

Mays Clobbers Three As Giants Pad NL Lead

Look for the San Francisco Giants to break the National League race wide open any day now.

Why? Willie Mays, that's why. When Willie gets into one of his hitting streaks he literally carries the Giants, even with all those other muscular hitters, on his back. He gave evidence that he has shaken off his most recent slump Sunday by ramming three homers as the Giants defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-1.

They were homers No. 8, 9 and 10 for Mays, who hadn't hit one since May 17. During that period the Giants won seven games and lost six, and, even though they held onto first place in the NL race, it hardly was a pace befitting a contender, let alone the defending champion and favorite.

Throughout his major league career the 32-year-old Mays has been a streak hitter, and this year doesn't seem any different than the other 11. The thing about Mays' hitting streaks, though, is that they sometimes produce awesome results — such as Sunday's three homers.

The first homer came with Harvey Kuenn aboard in the first inning and was a typical four-base blow — not too long a drive but no cheapie by any means. The second hit the scoreboard at St. Louis' Busch Stadium in deep left-center, a drive of about 400 feet, and came with the bases empty in the eighth. The third reached to the foot of the scoreboard in the ninth and gave the Giants a 6-1 lead.

Willie showed signs of coming out of his hitting slump on Saturday when he got three hits in four at-bats. He finished the three-game set against the Cardinals with six hits in 11 at-bats and raised his average 18 points to .254 — far below his career average of .315.

The victory enabled the Giants to salvage one game against the Cardinals and widened their lead to two games over second-place St. Louis and 3½ over the Los Angeles Dodgers, who lost to the Cincinnati Reds, 5-2.

In the other NL games, the

New York Mets swept a doubleheader from the Pittsburgh Pirates, 2-1 and 4-3, the Houston Colts nipped the Milwaukee Braves, 3-1, in 17 innings, and Philadelphia and Chicago split, the Phils winning the opener, 5-2, and the Cubs taking the nightcap, 3-2.

In the American League, the Cleveland Indians defeated the New York Yankees, 2-0 and 7-2; the Los Angeles Angels downed the Baltimore Orioles, 8-2; the Washington Senators won over the Kansas City Athletics, 6-4; the Detroit Tigers shaded the Minnesota Twins, 7-6, and Boston and Chicago split, the Red Sox winning the opener, 11-9, and the White Sox the nightcap, 10-9.

Jim O'Toole picked up his ninth victory in beating the Dodgers, but it took some weird doings to achieve as the Reds scored three runs on a bunt during a five-run second inning. A double, infield hit and a walk loaded the bases after two out in the second. The Dodger infield then threw the ball around, two runs crossing on an error by Dick Tracewski and three on a wild throw by Don Zimmer.

The Mets gained their first-game victory when Bill Virdon and Jerry Lynch collided chasing a fly ball in the 10th inning as pinch-runner Rod Kanehl scored from second, and they gained their second win on a 10th inning homer by Jim Hickman. Reliever Elroy Face was charged with both defeats.

Four consecutive singles in the top of the 17th produced the margin of victory for the Colts, who struggled four hours and 36 minutes before beating the Braves. Hal Woodeshick, who pitched six innings of shutout relief ball, was the winner, and Ron Pielke, who worked the last two, took the loss. Between them, the Colts and Braves left 30 runners stranded. Veteran Cal McLish, given a three-run lead at the start, coasted to his fifth straight victory as the Phils won their opener, but Cal Koonce and Barney Schultz combined on a five-hitter to gain the Cubs a split. Art Mahafey, who won 19 games last year, suffered his seventh loss against only two victories.

Pastrano Upsets Defending Champ

WILLIE PASTRANO carried the attack to defending light heavyweight champion Harold Johnson in Saturday's title bout at Las Vegas. Pastrano upset the favored Johnson on a split decision to become the new champion. (UPI Telephoto)

Johnson's Light Heavy Title Lifted On A Split Decision

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—Happy Willie Pastrano said today there was a "strong possibility" he might make the first defense of his newly won light heavyweight championship in Europe in about 90 days.

Swartzy, black-haired Willie, who wrestled the 175-pound crown from veteran Harold Johnson Saturday night on an upset split 15-round decision at the Las Vegas Convention Center, mentioned these three possible European challengers:

—Chick Calderwood of Scotland, who outpointed Willie in Glasgow on Sept. 16, 1960.

—Lennart Risberg of Sweden, who held Willie to a draw at Stockholm Aug. 6, 1961.

—Giulio Rinaldi of Italy, current champion of Europe.

Smiling Willie, 27, explained that, right now, a fight with any one of those three European boxers seemed a better money match than any that could be made in the United States.

He emphasized, however, that manager Angelo Dundee would pick the opponent, site and date. Dundee flew to New York Sunday to help his welterweight champion Luis Rodriguez, with his final grooming for Saturday's first defense against ex-champion Emile Griffith at New York.

Dundee said Sunday he was not interested in a return bout with Johnson, who had accepted Pastrano as a second substitute challenger only after Mauro Mina of Peru and Henry Hank of Detroit had withdrawn from the Las Vegas match because of training injuries.

"And besides," said Dundee, "Johnson is not a drawing card."

Saturday's rainy-night fight, indoors at Convention Center, drew only 2,970 paid fans and about $35,000. In addition, the television money was $60,000. Johnson was guaranteed $37,500; Pastrano, $21,250.

Pastrano's victory was a terrific upset. He had gone into the ring a 5-1 underdog against a champion boasting 19 straight wins.

Pat Oliveri, manager of the defeated 34-year-old Johnson, arranged with attorney Alfred Klein of Philadelphia to make a formal request Tuesday to the World Boxing Council to order a return title fight with Pastrano because of the controversy over the split decision.

Roseburg Merchants Record 3-1 Victory

The Roseburg Merchants pushed across two runs in the bottom of the fifth inning to break a 1-1 deadlock and record a 3-1 YMCA Twilight League victory over the Winston Merchants.

A tight pitchers' duel between winner Phil Delford and Winston's Dick Carlton highlighted the game. Each team was limited to three hits.

Telford's single in the fifth inning brought the winning run home after Winston had scored the tying run in the top of the fifth. Roseburg opened the scoring with a single lally in the fourth.

The victory gives the Roseburg Merchants a 2-1 league mark, while Winston is now 0-3.

Lorenzen Wins Stock Car Race Running Three Laps Without Gas

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (UPI)—Fred Lorenzen nursed his out-of-gas Ford for three laps around the Charlotte Motor Speedway and glided across the finish line at 30 miles per hour Sunday to win the World 600 late model stock car race and $26,250.

The lead-footed North Carolina native, who now lives in Elmhurst, Ill., combined cagey strategy and a lot of luck to set a blistering mark of 132.47 miles an hour and boost his total earnings this season to well over $75,000.

He purposely relinquished the lead to Junior Johnson at the 320th lap and trailed the Chevrolet jockey. By "dragging" behind Johnson he conserved fuel.

But this still wouldn't have been enough. It took a stroke of luck to turn the tide. Johnson blew a tire three laps before the finish and Lorenzen's scat-back Ford whizzed past.

For the next three laps, he rocked his car to feed the last drops of gasoline in the tanks into his engine.

Johnson finished second despite the blowout and won $11,410 in prize money and $6,050 for leading the race for 291 laps.

About 60,000 persons witnessed the accident-free race, marred for a short time by a slow drizzle.

Despite the rain, Lorenzen's time was about 10 miles an hour faster than the previous track record.

Finishing in third place was another Chevrolet, piloted by Rex White of Spartanburg, S.C., who won $8,290.

Joe Weatherly of Norfolk, Va.,

last year's NASCAR champion, piloted his Pontiac to fourth place and $5,675; David Pearson of Spartanburg, S.C., finished fifth in a Dodge for $4,425; and Nelson Stacy and Marvin Panch, both from Daytona Beach and driving Fords, finished in sixth and seventh places.

Junior Bowlers Win State Title

Indian Lanes junior bowlers captured the state championship in the recent National Junior Bowlers Mail-O-Graphic tournament.

The team consisting of Kerry Hogan, Mike Phillips, Chuck Wright, Jeff Jones and Mike Sherlock took the Oregon State junior team title and received trophies and arm patches for their efforts.

A contingent of five teams entered from Indian Lanes, and three won recognition on the national scene. Taking 29th place was the team of Joe Schultz, Chris Johnson, John Hebard, Steve Munson and Dave Christian.

Bantam bowlers Doug Carl, Vern Munton, Steve Buchko, Wayne Donovan and Dale Donovan placed 156th on the national level and the team of Bob Mason, Jim Coon, Gordon Smith, Warren Benfield and Larry Forrest took 250th place.

The National Junior Bowlers Mail-O-Graphic tournament was sponsored by the American Junior Bowling Congress of Chicago and boasted more than 1,500 teams entered from throughout the nation.

Cleveland Blasts Yanks In Twin Bill

Memo to American League managers:

If you want to beat the New York Yankees, save your left-handers for the world champions. And if you need proof of that statement just take a look at what Jack Kralick and young Sam McDowell of the Cleveland Indians did to the Yankees on Sunday.

Kralick, who seems to have regained his 1962 form since being traded by the Minnesota Twins, stopped the Yankees on two hits in the opener as the Indians won, 5-0, and McDowell, the 20-year-old flame-thrower from Pittsburgh beat the champs in the nightcap, 7-2.

The Yankees have lost only 17 games thus far this season in 43 starts but eight of those setbacks have been to southpaws, including one to the departed Bo Belinsky, who had just that lone victory over the New Yorkers this season in eight decisions.

Yields Two Singles

Kralick, who won 12 games for the Twins in 1962 including a no-hit, no-run game over the Kansas City Athletics, gave up a single to Clete Boyer in the third inning and a single to Mickey Mantle in the seventh.

Joe Adcock's three-run homer in the sixth inning decided the issue for Kralick over Bill Stafford. It was Jack's fourth victory in nine decisions and third since coming to the Tribe on May 2.

McDowell didn't pitch nearly as well in the nightcap, but he had more to work on as the Indians opened up a 6-2 lead in six innings. Fred Whitfield, who took over for Adcock in the second game, was the hitting hero with three runs batted in on a double and homer.

Orioles Lose

The second-place Baltimore Orioles failed to gain ground, though as they bowed to the Los Angeles Angels, 8-2. The third-place Chicago White Sox climbed to within 13 percentage points of the lead by splitting a doubleheader with the Boston Red Sox, winning the nightcap, 10-9, after dropping the opener, 11-9, while in other games the Detroit Tigers shared the Minnesota Twins, 7-6, and the second straight, 6-4, over Kansas City.

Drop Fifth Straight

The Angels handed the Orioles their fifth straight loss as Dean Chance gained his fifth victory, stopping eye Birds on six hits. He needed relief help from Julio Navarro to get the final out. Little Albie Pearson provided the punch with three runs batted in, including his fourth homer. Lee Thomas also homered for the Angels.

Juan Pizarro shut out the Red Sox on just four hits in the second game and aided his own cause with a two-run double during a seven-run outburst in the sixth inning. Carl Yastrzemski's two-run homer in the eighth provided the margin of victory for the Red Sox in the opener. Dick Stuart also homered for Boston while Ron Hansen, Floyd Robinson and Pete Ward stroked round-trippers for the White Sox.

Singles In Ninth

Rocky Colavito's ground single in the ninth drove in the winning run for the Tigers after the Twins had rallied to tie the score at 6-6 in the eighth on a double by Jim Hall and a single by Rich Rollins. Colavito homered earlier in the game as did Al Kaline.

Chuck Hinton's two-run homer in the 10th inning led the Senators to their victory over the A's. Don Lock's eighth home run in the seventh tied the score after the A's had taken a 4-3 lead in the sixth. Jim Coates was the winner in relief and Dale Willis, who took over in the 10th, was the loser.
