Plywood Apron Cover Aids Beached Salmon

Because of the big run of spring Chinook this year, one of the favorite sports of passersby at the Winchester Dam is to watch the salmon wiggle up the ladder at the dam.

Jaycee Tennis Deadline Near

The Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce tennis clinic has been scheduled again this year.

Don Akre, Jaycee officer in charge, reports the annual Jaycee Tennis Clinic is scheduled to start at the Stewart Park tennis court June 3. It will continue through June 13, with morning, afternoon and evening classes for all ages.

Don Lowe, tennis professional and former Roseburg High star, will be the instructor. Lowe is also a former Oregon State University singles champion. He won the title in 1962.

Registration for the clinic will continue through Friday. Registration closes at midnight that night. Forms for registration are available at the YMCA, Umpqua Valley Hardware and J. C. Sporting Goods store.

Joining the Jaycees in sponsorship of the event is the city of Roseburg. Adding a lot of luster to Roseburg's tennis scene this year was the announcement today that the annual Oregon State Junior Jaycee Tennis Tournament will take place in Roseburg June 29 and 30.

Bailey Claims Honors On National Golf Day

Ken Bailey carded the low net score at the Roseburg Country Club among 29 golfers participating in National Golf Day.

Bailey fired an 83 and had a 17 handicap for a net total of 66. Lee Stewart shot an 82 with a 14 handicap for a 68. Mack Moeabee shot a 75 with a seven handicap for a 68 and Gerald Kabler fired a 78 with a nine handicap for a 69. These scores will be matched against rounds shot by Gary Player and Jack Nicklaus, and any amateur golfer with scores lower than those fired by the pros will receive a medal.

OAC Great Dies

ALBANY (UPI)—Herman Abraham, 72, a star football player at the old Oregon Agricultural College, died Monday at his home near here. Funeral service will be held Saturday.

Abraham graduated from OAC, now Oregon State University, in 1915. He played fullback on the OAC team which upset Michigan State 20-0 at Lansing, Mich., in 1915.

The run of the river has already reached proportions which make it one of the biggest since the fish counting station was put in operation. The number counted so far amounts to 6,500, well over the normal.

It's an interesting sport to watch the fish fight their way over the dam. But when the water drops to certain levels, occasionally a fish will find himself stranded on the apron next to the counting station.

The state Game Commission has solved this problem now by building new decks on the apron with sheets of plywood so fish which happen to jump onto the apron will slide back into the ladder.

Before the decking was put on, a 40-pound Chinook was listed as a fatality. He was taken to the Douglas County Home to serve as a tasty supper for residents there.

Humboldt Coach Banquet Speaker

Phil Sarboe, football coach at Humboldt State College, Arcata, Calif., was the featured speaker at the all-sports banquet held recently for Canyonville High School team members and their fathers.

Introduced by Norman York, master of ceremonies, Sarboe's speech followed the theme, "Is Athletic Participation Beneficial?" A resume of the sports program for the Tigers during the past school year was given. Richard Peterson discussed football and track; Robert Rowe gave a rundown on basketball; and Bill McKinney told of the progress of the Tigers in baseball.

Special football awards were presented to Fred Grunst, Doug Rudy and Jim Morris by Peterson. Loren Powell and Bud Olsen were cited for the pointmaking prowess in basketball by Rowe, and McKinney presented a special award to John Ringen, captain and catcher of the baseball team.

Corsages were presented to the cheerleaders by Grunst. Highlight of the year in sports for the Tigers was their second place finish in the state in B eight-man football competition. The Tigers also emerged as a Bico-B power in baseball, taking the runner-up honors behind the Yoncalla Eagles.

The dinner was catered by Wal-Williams of Azalea and served by the girls of the homecoming class, supervised by Mrs. Robert Kincaid, Mrs. Harvey Ringen, Mrs. Milton Herbert and Mrs. Richard Peterson, reports correspondent Mrs. R. E. Proctor.

Big Weekend Series Set Between OSU And USC

CORVALLIS (UPI)—Southern California's baseball team was scheduled to arrive here tonight for this weekend's western NCAA playoff with Oregon State.

Southern California has piled up a 30-14 record over a long schedule. The two teams meet in a best two-of-three series Friday and Saturday with the winner qualifying for the College World Series at Omaha.

New Beaver Arrives

KANSAS CITY (UPI)—Kansas City Tuesday shipped catcher Bill Bryan to the Portland Beavers on 24-hour recall. Bryan, 24, was sent as a replacement for catcher Jose Azcue. Kansas City traded Azcue to Cleveland Saturday.

Roseburg 'Am' Entry List Big

Entries are still pouring in for the Roseburg Amateur Golf Tournament to be staged at the Roseburg Country Club over the Memorial Day holiday.

Defending champion Tom Shaw, former University of Oregon star, will not be on hand to try for a repeat on his 1962 performance. Shaw has turned pro and is not eligible to compete.

However, Ken Leonard, former Oregon State golfer, is expected to compete. Leonard is a former Roseburg Amateur champion and finished second to Shaw in last year's tourney.

RCC pro, Jack Schvaneveldt, reports that well over 20 of the entrants to date have handicaps of four or less—which adds up to not only one of the biggest fields in the history of the tournament, but also one of the strongest.

Qualifying rounds will begin Thursday, Memorial Day, at 7 a.m. at the RCC course. Match play will be featured Friday and Saturday. The 16 low qualifiers from Thursday's play will battle in two flights for the championship.

Any additional entrants who have not been paired for the qualifying round will play at eight minute intervals following the scheduled threesomes.

To date golfers from throughout the state have signed up to take part in the tournament, along with several golfers from California and one from Washington.

'Fastest Field' Ready For Indianapolis Go

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—In racing parlance, 33 cars were ready today to go like bombs in the 500-mile Memorial Day auto race. The fastest field in history qualified for the event, averaging 149.028 miles per hour, and the pole-winner and probably pace setter, Parnelli Jones, set records for both one lap at 151.847 and 151.153 for the 10-mile distance.

Even the slowest driver in the field, Dempsey Wilson, qualified at 147.832, well ahead of Roger Ward's 500-mile record of 140.293 last year.

Every pilot in the field was expecting a hell-bent dash from the starting gun at noon, EDT Thursday. "The way to run this race will be to go just as fast as you can for just as long as you can," Johnny Boyd declared.

Predicts New Mark
Boyd predicted the winner would average 146 m.p.h., barring accidents which would bring out the yellow flag, slowing the field and forcing each driver to hold his position in relation to every other car.

Troy Ruttman, one of four former winners in the field, anticipated a speed of 147 m.p.h. might be necessary to win, if given a constant green light for all-out charging.

General speculation was that Jones, who set a scorching pace from his pole position last year until his brakes failed and slowed him to a seventh-place finish, again would set the tenor of the chase.

It was believed he would settle to a pace around 149 or 150 m.p.h., the chargers behind him force an even faster speed. Bobby Marshman said he had run more than 20 laps, after he qualified, at speeds between 149 and 150, indicating he expected to hit that pace and perhaps faster if necessary to stay in contention.

Hard On Engines
Such speeds, Marshman admitted, would put a terrific strain on the motors and chassis of the race cars and could turn the race into an endurance run to prove the ability of pit crews and mechanics in preparing and keeping a car running.

Another speculative entry was the pair of Lotus-Fords built by England's Colin Chapman and driven by Scotsman Jimmy Clark and Dan Gurney. Running on regular gasoline and capable of much better fuel mileage than the alcohol-powered breeds, the Lotus-Ford crew publicly announced they expected to finish the 500 miles on one pit stop.

Normal performance for the conventional roadster is three pit stops, requiring about a minute or more in this heated competition. Forty seconds of running time could be more than enough to win the race.

There was sentiment too for the three Novis owned by Andy Granatelli and driven by Jim Hurtubise, Bobby Unser and Art Malone. But the Novis probably will have to make at least three pit stops, and Jones' strategy appeared to be to try run enough faster than the Lotus cars so that he could make a fast pit stop and still stay in front.

CSU Harriers Try Again For Upset Of Oregon Men

EUGENE (UPI)—Oregon State's track and field team tries again for an upset over defending NCAA champion Oregon in a Memorial Day meet but the chances are considered slim.

The Beavers are hurting from injuries. Frank Marsh, hurdler-sprinter, and shotputter Don Roberts are out. Weight man Lou Fasano has a twisted knee, but will compete.

Oregon defeated the Beavers 80-65 at Corvallis May 4.

Roberts Shows Sparkle; Giants' Lead Cut To One

There's still a lot of the whiz kid left in Robin Roberts.

It's a long 13 years since the veteran right-hander led a young Philadelphia team to the National League pennant, and some of the old speed is gone now. But the comeback pitcher of 1962 seems determined to make the Baltimore Orioles the comeback team of 1963.

The Orioles, who finished a disappointing seventh last year after being tabbed as a prime contender for the American League pennant, are taking care to make no mistakes this time around. And Roberts is one of the big reasons they own a bulging 31-game lead over the second-place New York Yankees today.

Roberts, now 36 years old and relying more on craft than speed, registered his fourth straight victory Tuesday night as Baltimore turned back the Kansas City Athletics, 4-2. It was the Orioles' ninth straight win and their 14th in their last 15 games since Roberts touched off the streak May 14.

All In Fifth
Baltimore scored all its runs in the fifth inning when John Orsino singled, moved to second on Roberts' sacrifice and scored on Luis Aparicio's double. Jerry Adair followed with an infield hit and Al Smith drove in three runs with his seventh homer.

Roberts, who lost his first four games this year, pitched shutout ball for seven innings but tired in the eighth and needed relief from Dean Stone and Stu Miller. Roberts left immediately after the game for Springfield, Ill., to attend the funeral of his father, who died Sunday.

Yankees Lose
In other American League contests, the Boston Red Sox walked the Yankees, 11-6, the Minnesota Twins extended their winning streak to eight games by beating the Washington Senators, 6-3, the Cleveland Indians nipped the Chicago White Sox, 3-2, and the Detroit Tigers defeated the Los Angeles Angels, 3-1.

In the National League, the San Francisco Giants had their league lead cut to one game by dropping a 10-6 decision to the Cincinnati Reds while the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Milwaukee Braves, 7-0; the Chicago Cubs topped the New York Mets, 5-2; the Philadelphia Phillies ripped the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-1; and the St. Louis Cardinals edged the Houston Colts, 8-7, in 10 innings.

Collect 15 Hits

The Red Sox slugged five New York pitchers for 15 hits, including two-run homers by Gary Geiger and Lou Clinton. Geiger also collected two singles as he boosted his batting average to .390. Bill Monbouquette gave up home runs to Clete Boyer and Tony Kubek but gained credit for his sixth victory in 10 decisions with ninth-inning help from Dick Radatz.

Mickey Lolich went all the way for Detroit, giving up eight hits and walking only one batter, to register his first major league triumph. The lone Angel run was unearned. Big blow for the Tigers was a two-run homer by Dick McAuliffe in the sixth inning.

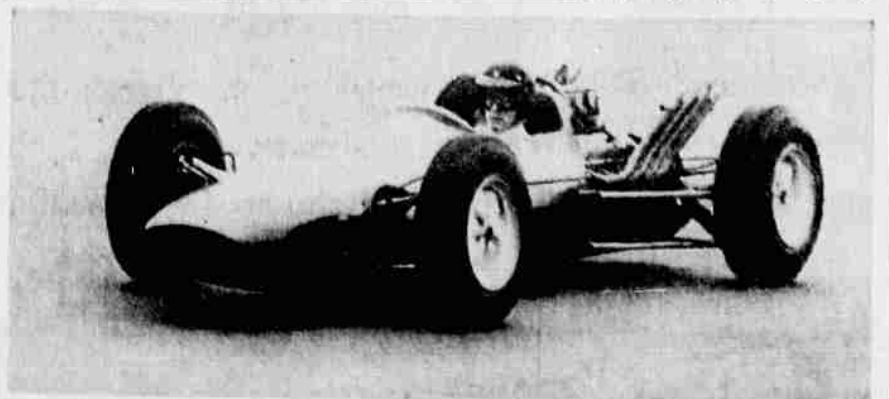

County Drivers Win Six Trophies

Local drivers earned six trophies in the weekend Southwestern Oregon Drag Races held at Port Orford.

Red Larson topped the field in the Class C street rooster competition and Bob Daniels won a trophy in the Class C class powered action. Larson and Daniels are both members of the Satan Chauffeurs Car Club of Roseburg.

Alex Friedman carted home a trophy in the Class D sports car competition, while Eugene Rue earned a trophy in the B sports car division.

Don Major and Frank Benson, with their Chrysler powered B dragster, recorded the low elapsed time with a 10.62 for the quarter mile track. The same duo posted top speed for the day at 129.86 miles per hour. Major and Benson won class trophy for the meet and the top elimination trophy which carried a $75 cash award. On their last run the boys had some bad luck, throwing a rod.

THE BOMB — Racing driver Don Gurney test drives prototype of a new model from Lotus Cars Ltd. of England at the Indianapolis Speedway. The car was built specifically for the Indianapolis 500. It has a 350-hp horsepower Ford aluminum V-8 engine in the rear. (UPI Telephoto)
