Church Wedding Unites Couple

Virginia Langdon, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Langdon, Yoncalla, became the bride of Ronald G. Hodges, Redwood City, Calif., son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hodges of Klamath Falls, at a beautiful candlelight service Saturday evening, March 23. The Rev. J. Palmer Sorlien performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was radiant in a full-length gown of Rochelle lace, fashioned in the Spanish manner, with fitted bodice, full tiered skirt and fitted train. She wore an elbow-length veil and carried a white Bible topped with a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Dan Langdon, Springfield, sister-in-law of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a dress made of pale blue brocade taffeta.

Mrs. Robert Remor, Portland, and Miss Donna Langdon, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids, and wore identical dresses of blue taffeta. Roberta Maguire, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl.

Dan Langdon, Springfield, brother of the bride, was the best man. Dick Langdon, brother of the bride, and Wilfred Kincaid, Roseburg, cousin of the bride, performed the duties of ushers. Don Langdon and Dennis Thompson, both cousins of the bride, lighted the candles.

Mrs. Pauline Latham was the organist and accompanied soloist, Mrs. Marjorie Cool.

Baskets of pink and white carnations and candelabra decorated the altar.

Mrs. Langdon, mother of the bride, wore an aqua suit trimmed with black fur. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Hodges, wore a beige silk print.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the fireplace room of the church. The cake had been made by George Thompson and Mrs. Harley Bowman, and decorated by Mrs. Harold Thorp. Cake was served by Mrs. Ira Davis, Springfield, great-aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Lee Blickenstaff, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Harold Thorp poured coffee and Mrs. George Thompson served the punch. Mrs. Dennis Maguire had charge of the guest book. Miss Kathryn Howard and Miss Barbara Dodd took care of the gifts. Mrs. Marvin Thompson, Mrs. Jim Crawford and Mrs. Alton Balfour assisted about the room.

For traveling, the bride chose a beige suit with brown accessories. Following a honeymoon, the couple is now at home at 245 Poplar Avenue, Redwood City, Calif., where the bridegroom is employed as an electronics technician for Ampex Corp.

The bride was graduated from Yoncalla High School and Oregon Technical Institute of Klamath Falls, and was employed as a dental assistant in Cottage Grove. The bridegroom was graduated from Klamath Union High School and OTI.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hodges, Klamath Falls; Mr. Ted Hodges and Lois, Oakland, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Langdon, Greg and Steve, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Skillings, Gates; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Remor, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Veri Thompson, Larry and Jerry; Dr. and Mrs. James Pinard, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Newton, Mrs. Melvin Atkinson, Mrs. Wilbur Briner and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pauley and Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Ruskowski and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brady, all of Cottage Grove.

Former Roseburg Girl Wed At Salem Methodist Church

Trinity Methodist Church in Salem was the setting for the wedding of Miss Christina Anne Bennett and Bob Ray Mosier April 13.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly L. Bennett of Salem, formerly of Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Walters of Corvallis.

The Rev. Park Anderson performed the 8 o'clock nuptials. A reception followed in the church parlor.

The bride's dress was of Chantilly lace, styled with a tiered skirt of alternate ruffles of silk organza and lace. She wore a crown of sequins and pearls to secure her fingertip veil and carried pink roses and white carnations.

Mrs. Jerald Howey of Klamath Falls was matron of honor, and Mrs. Donna McCoy was bridesmaid. They wore pink brocade and carried pink and white carnations.

Dick Emigh of Corvallis was best man. Ushers were Norman Bechtel, Jack Neman and Robert Knapp.

Included among those serving at the reception were Miss Jeannie Bird of Roseburg.

The newlyweds honeymooned at the coast and are now at home in Salem.
