Charming Tea Held

A farewell tea honoring Mrs. H. James Jenkins was given by the Methodist Church Woman's Society of Christian Service at the home of Mrs. William Kissinger. Mrs. Gordon Stewart had charge of the floral arrangements, using bronze tea roses, arranged in a matching antique dish for the tea table. The table was covered with a lace tablecloth. A lovely arrangement of rhododendrons in an Oriental dish was used in the living room, together with a colorful bouquet of iris.

Mrs. J. M. Boyles, retiring president, assisted with the tea. Assisting at the tea table were: Mrs. Leo Gillett, Mrs. Charles Colegrove, Mrs. Emmet Gibbons, Mrs. Howard Roberts, Mrs. Ted Chiesna, Mrs. Ivan Edwards, Mrs. Joe Logan, Mrs. Floyd Powell and Mrs. Arthur Marsh.

Mrs. Robert Bradley, Mrs. Gerald Converse and Mrs. Jack Dent had charge of the guest book.

Guests attending the tea were: Dr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Dixon from Camas Valley, the Rev. and Mrs. H. James Jenkins, Mrs. Glenn Clute, Mrs. Ray Compton, Mrs. John Gardner, Mrs. Carl Wassom, Mrs. George Felt, Mrs. Ray Rosenholm, Mrs. Bertha Lett, Mrs. John Todd, Mrs. Bertha Lett, Mrs. William Thompson, Mrs. M. Z. Canaday, Mrs. Harrie Booth, Mrs. William Woods, Mrs. Wayne Crooch, Mrs. Edward Maurer, Mrs. Rae Horton, Mrs. James Finlay, Mrs. Kenneth Ford, Mrs. Paul Dillon, Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mrs. Warren Burrill, Mrs. O. R. Pollard, Mrs. Donald Porter, and the hostess, Mrs. Kissinger.

The Rev. and Mrs. Jenkins have since moved to Portland, where he will be superintendent of the Forest Grove District.

Umpqua Squaws Enjoy Dinner

A very delightful dinner party was enjoyed by the Umpqua Squaws Sunday in the Harris Cafe dining room. Members of the group have all spent a good part of their lives in or near Umpqua.

Places were set for Mrs. John Joelson, Mrs. B. Rasmussen, Miss Mary Kamp, Mrs. Roy Edwards, Mrs. Charley Joelson, Mrs. Ben Palm and Mrs. George Munson.

Dinner Meeting Held By Society

New officers for the Umpqua District Dental Assistants Society were installed recently in connection with a dinner meeting at the Oak Tree Inn.

Officers installed were Florence Andrews, president; Lola Chambers, president-elect for 1964; Freeda Bell, vice president; and Sharon Graf, secretary-treasurer.

A candlelight ceremony was also held for initiation of new members. Dr. Eleanor Stadler and Mrs. Harold Augustus, honorary advisers, Freeda Bell and Helen Mendenhall assisted with the services.

Those initiated into the society were Jennie Deardorff, Kay Holman, Sandra Renfrow, Mary Recla and Clara Wehde.

Jacqueline LeGat is the outgoing president. She is also state membership chairman for the association.

Final Meeting Of Season Held By Sutherlin Group

Mrs. Phil Morey, newly-installed president of Beta Eta chapter of ESA, conducted the final meeting of the season on Monday evening at the Sutherlin home of Mrs. Gene Priest.

Meetings will resume in the fall and start off with a rush party for prospective members with Mrs. Mickey Thompson as chairman.

Other committee chairmen appointed at the meeting were as follows: Mrs. Fred Miesner, chairman of the Timber Days dances; and Mrs. Jack C. Culver, chairman of the queen's float.

It was decided that the group would study foreign countries as their educational program for the year under the direction of Mrs. Bud Holm. A campership will be given by the sorority to a local handicapped child. Anyone knowing of such a child will please contact Mrs. Bud Holm at Sutherlin 3460.

The evening's door prize was won by Mrs. Jack C. Culver.

Following the close of the meeting Mrs. Priest served refreshments to Mrs. Phil Morey, Mrs. Jack C. Culver, Mrs. Mickey Thompson, Mrs. Bud Holm and Mrs. Fred Miesner.

To Attend Meet

South Douglas Assembly, Rain-bow for Girls, made final plans to attend Grand Assembly in June at the regular meeting, the first one presided over by the new worthy advisor, Sharon Olson.

Grand Assembly will be held this year on the Oregon State University campus at Corvallis, June 16, 17 and 18. About 14 girls plan to attend.

Lookingglass WCTU Hosted At Home Of Eugenia Swan

Mrs. Eugenia Swan, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Grant Nielsen, graciously entertained the Lookingglass Woman's Christian Temperance Union at the home of the former Thursday afternoon. The devotional service led by Mrs. Tom Hester and the program presented by Mrs. Fred Southwick were centered on the WCTU program for the month, "The Christian Family Home."

Mrs. Southwick reported that the County WCTU had purchased a set of films in color titled "A More Charming You" and that part of the set had been shown the past week at the Winston eighth grade room. The set includes four reels and is available upon request. The Winston teachers requested that it be shown again next year to their new group of eighth graders.

The Loyal Temperance Legion party held at the Lookingglass church had an attendance of 25. Mrs. Southwick was assisted by

Music Teachers Are Entertained

The Douglas County Branch of the Oregon Music Teachers met at the home of Mrs. Walter Marosok on NE Douglas Ave.

A short meeting and election of officers was held. Those holding offices from last year were retained: Miss Gladys Strong, president; Mrs. Jack Suksdorf, vice president; and Mrs. Homer Grow, secretary-treasurer.

Plans were discussed concerning the state convention of the Oregon Music Teachers Association to be held this month in Eugene.

Mrs. Clifford Dumas gave a review of the book, "Red Plush and Black Velvet," on the life of Nellie Melba.

Refreshments were enjoyed by the following members: Miss Gladys Strong, Mrs. Jack Suksdorf, Mrs. Wayne Wagner, Mrs. Howard Magill, Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Mrs. Clyde Carstens, Mrs. Georgia Clark, Mrs. Homer Grow, Mrs. H. F. Tliche, Miss Verna Goodwin, Mrs. Clifford Dumas, Mrs. Richard Crenshaw, Cloyd Riffe, Clarence Trued and the hostess, Mrs. Marosok.

Informal Recital Charming Event

Mrs. Jack Suksdorf presented a group of piano and organ students in an informal recital for friends and families. Ricketts Music Store was tastefully arranged and decorated for the occasion. The program was divided into three sections, the beginner group, the social music and the classical and contemporary. Students played with assurance and poise, displaying good technique and musical comprehension.

Refreshments were served by Charles Ricketts while the guests visited. Those performing were Kathi Kinnan, Cynthia Duncan, Candace Thompson, Barbara Lecklider, Lori Manning, Lester Jensen, Judy Hall, Linda Rooke, Florence Matthews, Vicki Thrush, Michael Nelson, Catheryn Fisher, Sandra Jensen, Jim Boyd, Leon McCord, Pamela Pole, Sandra Linn, Janine Webb, Jeanette Arthur, Patricia West and Jackie Schwartz.

Extension Unit Has Installation

The Azalea-Glendale HEU held its last regular meeting of the spring Thursday afternoon at the Azalea Grange Hall with 13 members present.

New officers for the organization were installed as follows:

Mrs. Harold Estes, chairman; Mrs. Ted Booth, vice chairman; Mrs. David Miller, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. LeRoy Dixon, alternate secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Harold Estes and Mrs. Harvey Pack gave a demonstration on the care of hard floor coverings, and Mrs. Gerald Gregory showed the movies which were taken in March of a comedy fashion show given by the unit.

Members decided to hold picnics this summer rather than disbanding the group completely until next fall. The first of these will be held Thursday afternoon, June 20, at Elliott's Trailer Park. Mrs. Harvey Pack will demonstrate how to make log-egg planters from tin cans and spackle.
