Dear Abby!
Grin And Bear It!
 — By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: I used to think some of the letters in your column were too ridiculous to be true, until I found myself with a problem that probably appears just as ridiculous. My husband's sister is 58, and looks every day of it. She taught school for 33 years and never married. This summer she "fell in love" with a widower who must be 60. They will marry in September. She wants a big church wedding, with a white gown and veil, and she's asked my husband to give her away! Now really, Abby! The minister says she is entitled to it. But picture a gray-haired "bride" walking down the aisle on the arm of her brother who is 16 years her junior! We'll be the laughingstock of the community. If we can't talk her out of it, I intend to get a "sick headache" the day of the wedding and stay home. Or am I the one who is crazy?

SISTER-IN-LAW
 DEAR SISTER-IN-LAW: Don't be so concerned about what the "community" will think. It's the bride's day. Let her do as she wishes. And out of respect to your husband, take two aspirin and go with him.

"POOR WHITE TRASH" is coming!

DEAR ABBY: I would like your opinion of stretch pants.
CHARLIE
 DEAR CHARLIE: I think they are more fitting than proper.

DEAR ABBY: Would you please point out the difference between friendliness and familiarity? Many of us strongly object to being called "Honey," "Darling," and "Dearie" by salespeople, waitresses and those who serve the public.
 I know they mean it in friendliness, but I consider it undue familiarity. Let's reserve those terms of endearment for our families and special friends. How about it, Sweetie?

GRACE
 DEAR GRACE: The syrup runs both ways, Doll. But it has been my observation that the "public" is more guilty of this type of familiarity than those who serve them.

DEAR ABBY: Please tell "Betrayed" to continue to accept the love and sweet smiles of her neighbor, as before. If the relationship of her husband and this neighbor had gone further than it should have, her husband would never have breathed a word of it to her. He no doubt got the brush-off, and is now trying to salvage his wounded ego.

Community News Briefs

Mrs. A. F. Micelli is reported improving at Douglas Community Hospital, where she is receiving medical treatment.

Mrs. J. A. Anderson and Mrs. Paul Flood left yesterday for Europe via the Canadian route over the North Pole to Amsterdam, Holland. From there they will go to Frankfurt, Germany, where the former will visit a daughter. They will visit in Nancy, France, where Mrs. Anderson was born, and will also visit relatives and friends in London, Glasgow and Dublin. Mrs. Anderson plans to go on to Newfoundland to visit relatives until September, while Mrs. Flood expects to return home in about two months.

Elder and Mrs. Danny Matthews and children have been visiting the former's uncle, Dennis Matthews, and other relatives a few days in this area. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Matthews, who made their home in Roseburg for many years. He was a student at Roseburg Junior Academy and later was graduated from Walla Walla College. For several years he has been serving as pastor in the Seventh-day Adventist churches in the Washington Conference. He assisted with the music in the local church during his visit here.

Among those from the Roseburg area who attended the southwestern Oregon Drag Race held at Port Orford Sunday were Bob Churchill, Ron Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Miller, Jack Churchill, Linda Kinsel, Jim Lewis, Cheryl Swenson, Mr. and Mrs. Red Linson, Mike Linson, Joyce Linson, Laddie Broyhill, Norm Neal, Pete Rutter, Mike Elam, Bob Daniels, LeRoy Crosier, Mr. and Mrs. John Ballard, Sammy Williams, Bob Abert, Alex Friedman, Eugene Rue, Mr. and Mrs. Don Major, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson and Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Newland left this week for New York City to join other members of their party to go to Europe for a five weeks vacation tour.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Olmer of Seattle were in Roseburg over Monday, at which time the former was the speaker at Roseburg High School commencement exercises in the evening. Olmer is community relations manager for aero-space division of Boeing Aircraft.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Scofield and daughters, Robin and Cyndi, of Gresham, spent the weekend in Roseburg and took their youngest daughter, Laurie, back home with them. Laurie had accompanied her paternal grandmother, Mrs. H. B. Scofield, back to Roseburg for a week's visit, after Mrs. Scofield had been in Gresham visiting at the home of her son. While in Portland Mrs. Scofield enjoyed attending the Ice Follies and the Cinerama, "How The West Was Won."

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Miller Sr. have left for their home in Pittsburg, Calif., after spending the weekend here visiting their son, Kenneth Miller, and their daughter, Mrs. Paul Trent, and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson of Silverton were weekend guests at the Elmer Hitchman home on NW Harlan. Mr. Johnson is a literature evangelist for the Oregon Conference of Seventh-day Adventists making Christian books available. Other guests at the Hitchman home were Mrs. Minnie Murphy, Soledad, Calif. and the Hitchmans' granddaughter, Delleen Hitchman-Christopherson, and her husband, Ray, of Seattle.

Dr. H. G. Stoer, a teacher of languages at Walla Walla College and a former Adventist missionary to South America, was the guest speaker at the commencement exercises at Milo Academy Sunday. He took as his theme the aim and motto of the class, "Diplomas of Character and Commencement for Eternity."

Elder and Mrs. L. E. Russell, former Milo Academy teachers, were present for the graduation exercises at Milo over the weekend. Elder Russell served as the first principal of the academy for seven years. He was guest speaker at the consecration service Friday evening. Elder Russell is now chaplain of the Portland Sanitarium and Hospital.

Mrs. Gerald G. Geddes of San Diego, Calif., has been visiting this past week with her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. J. Geddes; her sisters-in-law, Mrs. Harrie Booth and Mrs. S. J. Cooper; and her brother-in-law, Paul Geddes.

'Suicide' Squeeze Is Murder

ties of a ninth trick in each of three suits.
 A squeeze is indicated and your problem is to lose four tricks to set up the squeeze.
 You duck the first heart and win the second. Then you lead a third heart and West is back in the lead. Unless West is almost superhuman he will laugh happily and run off his last two hearts.
 This play will constitute the so-called suicide squeeze. West will laugh, but East will have to make three discards. He will probably let two diamonds and a club go. Meanwhile you will discard a spade and club from dummy and a club and diamond from your own hand. Now West can lead anything he wishes. It won't matter to you. If he leads a spade you win in dummy and cash the aces and kings of diamonds and clubs. East

NEEDS PRACTICE
 DUENWEG, Mo. (UPI)—Mrs. Maggie McGee, 69, decided to learn to ride her granddaughter's bicycle recently but fell off and broke her ankle.
 "I guess I'll have to join a club and learn how to ride," she quipped to an ambulance driver.
