

Country Club Party Enjoyed

Women of the Roseburg Country Club held the annual spring guest-day luncheon at the club house Thursday with 29 tables reserved for the delightful and successful event. The party was one of the largest enjoyed to date.

Mrs. John Longfellow Jr., president, welcomed the members and guests. The tables were centered by attractive pink rose trees in small clay pots, while the two large buffet tables were decorated with larger rose trees arranged with sprays of ivy. The decorations at each table were given as table prizes to the one having the highest score. Attractive hand-painted tallies marked each cover.

The door prize was won by Mrs. Ted Shultz. High score prize for the afternoon's contract bridge play was won by Mrs. John Davenport, first; Mrs. William Pritchett, second and Mrs. B. L. Martin, third.

Mrs. Al H. May and Mrs. H. T. Hansen were luncheon chairmen for the party. Decorations were arranged by Mrs. William Pritchett, Mrs. Russell Cary, Mrs. Kenneth Bailey and Mrs. T. C. Fitzgerald.

Mrs. Smith New President Of Days Creek PTA Group

Officers for the coming year were installed at the May meeting of the Days Creek PTA, with Mrs. William A. Moore as installing officer.

Mrs. Wayne Smith assumed the duties of president, with Mrs. Norman Ripley, vice president; Mrs. Calvin Robinson, secretary; Mrs. Durnin Swingley, treasurer; and Mrs. George Barrow, historian.

At the meeting preceding installation, the retiring president, Mrs. Harry Craig, announced that Judith Ellefson had been named by the committee as recipient of the PTA scholarship, which recently was broadened from the education field to include any phase of higher education. Selection was made on the basis of scholarship, activities, and need. Judith and Harriet Simon, later received award of awards to each of state fee scholarships to the University of Oregon, where Judith will enroll in pre-nursing and Harriet in languages.

Announcement was also made that $25.00 had been paid to the South Umpqua Cubs, boys summer baseball squad, and $30.00 to the Days Creek Tiller Music Parents to help finish paying for the choral robes recently completed by that organization.

Girl Scouts And Brownies Have Annual Tea, Program

The Glendale Brownie and Girl Scout Troops, 96, 97 and 98, combined their annual Mothers Day Tea and Brownie Fly-Up in a program held in the Glendale Elementary Gymnasium Friday afternoon. There were 35 mothers and two fathers present for the combined ceremonies.

At the opening of the evening's program, each mother present received a lovely corsage which had been made by the leaders of the troops.

Members of the troops then took their places by a lovely rustic bridge which occupied the center of the floor. The bridge was decorated with roses, and banks of fern filled the area on either side of it.

Members of Mrs. Alvin Howard's Girl Scout troop put on the flag ceremony. Those participating were Shirley Hager, Donna Monfill, Susan Naugler, Kathy Davenport and Paula Young. At the close of the ceremony, the entire group of girls on both sides of the bridge sang, "Make New Friends."

The leaders of the troops, Mrs. Carl Ford, Mrs. Ray Jean Miller, Mrs. Dale Johns, Mrs. Alvin Howard and Mrs. Dean Swanson pinned insignia on each of the Brownie Scouts to be graduated into the Girl Scout troop. When they had taken their places among the Girl Scouts they were invested by the Girl Scout leader, Mrs. Alvin Howard and her assistant, Mrs. Dale Johns, and presented with their Girl Scout pins.

Girls invested into the Girl Scout Troop were Rebecca Allen, Margaret Ford, Esther Gaedecke, Jan Mehl, Dotty Miller, Helen Shepherd, Pamela Johns, Susan Kelly, Angelee Brady, Marion Mize, Joanne Howard, Joan Hartman, Linda Swanson, Barbara Williamson, Candace Schimp, Elaine Close, Patricia Stackhouse, Patty Corbett and Darcy Elst.

Two girls, unable to be present were Linda Burgoyne and Leslie Disbrell. They will receive their wings and pins at the next meeting.

Taking their place as hostesses for the Mothers Day tea portion of the program, the girls then served refreshments to their mothers. The room was decorated with May-poles. Mrs. Dean Swanson, as Neighborhood Girl Scout Chairman, expressed her appreciation for the work of Mrs. Carl Ford, who acted as general chairman, and that of the other leaders.

Following her induction into office, Mrs. Smith named committee chairmen for the school picnic.

Tenmile Mother Receives Honors

At the Tenmile Community Sunday School Mothers Day dinner at the Ladies Clubhouse, Mrs. A. F. (Helen) Young learned she had been chosen Tenmile's Mother of the Year. She was presented with a lovely gift and will receive a plaque.

Mrs. Young teaches the preschool class in Sunday School and takes an active part in children's activities. She is active in the Tenmile Ladies Club and in the Tenmile Home Extension Unit.

The Youngs have three children, Albert Young II and Herbert Young both of Tenmile, and Mrs. F. A. Wafer of Camas Valley. They have 10 grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Young have lived in Tenmile for the past 16 years, coming there from California. The Youngs' daughter-in-law, Mrs. Herbert Young, was named Mother of the Year at the Winston Christian Church on Mothers Day.

PICTURED looking over the swimming pool at the Roseburg Country Club Thursday at the annual spring guest-day party are Mrs. Roy Thompson, Mrs. George Sherwood,

Highway Employee Feted At Dinner

A potluck dinner was held Friday in honor of Dee Fox, section foreman for the Oregon State Highway Department at Winchester, who retired May 1. He has been a state highway employee for over 37 years, having gone to work for the department in 1926 as a patrol helper.

More than 50 couples attended, coming from as far away as Florence and Reedsport. He received several nice gifts in appreciation of his many years of faithful service.

L. R. Chandler, division engineer of Roseburg, gave a short talk in behalf of the department, commending Mr. Fox for his untiring efforts.

Frank Wescott Jr., from Reedsport, is replacing Mr. Fox. He and his family have moved to Roseburg and are living in a local mobile home park.
