

BETA IOTA CHAPTER, Beta Sigma Epsilon, members entertained their mothers Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Don Rogan in Garden Valley. Pictured above front row: Mrs. Bill Werth, Mrs. Don Rogan, Mrs. Bert Kleiner, Mrs. Joe Pinard, Mrs. Gib Hallett, second row: Mrs. Richard Berney, Mrs. Hugh Fretwell, Mrs. Clair Thomas, Mrs. John Dunn, Mrs. Joe Sinko, Mrs. Charles

Chapter Party Honors Mothers

Members of Beta Iota Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha entertained their mothers Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Don Rogan in Garden Valley. Each mother and mother-in-law received lovely carnation corsages.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of a play pen to Mrs. Ron Persels, who recently adopted a baby girl.

A delightful skit was performed by Mrs. Richard Berney and Mrs. Bill Werth. Mrs. Gib Hallett read several poems in tribute to Mothers Day, after which games were played. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Norman Scanland and Mrs. Bruce Roark. Mrs. Howard Patterson was winner of the door prize.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Rogan and her co-hostess, Mrs. Berney, to the following mothers:

Mrs. Norman Scanland, Mrs. Ora Welker, Mrs. Bruce Roark, Mrs. Grace Pinard, Mrs. Howard Wilson, Mrs. Howard Patterson, Mrs. Lewis Hallett, Mrs. E. R. Buckingham, Mrs. Orville Richmond and Mrs. W. H. Bailey.

To guests: Mrs. Hugh Fretwell, Mrs. John Dunn and Mrs. Clair Thomas, and to members: Mrs. Ron Persels, Mrs. Bill Werth, Mrs. Charles Bailey, Mrs. Joe Sinko, Mrs. Bert Kleiner, Mrs. Gib Hallett, Mrs. Joe Pinard, Mrs. Don Rogan and Mrs. Dolph Boyer.

Social Evening Is Enjoyed By Woodmen Members

Marjorie Doyle and Grace Helvey were charming hostesses at a social hour Monday evening for members of the Woodmen Circle Umpqua Grove 51, held at the Evergreen Grange Hall in Winston. Tables were attractively decorated with white cloths bordered by colorful leaves and centered by an arrangement of seasonal flowers.

Preceding the social hour a meeting was conducted by Marjorie Doyle. With the assistance of the Umpqua Squaws Drill Team, Lillian Exceen, a new candidate was inducted into the grove.

Mrs. Zella K. Puckett, national committeewoman and state manager from Portland, was a special guest for the evening meeting. She spoke to the members presenting the final preparations for the state convention to be held in Portland May 24, 25 and 26.

It was announced that Viola White and Beatrice Cornelsen had received proficiency citations for having completed the work prescribed for silver citations. Other members receiving proficiency ratings for parts of the ritualistic work were Louella Benson, Lee Terrell, Besse Cornish, Ann Strong and Beatrice Cornelsen.

Besse Cornish reported the Grove scrap book was nearing completion. It will be entered in competition with other Groves in the state.

A special drill was presented by the Umpqua Squaws, who will demonstrate drills for the State Convention.

Those present for the delightful event were: Lillian Exceen, Gerlie Hess, Marjorie Doyle, Alice Hall, Phebe McGuire, Viola White, Besse Cornish, Ruby Tucker, Grace Helvey, Ann Strong, Mrs. Zella K. Puckett, Alice Christensen, Evelyn Croucher, Beula Bixby, Myrtle Glenn, Agnes Veach, Sarah C. Rogan and Lee Terrell.

Annual Progressive Dinner Enjoyed By Mariners Club

The Mariners Club met for its annual progressive dinner at the Harold Crouch home near Oakland. There they were served appetizers.

From there, the group went to the Jesse Lee home for an assortment of salads, then to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralf Hakanson for the delicious entree.

At the Faye Stearns home, the group enjoyed dessert and entertainment which included colored slides of several areas in the United States. These were shown by Jesse Lee and Bill Spelghatti.

After a short meeting conducted by Hunter Early, devotionals and a closing prayer were given by Mary Lee.

Those attending were Miss Madeline Loney, Mrs. Lyle Stuewe, Mrs. Paul Schulze, Bill Spelghatti, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Early, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Peebles, Mr. and Mrs. Ralf Hakanson, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cherry, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lamoreaux, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Don Young, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Monett, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crouch, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Faye Stearns.

Convention Reports Given At Beta Pi Chapter Meet

Beta Pi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Stearns in Oakland. Mrs. Doris Neeley was co-hostess.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Kenneth Manning, president.

It was reported the state convention held in Roseburg recently was very successful. Out of 65 chapters in the state, Beta Pi Chapter had the third highest donation of $400 to the Children's Hospital School, the state project. The chapter also won second place on its yearbook. Chapter members, Mrs. Harry Smith, was elected state president of ESA, and Mrs. William Gildersleeve, state corresponding secretary.

Following the meeting the evening was spent playing "Yatze."

The prize winning high score was held by Mrs. Leslie Heaton; second, Mrs. Knox Blasingame; low, Mrs. Kenneth Manning.

The party was also to honor three members of the sorority. Mrs. Doris Neeley and Mrs. Sam Henry observed their birthdays and Mrs. Leslie Heaton a wedding anniversary. Cake and ice cream were served to all present.

Members present were: Mrs. Clifford Peterson, Mrs. Don Ferguson, Mrs. Donald Knight, Mrs. George Snyder, Mrs. William Gildersleeve, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Kenneth Manning, Mrs. Lyle Stuewe, Mrs. James Runge, Mrs. Sam Henry, Mrs. Jack Smith, Mrs. Knox Blasingame, Mrs. Paul Schulze, Mrs. Leslie Heaton, Mrs. Doris Neeley and Mrs. Robert Stearns and two guests, Mrs. Dorothy Todd and Mrs. Terry Toleson.

Bailey, Mrs. Ron Persels. Third row: Mrs. Ora Welker, Mrs. Orville Richmond, Mrs. Howard Patterson, Mrs. Howard Wilson, Mrs. E. R. Buckingham, Mrs. Lewis Hallett, Mrs. Bruce Roark and Mrs. Grace Pinard. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography).

Church Women Are Entertained

A group of women of the Christian Church of Myrtle Creek were entertained by Florence Waer Wednesday afternoon at her home in Winston.

Those present were Martha Meyers, Mary Kakus, Ada Veeder, Laura Bates, Clna Buell, Carrie Rice, Susie Dailey, Cecilia Sellers, Faith Adamson, June Myllenbeck, Tillie Critchfield and Maxine Degner.

Family Dinner Is Given To Celebrate Birthday

David Turner of the Sunshine Road celebrated his 13th birthday at a family dinner at his home. The beautifully decorated birthday cake was taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnston, where the Turner family and the Johnstons enjoyed refreshments together, later in the evening.

TO BE BRIDE — Mr. and Mrs. Bill Endicott announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith Gale, of Portland, to Lee O. Hirm of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Arola of Roseburg. A June wedding is planned.

BRAD ZINN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Zinn, 1784 NW Estelle, celebrated his first birthday at a party at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar C. Lowe, in Coos Bay. Dick Lowe, an uncle, was also present. A gift from Mr. and Mrs. Howard Zinn of Las Vegas, Nev., paternal grandparents, was sent to Brad. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography).

Tiller-Drew PTA Installs New Officers At May Meet

New officers of the Tiller-Drew PTA were installed at the organization's final meeting of the school year May 7 at the local school.

Mrs. Jack Lehnerr, junior past president, officiated as installing officer. Seated were Mrs. Gershon Roy, president; Mrs. Glen Hunter, vice president; Mrs. Paul J. Brady, secretary; and Mrs. John A. Wright Sr., treasurer.

Mrs. Roy received the new gavel from outgoing president, Mrs. John O. Wilson. Brief reports were given by Mrs. Roy, Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Wright on their attendance at a day's workshop sessions during the PTA state convention in Eugene. Amended standing rules were submitted for approval and accepted.

Announcement was made that the organization is ending the year with a financial surplus, and members approved use of some funds for the purchase of material for new curtains for the school cafeteria; assistance with substitute pay for a primary teacher for pre-school visitation day; ten dollars for athletic awards; and assistance to the Music Parents Club with the deficit on the new choir robes for the high school chorus.

Eighth grade mothers were introduced and accorded special honor. They were presented with corsages made by the Days Creek Garden Club. Included were Mrs. Jack Lehnerr, Mrs. John O. Wilson, Mrs. Wayne Peterman and Mrs. Jim Jenks, all of whom have served as PTA presidents. Mrs. Ralph Stauch, Mrs. Richard Williams and Mrs. J. D. Zimmerman.

A brief program preceded the meeting and was presented by students of Mrs. John A. Wright Sr., who has conducted tap and acrobatic classes under PTA sponsorship the past few months. Girls participating were Patty Hunter, Diana Norris, Gretchen Williams, Patty Godbey and Zinda Morris, all from the junior group; and Avis Lewis, Rosemary and Christy Porter and Barbara Jewett from the advanced class.

Primary room mothers were in charge of serving refreshments.

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER Society

BEVERLY BROOKE

Wilma Gardner Now Mrs. Sanborn

Married April 19 at an 8 p.m. candlelight service at the Winston Assembly of God Church were Wilma Clydean Gardner and Rodney Lee Sanborn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gardner, the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Sanborn. Both families reside in Winston.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of white bridal lace over satin. Her elbow-length veil was secured by a pearl crown. She carried a white Bible ornamented with an orchid and stephanotis.

Eva Sue Waters, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Nelda Sanborn, sister of the bridegroom, and Faye Ollivant. They wore orchid taffeta and carried white carnations.

Candlelighters Janice Clossen and Sharon Patitz wore yellow. The bride's cousins, Beckie Marier and Randy Brown were flower girl and ring bearer.

James Sanborn of San Diego, Calif., was best man for his brother, Richard Gardner Jr. and Doyle Gardner, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

The church was decorated with yellow daffodils, jonquils and stock. The Rev. Malon sang "The Lord's Prayer," "O Promise Me" and "Because." Grant Ford was organist, while Mrs. Malon was pianist.

Following the reception held at the church, the couple left on a wedding trip to California. The bride wearing a white sheath with matching accessories. The newlyweds are now at home in Winston.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Douglas High School. He is currently employed at Pacific Plywood.

Mothers Honored By OES Chapter

At a recent meeting of Oakland Chapter No. 91, Order of Eastern Star, a special tribute was given to mothers by Vera Smith, who read a poem in their honor. Corsages were presented to Bernice Martin, the mother with the youngest child, and to Vera Smith, the mother present who had the oldest child.

Memorial services were held for members who had died during the past year. The meeting was presided over by Doris Steinbach, worthy matron, and Leo Sparks, worthy patron. On the decorating committee were Ivena Halvorsen and Olive Putman.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Thiele, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thiele and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grozio comprised the refreshment committee.

Mothers Honored By Douglas Court

Douglas Court met Friday at the Roseburg Masonic Temple, Royal Matron Helen White presiding. Escorted and given grand honors were grand assistant lecturer, Genevieve Phillippi and grand representative, Inga High.

A memorial service was given. A special addendum was put on for all mothers and small gifts were given each mother.

Decorations were spring flowers. Serving on refreshment committee were Henry Halvorsen and Lillian Jones.

Dinner Party Held At Umpqua

Mrs. Ralph Peery entertained at a delightful dinner party Thursday in her home on Millwood Drive near Umpqua. Spring flowers were used in decoration.

The table had places set for Mrs. Harvey Roeder, Mrs. Henry Teiler, Mrs. Ralph Gurney, Mrs. B. W. Travis, Mrs. Ben Amerson, Mrs. Arnold Gurney, Mrs. John Randall, Mrs. C. A. Bucknell, Mrs. Robert Gunderson, Mrs. J. J. Peterman, Mrs. Robert Ellefson, Mrs. Lloyd Leonard, Mrs. Dale Judd, Mrs. Lyle Judd and the hostess.

Mrs. Mary Stock Enjoys Birthday

The 92nd birthday of Mrs. Mary Stock was the occasion for a gala visit from her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Stanley of Canyonville, who with Mr. Stanley and neighbors, Mrs. George Sherman and Mrs. Lucy Beam, took a chicken dinner, cake, flowers and gifts to the Grand View Home at Roseburg on May 1.

Mrs. Stock, who has lived most of her life in the Days Creek and Canyonville area, and who is up and around most of the time, was pleased with the surprise visit.

Daughters Honor Mrs. A. McGuire

Mrs. John Dyhre and her sister, Miss June Hutson, were charming hostesses at a family dinner Sunday in honor of their mother, Mrs. A. W. McGuire, at the former's home in Winston.

The delightful dinner was served at 1 p.m. at a table covered by a white damask cloth centered by a lovely arrangement of spring flowers.

Visiting was enjoyed during the day by the family which included Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. John Dyhre, Chuckie and Kim Dyhre and Miss June Hutson. Later in the afternoon Mrs. Ernest Jorras joined the group for an afternoon of visiting.

Banquet Given Saturday Night

"Melody of Love" was the theme of a mother-daughter banquet held at the First Baptist Church Saturday evening.

The Fellowship Guild girls and counselors arranged the program with Mrs. A. G. McLain as toastmistress. Included in the program were devotions by Mrs. Eugene Gerlitz, a vocal solo by Donna Shelton, a piano solo by Glenda McLean, and a vocal trio by Mrs. Walter Kruschke, Mrs. George Hughes and Mrs. Don Reddekopp. A chorus of guild girls also sang several numbers.

The men's fellowship and boys from the high school department of the church cooked and served the meal to 160 women and girls.

THE WEDDING of Wilma Clydean Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gardner, and Rodney Lee Sanborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sanborn, all of Winston, took place at the Winston Assembly of God Church with 130 guests in attendance. The couple will reside in Winston. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography).

Roseburg Toastmistresses Have Interesting Meeting

The recent meeting of the Roseburg Toastmistress Club was held in the Grand Jury Room at the Douglas County Courthouse.

Maple Lyons was elected temporary chairman.

Mildred Dunn gave the invocation. Barbara Alexander, as topicmistress, introduced each member as they responded with brief talks. Frances Luoma gave helpful pointers in "Fundamentals of Parliamentary Law."

Iva Schweppe, as toastmistress, presented the program. A panel on the various levels of Toastmistress was moderated by Maple Lyons. Other speakers on the panel were Velma Albertus, a guest from the Winston-Dillard club, who spoke on the council; Mildred Dunn, on the local club; and Lois Krug, on Toastmistress International.

Fern Dailey gave her icebreaker speech which was enlivened with humorous incidents.

Vi Hansen of the Winston-Dillard club was evaluator, and Margaret Clay was timer and gave the closing thought.

Roseburg Group Is Hosted By W-D Toastmistresses

"Trails" was the theme chosen by the Winston-Dillard Toastmistress Club for a meeting held in the banquet room of Harris Cafe in Roseburg Wednesday evening.

beginning with a dessert, supper with several Roseburg club members as guests.

The 7:30 p.m. meeting was conducted by Toastmistress, Mary Tomlinson. The welcome was extended by Vi Hansen, club president. The invocation and pledge were led by Ida Schweitzer.

Words with kitchen utensils to depict a toastmistress member were used for the topics, which were conducted by topicmistress, Bunny Albertus.

Speakers for the evening program were Edna Ebner, who chose "Garden Trails" as her subject, and "A Hat In A Ring" was given by Vivian Laurance.

Iva Schweppe acted as general evaluator and timekeeper was Marge Brady.

Guests from the Roseburg Club attending were Lois Krug, Golda Nickell, Mrs. Art Friend and Dora M. Bonner.

A nominating committee, consisting of Edna Ebner, Marge Brady and Vivian Laurance, was appointed to report at the next meeting which will be held at Douglas High School May 22 at 7:30 p.m.

An installation meeting is being planned for the first meeting in June.

IT PAYS TO PATRONIZE
NEWS-REVIEW
ADVERTISERS

MID-SEASON

SHOE Clean-Up!

Prices Slashed On Shoes For The Entire Family!

WOMEN'S FLATS

Variety of styles and colors in comfortable casuals. Broken sizes but a good selection. Values to 7.95.

WOMEN'S HEELS

Styled by Grace Walker and Cover Girl. There are some lovely ones to complete your early Summer Outfit.

ODDS & ENDS SPECIAL TABLE

ONLY 97¢

Children's Shoes

Shoes by Red Goose and Yennigen. Shoes for summer wear or for next Fall. Broken Sizes but lots of them.

3.97

MEN'S SHOES

Dress shoes and casuals... a style to please any man. These are real buys for the low price of...

7.97

PAVI'S SHOE STORE

530 S. E. JACKSON

Phone OR 2-2592