

Dolly Bailey Becomes Bride

The marriage of Miss Dolly Jeanette Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin M. Bailey of Myrtle Creek, and Benny O'Neal Hubbard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman N. Hubbard of Roseburg, formerly of Myrtle Creek, took place Friday, May 24, at the First Christian Church in Myrtle Creek.

The ceremony was the scene of the 8 p.m. nuptials. Mrs. Edwin Walters, organist, played traditional music. Mrs. Paul Nott of Roseburg was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Walters.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the bride's brother, Charles William Bailey, associate pastor of the Myrtle Creek Church, and the groom's brother, John Myers, minister of the Myrtle Creek Church, gave the prayer and the scripture.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a classic style wedding gown of pure silk with a long train and three-quarter-length sleeves. The waistline was accented with a bow, and the skirt back ended in a chapel train. Her veil was held with a tiara of pearls and rhinestones. She wore a white gold cross with a single diamond in it, a gift from the bridegroom. The bride carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

For her going-away costume, the bride chose a gold suit with white accessories. Her corsage was a green orchid. Following a wedding trip to California and the coast, the couple will be at home at 1609 SW Park Ave., in Portland.

The bridegroom is employed at the U. S. National Bank and the bride is employed at Northwest Bell Telephone Co. Both were graduated from Myrtle Creek High School.

Hubert Stokes of Roseburg was best man. The bridegroom's brother, Rusty, and his brother-in-law, Dav Potzner, were ushers.

Myrna Walters and David Newman were candlelighters. Shelley Coyle was flower girl. Douglass Hubbard was his brother's ring bearer.

Mrs. C. W. Bailey, sister-in-law of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Dave Potzner was in charge of the gift table; she was assisted by Rebecca Myers and Patricia Boyce. Mrs. W. F. Bennett, White Salmon, Wash., great-aunt of the bride, and Mrs. H. H. Bailey of Vancouver, Wash., another aunt, served the bride's beautifully decorated cake which was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Fred Thompson and Mrs. D. N. Baker served coffee and punch.

Patricia Newman of Portland was maid of honor. Jonie Wicks and Karen Stenberg, also of Portland, were bridesmaids. All three wore pink silk sheaths. They

Executive Board Of AAUW Is Hosted At Clark Home

Mrs. Georgene Clark and Mrs. Robert Rhodes were charming hostesses Thursday evening for the executive board of the Roseburg Branch of the American Association of University Women. The meeting was held at the lovely home of Mrs. Clark in West Roseburg. Announcement was made that the AAUW will again sponsor the Children's Theatre of the West when the production is available this coming season.

Mrs. Lee Hunt, president of the Roseburg branch, reported high lights of the State Division Convention held recently at Gearhart. In response to a request from the State President, the local group voted to maintain the status quo of the Oregon Fellowship program.

Mrs. Robert Rhodes was named to fill the one year unexpired term of the vice president, resulting from the resignation of Mrs. Hunt prior to her election to the presidency.

Present for the meeting were: Miss Esther Dyer, Mrs. J. W. Freard, Mrs. William D. Green, Mrs. Russell Hagg, Mrs. Lee Hunt, Mrs. L. P. Hyde, Mrs. Arthur Marsh, Mrs. William Richman, Mrs. Marshall Sherwin, Mrs. Cecil Sherwood, Mrs. James Waterfield, Mrs. Claude Baker and the hostesses, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Rhodes.

The Glendale Eastern Star designated its recent meeting as Family Night. The meeting was preceded by a potluck dinner. Part of a special program which followed was a demonstration of its work by the Rebekah Drill Team.

Honor guests included the families of the membership, the Rebekah team and an honorary member of the chapter, Miss Carlotta Pass, a past grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon.

Miss Wiseman and Mrs. Robert Thompson, who is a member of the Home Endowment Committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, were escorted and welcomed.

The next meeting will include an election of officers and the annual memorial service.

After the meeting, Clyde Marriott showed a beautifully photographed scenic movie, "High Road to Yosemite."
