

Carole Zane Now Mrs. Rasmussen

The First Christian Church of Roseburg was the setting for the wedding of Miss Carol Avis Zane and Richard James Rasmussen. The marriage took place Saturday, April 27, at 10 a.m. The Rev. James C. Smith officiating at the impressive double ring ceremony performed in the presence of relatives and friends.

The bride is the daughter of Marion Zane, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rasmussen. Both families reside in Roseburg.

For her wedding, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white Chantilly lace and an illusion veil caught to a jeweled crown. She carried a white Bible marked with white carnations.

Miss Dawn Vasterling was maid of honor. She wore a royal blue chiffon dress, designed with a full skirt and scoop neckline. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Raymond Munyon was best man. Ushers were Eldon Zane, brother of the bride, and Ronald Rasmussen, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Rasmussen, mother of the bridegroom, wore powder blue nylon with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Lee Sade, aunt of the bride, wore navy blue with white accessories.

A reception was held in the church parlor. Pouring were Mrs. Randall Baumgardner and Mrs. Judith Admire. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Kenneth Neves and Mrs. Iris Nicholson. Mrs. Wallace James Jr. was in charge of the guest book.

After a wedding trip to Eureka, Calif., and the Trees of Mystery, the newlyweds are at home to their friends at 326 W. Bradford Drive.

Elkton Christian Church Scene Of Lovely Wedding

Linda Marie Cleo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cleo of Elkton, and Willis Raymond Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jack Smith of Drageston, Utah, were married May 4 at 8 p.m. in a lovely double ring ceremony at the Elkton Christian Church. The Rev. Bob Pagget of the First Assembly of God Church in Eugene officiated.

Maid of honor was Darlene Cleo of Eugene, sister of the bride. Charlotte Rigor was bridesmaid. Rene Cleo, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and Randy Hambrick, another cousin, was ring bearer.

Best man was Steve Cleo, the bride's brother; Garland Labat of Seattle, Washington was an usher. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride was attired in white taffeta brocade. She wore the bridegroom's mother's pearls and carried a white orchid.

The maid of honor and bridesmaid wore light green sheath dresses with net overskirts and net veils. They carried lilacs and carnations with lavender net accents.

The candlelighters wore lilac dresses and wore lilac flower wristlets.

The church had been beautifully decorated with lilacs and white daisies by Mrs. Arley Marsh. Mrs. Martin Suloff and Mrs. Agnes Hudson made the corsages.

The wedding prelude and music was played by Mrs. Bob Pagget of Eugene. Paul Slaughter of Eugene sang "Because" and "The Twenty-Third Psalm."

A reception at the church followed the ceremony, with 150 guests attending. Mrs. Louise Rigor had made the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake and served it at the reception; Mrs. Donald Abraham served punch and Mrs. Charles Cleo served coffee. The bride and bridegroom opened their many lovely wedding gifts during the reception.

The couple left for a weekend trip to the coast and now reside in Eugene at 1376 W. 24th St. Apt. 3.

The bride's going away suit was white wool. With it she wore a yellow blouse, hat and gloves, and white purse and slippers.

Fifth Birthday Observance Gala Event For Tiller Lad

A whole year of anticipation was climaxed recently when Michael Bryant celebrated his fifth birthday at a party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Bryant, at the Tiller Ranger Station. Michael and his family arrived in Tiller to make their home soon after his fourth birthday, and shortly thereafter, through attending parties of other children in the area, he learned it is an American custom to have gala celebrations in recognition of the anniversaries. Michael and his brother, Frank, were born in Germany and the happy custom was new to them.

In honor of Michael, Mrs. Walter W. Whitford made and decorated a lovely birthday cake, iced in yellow and with pastel accents, including his name and five candles. A lovely bouquet of spring flowers from the Whitford garden contributed to the decorations for the event. Games were played and prizes awarded to all participants. After Michael opened his many gifts, refreshments were served.

Guests included Danny and Doug Clauson, Timmy Hale, Clark and Paul Olson, and the honored guest's older brother, Frank.

Michael was born in Augsburg, Germany. His maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Otto Egold of Hanau, Germany. His birthday was May 5.
