Dear Abby

Rules Of A Wise Woman!

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: Years ago, when my widowed mother came to live with me and my husband, she made our lives so miserable that I determined that I would never bring such misery to my children if I ever had to live with them. One day I sat down and wrote myself a letter. In it were some pertinent rules, and on the outside of the envelope I wrote, "To be opened on the day I go to live with my daughter, heaven forbid." I tucked it away in an old book and forgot about it. I've been widowed and self-sufficient for six years, but now I was recently forced to give up my job and go to live with my oldest daughter. I've opened the letter and I think your older readers might benefit from it, as I intend to. Here they are:

1. Give what you can toward your keep. Any budget will stretch just so far.
2. Keep yourself clean and neat.
3. Remember, it is THEIR home. Be especially considerate of HIM. He allowed her to bring you here.
4. Give them privacy at every opportunity.
5. If they want to go away on a vacation, but are hesitant because of you, offer to visit another relative or friend so they will be free to go.
6. Don't offer any advice or express any opinions unless asked.
7. Volunteer information that they might be too embarrassed to ask for, such as arrangements for your burial, hospitalization, etc.

These rules were written over 20 years ago. I read them often and am determined to keep them.

Sincerely, WIDOW X

DEAR ABBY: Whoever started that stupid rule of courtesy, stating that ladies should leave an elevator first? I am always annoyed with gentlemen who stand rooted to the floor of an elevator and refuse to get out ahead of women who are in the rear of the elevator, struggling to get out. If those stupid men would just step out of the elevator ahead of the women it would be so much simpler for everyone.

"ANNOYED"

DEAR ANNOYED: "Women and children first" is the rule when abandoning a stricken ship, but common sense should prevail when leaving an elevator.

CONFIDENTIAL TO BENNY: No, I am not a "nut" on the subject, but I still think that anyone who smokes is advertising the fact that he has money to burn.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50c to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

TO EXTEND PROBE

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House government information subcommittee will resume its "managed news" investigation Tuesday and broaden it to include news coverage "problems" in Viet Nam.

Chairman John E. Moss, D-Calif., said this week the subcommittee would investigate complaints that a Defense Department "space secrecy directive has resulted in questionable withholding of information from the public about U.S. and foreign space activities."

Moss said subsequent hearings would include further testimony on information problems resulting from the Cuban crisis as well as the Viet Nam situation.

SHIRLENE BRAZIE'S FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Napoleon once said, "An army travels on its stomach." It could be, but here in the United States, with our ever important coffee breaks, it would seem as though Americans travel on coffee. We consume 2½ cups of coffee per person per day, which is 80 per cent of the world's coffee crop. The United States is the only country that prefers blended coffee. Here are a few tips to make you a better coffee maker:

1st — Inaccurate measuring can spoil a pot of coffee. If your coffee pot has lines indicating the number of cups, use them — don't use the dump method.

2nd—Many a poor cup of coffee comes from a stale coffee pot. Coffee pots need to be washed and aired every day.

3rd—Buy the correct grind of coffee for the type of pot you are using.

If you follow these simple rules every day, you will always be rewarded with a perfect cup of coffee.

South played dummy's four of clubs on West's deuce. East won the trick with the ace and returned the eight of diamonds. South played low and West's jack held the trick.

A club lead put South in dummy and he promptly led the queen of trumps. East covered with the king and South cashed his ace and jack. Then he led the jack of spades to East's queen.

East returned the five of diamonds and South went right up with the ace.

By this time South was quite sure that he had counted the hand perfectly. He assumed West had opened a fourth best club and that East's diamond plays had indicated a doubleton. Each opponent had shown up with two trumps so South was convinced that West had started with two spades and East with four.

Therefore South led a spade to dummy's ace and returned the ten.

East ducked quickly, but South was sure of his count and promptly discarded the queens of diamonds on the ten of spades.

"Nice play," said North.

"Right," said West. "My partner deserves half the credit. If he had played the jack of clubs at trick one South would not have had enough entries to dummy to make the play."

East's error did not detract from South's fine performance. He was given a chance and he made the most of it.

DISCUSSES RAIL DISPUTE

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—There is only a 50-50 chance that negotiation will settle the work rules dispute between U.S. railroads and the operating unions, according to the president of the Association of American Railroads.

Daniel P. Loomis told a news conference recently that if an agreement is not reached, the result would be congressional action providing compulsory arbitration or seizure of the lines by the government.

A presidential panel made recommendations Monday as a guide to negotiators seeking to avoid a threatened nationwide strike June 12.
