

Dear Abby!

A Mother's Pride

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: I have followed your column for years and have quietly applauded your advice to teen-agers. In raising my own daughter I went through all the normal trials and tribulations. Half the time I had a deep sense of failure.

Our daughter is now married and lives 800 miles away. We correspond regularly. Her last letter made me so happy I want to share part of its contents with you. You may publish it to let other parents know that the long hard fight they put up to raise good children is well worth the effort:

"Dear Momma,"

Since I have been married, and now that I am approaching parenthood, I've done a lot of thinking.

To you and Daddy I want to say "thank you." I don't believe any child ever really appreciates its parents while they are under the same roof. First, I want to thank you for being a good husband and wife to each other. Mom, by just being you, you taught me so much about being a good wife without saying a word. If I can be just half the mother to my children as you were to me, I'll be satisfied. I mean all the love and attention, and even all the "hounding" you did when you thought it necessary to get after me about brushing my teeth, practicing the piano, and going to church fellowship. For teaching me to love and to share. And for giving me faith when everything seemed lost. I thank you with all my heart. I love both you and Daddy very, very much.

That's it, Abby. Can you blame me for being a PROUD MAMA

RODEO CLOWN for this year's Douglas County Rodeo will be Roseburg's own Karl Doering. Doering has become a favorite on the rodeo circuit for his clowning antics. As a clown, he also has the job of keeping romping bulls away from downed cowboys.

Elkton Resident Ends Hospital Stay

By MRS. C. W. HENDERER

John Sawyers of Elkton returned to his home last weekend from Cottage Grove Hospital, where he had been since Wednesday under observation.

Sister Is Guest

Mrs. Rose Worth of Seattle is visiting her sister, Agnes Hudson, for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Solomon of Priest River, Idaho, have returned to their home after spending several months in Elkton.

Mr. and Mrs. Denzil Porter and daughter of Eugene were weekend guests at the parental Ted Taylor home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Insley's infant son will undergo surgery this week at Doernbecher Hospital in Portland.

Mrs. Gladys Stewart spent last weekend in Reedsport with her children.

Others On Coast

Mr. and Mrs. John Levenhagen and family spent Sunday in Reedsport at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whitfield. They all enjoyed a picnic lunch on the beach.

Sue Buckley, student at Southern Oregon College in Ashland, spent the weekend in Elkton at her home.

Peggy Levenhagen, student at Northwestern Business College in Portland is spending this week at her home in Elkton.

Pauline Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Anderson received 14 stitches in her foot Saturday at Cottage Grove Hospital following a bicycle accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Madison and family of Portland were weekend guests at the parental Frank Madison home recently.

DEAR PROUD: Certainly not. And the pride you feel at this moment is well deserved. Congratulations!

DEAR ABBY: The girls in my department got together and gave our foreman a surprise party for his 50th birthday. We had a birthday cake and all pitched in to buy him a wallet. After we sang "Happy Birthday" we lined up to give him a kiss. When it was my turn, I offered him my cheek. He said he didn't want THAT kind of a kiss from me. Abby, he is a grandfather and I am only 19, and I wouldn't think of kissing him on the lips. Now every time he sees me he kiddingly tells me I "owe" him a kiss and he makes a grab for me. I feel so self-conscious around him I find myself dodging him. Am I being childish? How can I keep him from grabbing me?

DEAR OLD-FASHIONED: You can keep him in his place by "kiddingly" calling him "Grandpa." I don't think you're being childish — I think you're being wise.

DEAR ABBY: I am planning a party to which I would like to invite a sister-in-law of mine who is separated from her husband. Another one of my sisters-in-law says she will not come if the one who is separated from her husband is invited. I do not want to cause hard feelings. I want them both. What should I do?

DEAR PUZZLED RELATIVE: Invite the one who is separated from her husband. The OTHER sister-in-law has no business putting you on the spot.

CONFIDENTIAL TO LENA: To remind your husband not to lift those heavy tool boxes, label them HIS and HERNIA.

Today and Tomorrow

Intermediate ages, 13 to 16, will have a special session each evening from 6:30 to 9 p.m. A different theme will be used for each age division.

Registration will be held the first day of the school.

Local News

Mrs. William T. Evans Jr. has returned to her home here, following the last few months visiting relatives and friends in California. She and Mr. Evans made a trip this week to The Dalles and Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Custer Laurence will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Dillard Methodist Church social hall Sunday, June 2. Relatives and friends are invited. The Laurences have requested no gifts.

The Rev. and Mrs. H. James Jenkins and family left Friday for their new home in Portland, where the former will be superintendent for the Methodist Conference for the 42 churches in the Portland Northwest area for the next six years. He has been pastor here the last six years of the First Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Clayton, former residents of Roseburg, and their son, Scott, accompanied by Mrs. Clayton's mother, Mrs. T. D. Gilmore, all from Martinez, Calif., arrived in Roseburg Thursday for a brief visit. They are staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Church, Winchester, while visiting with relatives and friends for a few days. They are visiting particularly with Mrs. Clayton's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Patterson, 1483 N. E. Vine. Mrs. Gilmore, who made her home in Riddle for a number of years, will remain several weeks at the D. W. Clark home in Riddle while visiting with friends.

Schedule Of Events Ready For County's Annual Rodeo

The events for the big rodeo weekend June 13-15 have been pretty well into final form. It was announced today by representatives of the Douglas County Rodeo Association.

The festivities will start June 14 with a trio of dances, to which the members of the rodeo court are selling booster buttons.

A teen-age dance will be held at the Elks Temple, starting at 8:30 with Dick Booth acting as master of ceremonies. Square dancing is scheduled to get under way at 9 p.m. at the Douglas County Fairgrounds. Ronnie Telford of Alturas, Calif., will be caller.

The popular section of the dancing evening will take place at the Douglas County Fairgrounds Community Building, starting at 9 p.m. Bill Borchers' orchestra will provide the music.

For any of the three dances, a booster button will be the admission.

Then the big action gets under way Saturday, June 15. Highlighting the morning will be the year's biggest parade. For the second year in a row, it will be held in North Roseburg. Prizes again will go to the best entries.

That night, the first section of the rodeo will get under way at 8 and continuing until 11, the traditional cowboy breakfast is planned at the Community Building.

The final section of the rodeo will start at 1 on Sunday.

Calapooia Church Schedules Film

"World Parish," a documentary film in sound and color, will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the Calapooia Free Methodist Church. The Junior Missionary Society of the church is the sponsoring organization.

According to W. Ray McBeth, church pastor, the film gives first hand glimpses of the delegates and the work of the recent Asia Fellowship Conference of the Free Methodist Church, which was held in Osaka, Japan. Delegates from Egypt, Hong Kong, Formosa and India are shown as they prepare to leave for the conference and as they meet with delegates from the Philippine Islands, Japan and North America, in Osaka.

Board Approves Melrose Plans

The Roseburg School Board Wednesday night approved the working drawings for an addition to the Melrose Elementary School. The board will call for bids on the project sometime in mid-June.

The plans call for construction of a two-classroom addition, plus administrative office space. Basic construction will be of concrete block. The board has allocated $50,000 for the Melrose addition, plus $2,500 for equipment.

Architect John Briscoe also presented further plans for construction of an addition to the Winchester Elementary School. These plans are still in the development stage by the architect.

Supt. of Schools M. C. Deller reported a peak enrollment of 6,258 in the local school system this year.

The board voted to call for submission of a proposal for doing the annual audit work for District 4 by Roseburg auditor Robert Hanberg.

The board also okayed a plan to let the Roseburg Symphony Orchestra Association use the high school gymnasium free of charge for an appearance by the Portland Symphony Orchestra this fall, if no stage construction is required.
