

Local Karters Triumph In Thrill-Packed Races

Roseburg karters grabbed off three of five first place trophies in Sunday's races at the Tri-City track sponsored by the Slo-Kart Club of Roseburg.

Glen Thomas set the pace for the dual engine competitors, while Clarence Silvers won top honors in the Group II action of the single engine karts and Orville Cornett topped the field in the Group III races.

Out of town winners included Bill Denny of Eugene in the Group I, single engine competition and Jerry Condray of Grants Pass ran off with top honors in the junior boys division.

Condray had the fast time in the single engine action with a :25.3 and Steve Oakley recorded the fast lap time for the dual engine karts—a blazing :24.5 clocking.

Several minor crashes marked the afternoon's action. In the first heat of the Group I races Ralph Bicknell of Winston flipped his kart. He quickly jumped back on the machine and completed the race, but was unable to continue the other heats because of minor injuries.

In the second heat of Group II competition Ronald Denny of Eugene spun out and ran backwards into the fence. He was not injured and came on to finish the race.

Donna Brock and Jack McCandless, both of Eugene, were involved in a three-way crash with Cornett in the second heat of the Group III races. All were able to re-enter the race. However, later in the same heat Miss Brock and McCandless again collided, with McCandless going over Miss Brock's kart and landing in the infield after striking the woman in the shoulder with a front tire. Miss Brock's kart went out of control and flipped over. Neither driver was seriously injured.

The next races at the Tri-City track will begin at noon with the races to start at 1 p.m.

Carter-Benton Set For Top TV Battle

NEW YORK (UPI)—Middleweight contenders Ruben (Hurricane) Carter of Paterson, N.J., and George Benton of Philadelphia will meet at Madison Square Garden Saturday night in a nationally televised fight that features this week's boxing schedule.

Veteran Benton, ranked second among 180-pound contenders by the World Boxing Association, is favored at 8-5 because of his combined skill and punch; his 47-7-1 record includes 27 knockouts. He seeks his 10th straight victory.

The more colorful fifth-ranking Carter, also a knockout specialist, scored 11 of his 15 professional victories by kayos.

He probably would have been favored to beat Benton had he not been stopped in the sixth round because of a cut right brow by "Spoiler" Jose Gonzalez in his latest bout, March 30. That was his third defeat in 18 starts.

Saturday's winner will get another Garden TV fight on July 12 against contender Joey Archer of New York, who last Saturday night won a unanimous 10-round decision over slugger Victor Zalazar of Argentina in their Garden TV fight.

Heavyweight contenders Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., and Bob Cleroux of Montreal are slated for a return bout on Thursday at Montreal. Folley outpointed Cleroux at San Francisco on April 18, 1962, but Cleroux is favored at 7-5 to win this time because of Folley's knockout by Doug Jones last Dec. 15.

Also on Thursday, at Rome, Giulio Rinaldi of Italy defends his European lightweight crown in a 15-rounder with Erich Schoepner of Germany.

Former lightweight champion Joe (Old Bones) Brown of Houston, Tex., has another comeback fight on tonight with Joey Lopes of Sacramento, Calif., at Sacramento.

The week's boxing schedule includes:
TUESDAY: Sacramento, Calif.—Joe Brown vs. Joey Lopes. New York (Sunnyside)—Luther Murphy vs. Joe Shelton.

WEDNESDAY:—Nothing scheduled.
THURSDAY: Rome—Giulio Rinaldi vs. Erich Schoepner (European light heavyweight title) & Gomeo Brennan vs. Nino Benvenuti. Montreal—Zora Folley vs. Bob Cleroux. Miami, Fla.—Jimmy Beasley vs. Joe Murchison.

FRIDAY: Los Angeles (Olympic)—Pulga Serrano vs. Jimmy Fields.
SATURDAY: New York (Garden)—Ruben Carter vs. George Benton (TV). San Juan, P.R.—Florentino Fernandez vs. Jose Torres.
