Mrs. Seth Sirrine and Mrs. A. J. Young of this city spent the Memorial holiday at Bandon.

Robert Berrie and daughters, Debbie and Darcy, of Irvington, Calif., arrived in Roseburg Wednesday for the Memorial holiday weekend to visit his mother, Mrs. O. M. Berrie, on SE Douglas Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Ag and daughter, Debbie, and son, Danny, were at Miso Academy Sunday for their son, Ronald's, graduation. They were accompanied by the parents of Mrs. Ag, Mr. and Mrs. Danny is also a student at the academy.

John Heaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Heaton, who made their home in this area for several years, was graduated from Mt. Ellis Academy in Bozeman, Mont. Sunday. The academy is one of nine Seventh-day Adventist academies in the Pacific Northwest. John formerly attended the local church school.

Mrs. Hubert (Donna) Denton and children, Kathy, Merrill, Wayne and Kenneth, were here for the Miso Academy commencement exercises Sunday. The family formerly lived here before moving to Medford a year ago to have charge of the Medford Branch of the A. W. Paulson Heavy Hauling operations. They were accompanied by Mrs. Denton's mother, Mrs. Marie Stewart-Jones, and her husband whose home is in Grants Pass. Mrs. Jones and her late husband, Earl Stewart, lived here while he served as principal of Roseburg Junior Academy. He taught more than 20 years in the elementary school prior to his death.

Mr. and Mrs. Thel Allen of this city were in Eugene over the weekend attending the National Association of Letter Carriers convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mahoney and baby son, Stewart Lee, have returned to their home in Seattle, following a two weeks vacation here visiting relatives and friends. Kenneth is the son of Mrs. Thel Allen of this city.

The Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Willis of Klamath Falls were recent overnight guests of the latter's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rolfsness. They came for the alumni reunion of Canyonville Bible Academy. Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rolfsness were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rolfsness of Portland. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Rolfsness of Salem.

Mrs. A. L. H. May has returned to her home here, following a trip to Portland to attend the Oregon Tuberculosis and Health Association annual meeting. Mrs. May is retiring as Douglas County representative and accompanying her to the meeting was her successor, Mrs. Frank McCord, of Sutherlin. Mrs. May is the treasurer of the local association.

Miss Barbara Kirby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kirby, arrived home Thursday evening from Hillsboro, where she is employed in the office of the county extension agent. She will be married Saturday to Charles Morene, son of Dr. and Mrs. Albert Morene. Charles will arrive here tonight from Forest Grove, where he is a student at Pacific University.

Mrs. L. W. Josse has returned to her home on SE Lane Ave., following a 10-day stay in Portland visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lillian Haack.
