

Chime Dedication Held As Memorial To Drain People

The memory of residents of Drain will be perpetuated by the sound of chimes coming from the Drain will be perpetuated by the Joe Carille, correspondent.

The chimes were dedicated on a recent Sunday. The record player for the chimes was given in memory of Floyd Oscar Craig. The amplifier for the organ and chimes honored the memories of John Craig and his wife, Lily Mattson. Mrs. Leona Cellers, Frank Cunningham, Mrs. Betty McCallister, Ivan Johnston and daughter, Linda Johnston; Mrs. Nita Seaton and grandson, Allan Seaton; Mrs. Lucille Lake, and Ben Mattson. The Rev. W. M. Parker, officiated at the ceremony. Mrs. Hazel Rasor and Kyie Cellers gave acknowledgment of the memorials. Clifford Johnston, president of the Methodist Youth Foundation, spoke on the acceptance of and presentation for the youth.

Out of town people attending the dedication for the Cellers family were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Watson, Yacolt, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Mont Cellers, Mount Lake Terrace, Wash.; Babe Begel, Portland; Norman Cellers, Santa Clara, Calif.; Kyle Cellers, Santa Maria, Calif.; Raymond Cellers, San Jose, Calif.; Delbert Cellers, Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Conely and family, Mohawk; Elizabeth Baker, Marcola; Mr. and Mrs. Red Johnson, Olalla; and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Watson and son, Terry, of Hermiston. Cunningham family members present were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Root and family of Estacada. Craig family members were Mrs. Hazel Rasor, Mrs. Gail Nichol of Springfield and Mrs. Beulah Barker of Eugene.

Seaton Jr. and Debbie of Springfield; and E. A. Seaton Sr. and Keith and Mr. and Mrs. John T. Edwards and daughter of Eugene.

Other out-of-town visitors were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whipple and Mr. and Mrs. Black of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bowser of Eugene, Mrs. W. B. Hugus, of Redding, Miss Gay Rutledge of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mock and Norman Smith of Elkton.

Winstonite Back After Trip East

By PHEBE MCGUIRE
Paul Rummell recently returned to his home in Dillard after a plane trip to Oklahoma City, Okla., where he was called due to the serious illness of his aunt, who since died after major surgery.

Return To Winston
Mr. and Mrs. John Williams have returned to Winston following a short trip through northern California, Nevada, Idaho and Eastern Oregon. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Galloway at Blue Lake, Calif., did some sightseeing in Reno, Virginia City and Winnemucca, Nev., and Homedale, Idaho. During their absence their service station in Winston was managed by Bud Vierra of Roseburg.

Mrs. Dorene Bratsche, accompanied Mrs. Alfred Daniels and daughter, Vicki, to Eugene recently. Mrs. Bratsche remained in Eugene to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Alpaugh, while Mrs. Daniels and Vicki drove on to Corvallis where they attended a birthday party for the former's grandmother, Mrs. Cora Richardson. They then went to Portland to visit Mrs. Daniels' daughter, Mrs. Larry Brooks, and family, and remained there overnight. On their return trip they stopped in Eugene for Mrs. Bratsche, who accompanied them home.
