Canine Pushinka Expecting Again

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Pushinka, the dog Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev gave to Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, is expecting again.

The fluffy, white 2-year-old offspring of the Russian space dog, Strelka, is expected to deliver a litter in two or three weeks, it was learned today.

The White House declined to confirm or deny that Pushinka was showing signs of motherhood. The pet was pregnant last December but suffered a miscarriage.

Five-year-old Caroline Kennedy's Welsh Terrier "Charlie" is believed to be the father. Pushinka was sent to the First Lady as a gift in June, 1961, after the Kennedy and Khrushchev had met in Vienna.

UNION NEARS END

Dear Abby!

Make New Arrangements!

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: My problem is a six-foot, 46-year-old baby. I can't get him out of bed in the morning. When the alarm rings, he shuts it off, puts his head under the covers, and goes back to sleep. Our arrangement is that when the alarm goes off he is supposed to shut it off, get up and put the coffee on.

Not Wrong Guess, Bad Playing

By OSWALD JACOBY
(Written For NEA)

One of the great weaknesses of bridge players is their unwillingness to pay attention to and remember the bidding. North's two club response was Stayman and East's double indicated club strength and asked for a club lead.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:
East South West North
3♥ Pass Pass 4♥
Pass 3
You, South, hold:
♠ K R 3 2 ♠ A Q 8 6 ♠ K 7 4
What do you do?
A—Bid five no-trump. Your partner has made a very strong bid and you are anxious to play a slam in one of the minor suits. Your partner should read that you are short in spades.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding four hearts your partner has jumped to four spades after the three heart bid is passed around to him. What do you do in this case?
Answer Tomorrow

and then I get up and fix breakfast. Well, as I said, he shuts off the alarm and crawls back in bed again. If I try to get him up, he says, "Oh, my back," or "I didn't sleep a wink last night." What makes me angry is that, when he is going fishing, he can get up at 4:30 A.M. without any trouble, fix his own breakfast, and take off with no help from me. What do you think?

PLAIN MAD

DEAR PLAIN: Your husband is a healthy, normal, six-foot, 46-year-old comfort creature. When the alarm rings, YOU shut it off and fix the coffee. And bring a nice steaming cup to his bedside. If the aroma doesn't arouse him, one teeny-weeny drop on his nose will.

DEAR ABBY: When I had my last baby, I swore off having any more children. I am 27 years old, Abby, and I have EIGHT boys (no twins). Is it possible that there is something about the combination of my husband and me that can't produce anything but boys? Whose fault is this, anyway? My husband's first wife had two girls.

LONG ON BOYS

DEAR LONG: You're short on facts. The sex of the children is determined by the HUSBAND.

DEAR ABBY: You mentioned that some of the wires a father should pull to get his son into a good college were TV, hi-fi and telephone. I couldn't agree more heartily. I am 18 years old and have been glued to the "nutty box" almost since its invention. I don't know how I ever tore myself away to go to school. For some fantastic reason I got grades that were good enough to admit me to an Ivy League university. Considering the stiff competition, it was a miracle. I will never let the TV or any other distraction control the lives of any children I may have.

JUST LUCKY I GUESS

CONFIDENTIAL TO ESTHER: When a man says, "I'm sure of my wife," he means that he is sure of his wife. When a woman says, "I am sure of my husband," she means she is sure of herself.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Who doesn't thrill to the performance of well-trained athletes—and who doesn't admire their physical condition? But there's serious concern today about the vast majority of our young people who are not athletically gifted and whose physical capabilities are steadily declining.

There's only one solution to this problem. We must provide our children with balanced educational programs to foster full development—intellectual and physical. All it takes are parents and teachers who care.

Find out about the physical education program in your child's school. Don't judge it by varsity activities alone. Rather, find out what it offers average youngsters.

For information about an activity program that could benefit your child, write to The President's Council on Physical Fitness, Washington 25, D.C.

Former Roommate Of Jackie Starts Secretary Duties

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A petite, attractive brunette takes over command of White House Social activities today from Letitia Baldrige who has resigned to work for the Kennedy family in Chicago.

Miss Nancy Tuckerman, a former roommate of First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy at Miss Porter's School in Farmington, Conn., said she still has a "lot to learn" about her new job as social secretary.

Nicknamed "Tuck" or "Tucky", Miss Tuckerman has been visiting the White House for the past month to be briefed on presidential protocol, partying and planning by "Tish" Baldrige.

She is attractive with golden brown hair, blue eyes and a comely 5-foot-5 figure who dresses fashionably. For the past ten years she has been a New York travel agent. Previously, Miss Tuckerman was a secretary at Miss Chapin's School.

She is a "political independent." Miss Baldrige is leaving the White House to work for the Kennedy family enterprise in Chicago, the Merchandise Mart, starting July 1.
