

Alumni Of Bible Academy Hold Reunion In Canyonville

By MRS. R. E. PROCTOR

Charles Pratt of Castro Valley, Calif., was elected president of the Canyonville Bible Academy Alumni Association at the regular annual business meeting of the organization held Saturday morning with the Rev. Eugene Willis, outgoing president, in charge.

Others Elected

Executive vice president elected was Lester Hixson of Hayward, Calif. Ira Pratt of Winters, Calif., was elected second vice president. Robert Shaffer was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Alumni events began with committee meetings Friday evening after which many attending had dinner at the Nutt Shell Cafe in Myrtle Creek.

Saturday morning began with a chapel service led by Ira Pratt, followed by registration and a brunch. Featured after brunch were pictures of the Hawaiian trip taken by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shaffer as guests of the alumni association this last March.

The Rev. Mr. Willis presided over the business meeting after which alumni pictures were taken. The Rev. and Mrs. Willis leave this June in preparation to accepting a post as missionaries to South America.

The Alumni Banquet was held in the afternoon with Lester Hixson as master of ceremonies and the classes of 1942 and 1953 honored. Included in honors were Mrs. Allen Berg (Beryl Ferguson) of Portland, 1942, Eugene and Joyce Kellar Willis, Edvina Wiste Cople and Harry Lawson, 1953, and Mrs. Howard Maymes, to whom the 1953 annual had been dedicated.

Flying here for the meeting were Frank Ortiz, Cleveland, and David Lobmaster, St. Louis, the latter piloting his own plane. They stopped in Kirkland to pick up Mr. and Mrs. Homer Waggoner. The day ended informally with games and a wiener roast.

Correspondent To Vacation

Beth Chappell, graduating senior of Canyonville High School, will write the Canyonville news in June and July as she did last year, giving the regular correspondent, Mrs. R. E. Proctor, a vacation. Miss Chappell can be reached by phoning 838-4666.

The 4-H Busy Bakers met Thursday at the Robert Young home and were each given a cook book. Dorothy Young demonstrated baking muffins and Shirley Hutchinson was welcomed as a new member.

The Canyonville Methodist ladies made $100 from their rummage sale held Friday and Saturday, according to Mrs. Conrad Clooster, chairman.

Mrs. Merl Helms has returned from Prineville after having spent two weeks there caring for Mr. Helms' mother.

House guests of Mrs. Howard Haymes, and here to attend the graduation of Virginia Haymes from Canyonville Bible Academy, were her mother, Mrs. Vic Johnson, and her niece, Clarence Johnson of Grenora, N. D. Mrs. Lyle Johnson and Paula and Ila of Portland, Howard Haymes of Mill City and Larry Haymes, attending the University of Oregon, also spent the weekend here.

Oakland Author Due For Interview On TV

Mrs. Guy (Maude) Cole of Oakland, author of the book "Away Back When," was recently interviewed on a Eugene TV program according to correspondent Edith Dunn.

Mrs. Cole will make a Roseburg TV appearance at 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday, June 4.

The Oakland author's book deals with pioneer days in the state and particularly in the immediate area. In referring to the book, Mrs. Cole says perhaps a better title would have been "Lest We Forget," referring to all those who pioneered "this great state of ours." Esther Geddes will conduct next Tuesday's interview, bringing out background facts related to the writing of the book.
