

Pre-School Bible Study Ends At Community Church In Green

By MARY WEIKUM

The Green Community Church will conclude its pre-school Bible school studies with a program at the church on Friday morning at 11 o'clock. About sixty youngsters will take part in the stories, recitations, songs and rhythms.

The Rev. Leonard Floth announces that the regular Bible school for children from the first through the sixth grades will commence on June 3 and carry on for two weeks.

Gospel Singer Visits

Mrs. Vera Rutherford, gospel singer of Los Angeles, has been visiting with the Charles Foree family. While in the Roseburg area she gave several concerts at various local churches. She is traveling under the sponsorship of the Methodist Church and the Assembly of God Church of Brooks.

Recent visitors in Green were Mr. and Mrs. James Urban of Lakewood, Calif., who called on the Rev. and Mrs. Leonard Floth and family. Mrs. Urban is better known as the former Mrs. Ralph Knauf when she and the Rev. Mr. Knauf pastored the Green Community Church in the early 1950's. Rev. Knauf died several years ago and she has since remarried. While in Roseburg area she also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foree of Wilbur.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Wilson of Linnell Ave. have received word of the death of the former's sister in Portland. Wilson went north to be with the family and attend the funeral. Mrs. Wilson remained here due to illness.

Keeney Moves

C. B. Keeney recently moved a house from his property on Carnes Road to a lot on Austin Road. He plans to use the vacant property to enlarge his filling station and parking area.

Mr. and Mrs. David Harem and two children have moved to Eugene where he had been living since the first of the year after accepting employment in Springfield. Also planning to move to Eugene as soon as school out are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hubbell and daughter, Kay. Hubbell is working with the contractor of the new university building project. The Hubbells lived on Old Pacific Highway South.

Couple Visits At Riversdale

By BEVERLY CHRISTIAN

Visiting recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cameron and family on Fisher Road have been the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Eastlund of Clarkston, Wash. They are en route to their home from a trip to Colorado.

Mrs. Norma Day has been visiting for a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Trussell and with other friends in Riversdale. She has been staying in Eugene with her son, since the death of her husband in January.

Mr. and Mrs. John Trozelle and daughter, Valerie, and Sandra Atkinson were here from Portland over the weekend. They came especially to attend the 40th wedding anniversary of Mrs. Trozelle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Stark. Mr. and Mrs. Don Guiley were here from their home in Bend to visit the former's mother, Mrs. Vera Guiley.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Ray of Los Angeles, Calif., have left for their home after visiting with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Scott, and family on Fisher Road.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Stark have left for Cannon Beach and Seaside for several days. They will dig clams with friends while there. They will be joined by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Trozelle, and family of Portland.

Miss Anna Bromps has gone to Springfield, Mo., to visit friends and attend commencement at Evangel College of which she is an alumni. Accompanying her on the trip is Nellie Sweitzer.

Public Event Due In Canyonville

The PTA-sponsored community picnic and band concert is planned for Sunday afternoon, June 2, at Stanton Park, according to an announcement at last week's regular meeting of the Canyonville PTA. All Canyonville area residents are invited to attend.

Mrs. Gardner Elected

Mrs. C. L. Gardner was elected president of the association to take the place of previously elected Mrs. LeRoy Morris who resigned. Correspondent Mrs. R. E. Proctor reports. Mrs. Gardner will be formally installed at the September meeting. At this time a proposed change in the by-laws will be voted upon, calling for nominations for new officers in March, election in April and installation in May.

Members voted to sponsor Girl Scouts in Canyonville, a small troop having been started by Mrs. Pat Brayton last month to initiate interest in the activity. Also scheduled was the third annual PTA carnival for next October.

During the program hour, Shinge Nishiyama, a native of Tokyo, Japan, who has been a house guest of the Norman York family this past year in order that he might attend Canyonville High School, told about Japanese schools. York then showed slides taken in Japan.

Japanese Student Speaks To Group

By MRS. R. E. PROCTOR

Shinge Nishiyama, Canyonville High School student from Tokyo, told Canyonville Lions about his experiences as a visiting student and his impressions of the United States at the regular meeting of the Lions Club Wednesday at The Foresters Cafe. He has been sponsored during his Canyonville stay by Mr. and Mrs. Norman York.

Two new members were inducted into the Lions, William B. Hoffee and Don Nicholson. Nicholson will take the position of institutional representative for Canyonville Boy Scout Troop No. 125 which the Lions sponsor.

Bill McKinney and Norman York were named to handle the annual Oregonian Marble Tourney which the Lions sponsor locally. Tex Ritter was the Canyonville representative to the state Lions convention at Baker over the weekend. Installation of the new slate of officers is scheduled for June 26.

Interesting callers at the John Hamlin home recently were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh P. Brady of Seattle who were on their way to California. Mrs. Brady is a cousin of Ed Schieffelin for whom the legendary Schieffelin mine near Days Creek is named, and while in this area, was eager to get as much information about the mine and her cousin's life here as she could.

Junior Academy Presents Concert

Roseburg Junior Academy presented its 20-piece band in concert in the Adventists' auditorium last week under the direction of Ralph Anderson, who, with the band members themselves, has worked throughout the school year practicing before the regular school session, according to Palmer Robson, principal.

Featured in addition to the band numbers were Dennis Munroe and Jim Aldred in a trumpet duet; Billy Woods, tuba solo; and Jim Boyd on the trombone. The entire eighth grade (eight members) helped make up the membership of the band.

Anderson was presented with several inspirational books as a token of appreciation from the band members, school spokesman Inez Hitchman reports.

U. S. Army Man Georgia-Bound After Visit In Camas Valley

By MRS. DAVE THRUSH

Ted Buel of the US Army spent a few days recently at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Buel, in Camas Valley. Ted has completed his basic training at Fort Ord, Calif., and he and his wife, Louella, have left for Columbus, Ga., where he will train in diesel engineering.

Finishes Basic

Jim McGinnis of the US Army has finished his basic training at Fort Ord, Calif., and spent his leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McGinnis, in Camas Valley. While Jim was home he was married to Linda Coltrin of Roseburg. Jim has left for Leonard Army Base in Missouri to continue his training. His wife will make her home with his parents at the present.

Larry Parret from North Hollywood, Calif., spent a recent week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parret, in Camas Valley. Larry is half owner and operator of a service station in Hollywood.

The Camas Valley Grange Home Ec Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Marian Rentz, with 10 members present.

Plans were made for a supper to be followed by a program on June 15 at 8 p.m. to honor the Grange dads for Father's Day. Plans were also made to hold a rummage sale every third Tuesday at the Grange hall.

The next meeting will be held June 17 at 10 a.m. This will be a work day and everyone is to bring a sack lunch. The business meeting will follow in the afternoon. Mrs. Ernie Booth will be the hostess.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess McMaster in Camas Valley were the latter's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter McMaster, from Santa Rosa, Calif., and another sister, Mrs. Lillian Palmer, whom Mrs. McMaster hasn't seen for 14 years. Mrs. Palmer is from Santa Ana, Calif.

WCS Has Meet

The Women's Society of Christian Service met recently at the Camas Valley Methodist Church. Mrs. Jack Wilson was worship leader, and Mrs. Robert Wheeler, gave the lesson. The eight women present prepared for the appreciation party honoring Teddy Heilman.

Five members of the group attended the Umpqua Sub-District Conference held in Roseburg recently. They were Mrs. Guy Moore, Mrs. Ethyl Brown, Mrs. Ernie Wheeler, Mrs. Norma Wilson and Mrs. J. T. Dixon.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Neely in Camas Valley were Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor from Santa Barbara, Calif.

Quilting Occupies Dixonville Women

By MRS. ALBERT RADCLIFFE

Twelve ladies of Cora's Christian Circle met at the Dixonville Pine Grove Church last Wednesday for an all-day session. Several quilts were tied and put together. A discussion was also held on painting the church. A potluck lunch was held at noon.

A special meeting is called for June 5, because of the Vacation Bible School conflicting with a later date.

Visiting in the Clifford Counts home last week was his sister, Mrs. Pearl Grodon, of San Jose, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hatfield drove to Enterprise over the weekend to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. P. D. Hatfield.

First grade students of Eastwood School accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Christine Pace, and two mothers, took a field trip to the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Bailey Tuesday. The group toured the farm, looking at all the animals, including sheep and little lambs, calves and chickens. The children ate their lunches on the creek in front of the Bailey home before returning to school.
