiller, has joined her husband in Long Beach, Calif., where he is stationed with the U. S. Navy. Rogers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louise Rogers of Canyonville, took her to Long Beach, where she obtained an apartment. On the way south, the three were overnight guests in Compton, Calif., of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lowery, former residents of Drew.

Coast Stay Made

Mr. and Mrs. Selmar Looney and family spent the weekend at their cabin at Charleston.

Mr. and Mrs. George James and family drove to coastal points Sunday where they spent the day picnicking and beachcombing. They spent some time at Lighthouse Beach and at Honeyman Park.

Phyllis and Barbara Hamer spent the weekend visiting their father, Peyton Hamer, in Portland.

Mrs. Darrel Hiatt accompanied by her daughters, Sue and Karen, drove to McMinnville on Monday, where Mrs. Hiatt consulted a physician. They also drove to Harrisburg to visit Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Kitterman. Sue remained for a week's visit with her uncle and aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Miller and son, Ray, spent a recent Sunday at Loom Lake.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Miller were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Miller of Eugene, Norma Jolly of Albany and Mr. and Mrs. John Myers of Myrtle Creek.
