

THE REV. AND MRS. H. JAMES JENKINS, above, who moved with their family to Portland over the weekend, were honored Friday night at a charming party at the YMCA given by the members of the "Y" board and the Ministerial Association members. James Smith, pastor of the First Christian Church, was master of ceremonies, and on behalf of the group, presented a gift to the Rev. Mr. Jenkins. The latter has served on the YMCA board for the last six years. For the next six years, the Rev. Mr. Jenkins will be a superintendent of 42 churches of the Oregon Conference in Northwest Portland area. His home and office will be in Portland. (News-Review photo)

Mother-Daughter Banquet Given In Green Community

A capacity crowd attended the annual mother-daughter banquet held at the Green Community Church Friday evening. The hospitality committee was in charge of arrangements, and all serving and clearing were done by the men and boys of the church. "Precious Jewels" was the theme used in the affair, and was carried out in the table decorations by the use of gold-colored treasure boxes filled with colored

"gems" on each table, together with greenery and yellow flowers. Mrs. Walter Nuckolls, missionary chairman, was mistress of ceremonies. After dinner, guests gathered for the program. Several small girls sang a group of numbers and Mrs. Delmar Elliott gave a reading, "What is a Wife?"

Announcement was made of the mother to be honored for the year, and Mrs. John Ciapanno was named and presented with a corsage and a plaque.

Speaker of the evening was Mrs. Vera Rutherford of Los Angeles, who spoke on the jewels mentioned in the Bible and application of their meanings to present day life. She interspersed her talk with several songs. Mrs. Carl Weikum accompanied at the piano.
