

Completion Of Survival Course Rates Certificates In Canyonville

By MRS. R. E. PROCTOR
Sixteen Canyonvillagers received certificates of completion at the last meeting of the Individual and Family Survival Course held in Canyonville high school Thursday evening.

Donald Grindols and David Stockner, Myrtle Creek teachers, were instructors for the concentrated course. The class from Ridge joined the Canyonvillagers for this last session.

Receiving certificates in Canyonville were Marge Allen, Richard Allen, Mary Connor, Reed Gross, John Hamlin, Frances Johnson, W. L. McKinney, Elveda Preston, William Preston, Bennette Pickett, Neil Reynolds, Esther Thompson, Betty Woolley, Lewis Woolley and Harriet Pruden.

The Canyonville crusade for the American Cancer Society netted $278 in the house-to-house canvass and $102 in a private memorial fund, according to Mrs. Howard Royle, who reported the final tally this week.

Planning to spend six weeks at the University of Oregon this summer studying speed reading are Billie Herbert and Kathy Peters, both of whom will be juniors in Canyonville High School next fall.

Scenes and pictures of the party of four who explored and hiked a distance of 50 miles into the Diamond Lake region were shown in the Forest Glen Senior Residence auditorium by Bill Pilhofer last week. The group penetrated into a primitive region, taking pictures of animals and scenery.

Wednesday evening Aaron Glasgow entertained with more colorful slides of scenes taken in the Northwest. Thursday, residents chose either a recital and band concert in the auditorium or the Canyonville Parent-Teachers' Association meeting, for the evening activity.

California Stay Made
Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Springmire have returned after spending a week in San Francisco and the Bay Region with their son-in-law, and daughters Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McKinley of Vancouver, Wash.

Guests from Medford Manor visiting Mrs. Molly Brooke and dining at the residence were Miss Carrie Lyon, Grace Lyon, Mrs. Ida Tye and Mrs. Eva Nichols. The same day, Louise Perotti of Medford Manor was a guest of her sister, Alice Shelton.

Mrs. Clara Harris, a retired registered nurse, moved into her new home at Forest Glen this past week.

Umpqua Valley Coin Club Is Incorporated

The Umpqua Valley Coin Club is now incorporated, it was announced following a recent meeting.

Papers for the new incorporated club were drawn up by a local attorney, Clive Stevenson was elected president of the new organization. It is announced that while membership is similar to the former club, the organization is now entirely different. Meetings are held the first Sunday afternoon and third Thursday evening of each month.

Mental Health Committees Set

In a recent meeting of the Douglas County Mental Health Association, James Gwaltney, president, announced committee appointments.

The group will not meet again until early in August at which time plans for a special September program will be made and the association's membership drive will officially begin.

Named to the finance committee were Harry LeBeau, Hugh Byrkit, Jim Trowbridge and Bill Peckham. Thelma Flesman and Raylene Peckham will be in charge of publicity. K. C. Lyster will head the program committee.

At the meeting, Arthur Wilson, attorney, made recommendations regarding the bylaws which were then adopted by the association. Application was made for affiliation on the state level.

According to Mrs. Peckham, speaking for the publicity committee, the public is urged to take an active interest in the plans and activities of the county association.

"Through support of the association's programs of action and education, much can be done to alleviate the mental suffering of the thousands of emotionally disturbed and mentally ill persons," Mrs. Peckham said.

Dues are $3 annually and include national, state and local memberships as well as receipt of a monthly publication by the State Mental Health Association, according to Mrs. Peckham.

FIRE ATLAS MISSILE

VANDENBERG AFB, Calif. (UPI)—The Air Force successfully launched an Atlas E intercontinental ballistic missile Tuesday in an evaluation of the overall weapons system.

The 82-foot missile was raised from its concrete bunker seconds before being fired on a 4,000-mile test flight to a predetermined target area in the Pacific Ocean.
