

Maury Willis Paces Dodgers To Victory Over Houston Colts

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Maury Willis is off and running again—and it's no coincidence that the Los Angeles Dodgers are back in the win column again. The National League's most valuable player of 1962 was sidelined two weeks ago with a toe ailment that made the Dodgers hurt all over to the tune of eight losses in 12 games, including five in a row up to Tuesday night. Then, the man who set an all-time major league record of 104 stolen bases in one season turned to action. His chances of challenging his own record are gone for this season, but he showed in his first game that he has a more important quality: the ability to make the Dodgers win. The end of the Dodgers' five-game losing streak came with a 2-1 victory over the Houston Colts and the "odd run" was Willis' run—scored in the third inning when he singled, stole second and tallied on a single by Ron Fairly, other run when he walked in the first inning, went to third on Junior Gilliam's double and tallied on a wild pitch by Dick Drott.

Gain On Giants

Bob Miller pitched five-hit ball for eight innings to win his fourth game with the ninth-inning relief aid of Ron Perranoski as the Dodgers advanced to within three games of the first-place San Francisco Giants, who were beaten by the surprising Chicago Cubs, 6-1. The Milwaukee Braves rallied after 22-23 consecutive scoreless innings for three runs in the ninth inning to beat the New York Mets, 3-2, in the only other NL game. Cincinnati and Pittsburgh were rained out. The Dodger victory was a typical "Willis win" because the erratic-hitting Los Angeles club was held to three hits in seven innings by Drott. It was the old story of the light-hitting team needing something extra—and the 1962 story of Willis' speed producing that something extra. In the American League, the Baltimore Orioles beat the New York Yankees, 3-1, the Cleveland Indians downed the Detroit Tigers, 6-4, the Washington Senators edged out the Boston Red Sox, 1-0, the Minnesota Twins shipped the Kansas City Athletics, 5-0, and the Los Angeles Angels nipped the Chicago White Sox, 1-0.

Cubs Beat O'Dell

The Cubs scored their eighth victory in their last 10 games as Bob Buhl pitched a five-hitter against the Giants for his fifth win of the season. Billy O'Dell, who had won eight straight games,

St. Joseph's 9 Wins Tilt 17-1

St. Joseph's combined six hits, nine North Roseburg errors and numerous walks for 17 runs to roll to a 17-1 triumph in a YMCA Church League opener Monday. While his teammates were exploding for plenty of runs, Bob Wolter tossed a nifty two-hitter at North Roseburg. Wolter struck out 11 batters over the five inning route. Ron Pinard and Neil Hummel each had 1.2 records at the plate for St. Joseph's, while Tom Reese was 1.3. Reese's blow was a double. The winners got off to a fast start with three runs in the first inning, then exploded for eight more in the second to blow the game wide open.

NEW YORK METS third baseman Charlie Neal leaps high to snare a throw from outfielder Jim Hickman, then dives at the bag to try to get Braves Don Dillard as he scrambles back after making a wide turn. Umpire Lee Weyer names the call—safe. Dillard, advancing from first on a hit by Tommy Aaron, started to try to score but changed his mind and just made it back. It all happened in the ninth inning when the Braves scored three runs to win 3-2. (UPI Telephoto)

Spokane Downs Denver 4-3 In PCL Loop Tilt

By United Press International

Denver is the latest victim of Spokane's unique second game whammy. The Indians are a 30-28-26 in the Pacific Coast League Standings, but are 15 for 15 in the second games of all their PCL series. The Indians, five games behind Tacoma in the northern division chase, got a stiff battle Tuesday night before Dick Nen's single in the bottom of the ninth brought a 4-3 victory.

Denver jumped off to a quick lead, but nice relief work by Joe Moeller and Ken Rowe and Al Ferrara's two-run homer in the fifth helped set the stage for Nen's game winning blow. Ferrara's blast ran his run batted in total to 51 for the campaign. The weatherman and a couple of hot pitchers pretty well took care the rest of the PCL action last night.

Portland was postponed at Seattle and Salt Lake City at Tacoma because of wet weather. Hawaii mashed Oklahoma City 6-1 behind Dick Sovie and Dallas-Ft. Worth thumped San Diego 4-0 with dazzling Lee Stage doing the honors.

Sovie allowed six hits, but still only faced 32 batters since he did not walk a man. Ex-Los Angeles Dodgers Jim Golden took the loss although Dick Simpson's three-run homer off reliever Butch Nixon did the heaviest damage. At Fort Worth, the Rangers'

Slange allowed but three hits and fanned 15 Padres in running his record to 5-0. Loser Sammy Ellis gave up only one run before retiring for a pitch hitter in the eighth.

The win moved the Rangers a game and a half ahead of San Diego in their southern division battle. The teams are going steady during the next few weeks with all 11 meetings between the teams scheduled soon. San Diego may have its problems.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson, president of the U.S. Olympic Committee, and champion miler Jim Beatty joined Gen. Douglas MacArthur today in deploring the latest outbreak of hostilities between the NCAA and the AAU.

Wilson urged that MacArthur call the opposing sides together "in the very near future" to forestall another track "war" that would weaken the U.S. team for its dual meet against Russia in Moscow next month. The Olympic leader said in Chicago that the current dispute "apparently has come out of a difference of interpretation of Gen. MacArthur's March 12 ruling" when the five-star general first mediated the AAU-NCAA squabble over control of track meets.

Beatty asked the warring factions to discontinue their feud because "it would be a shame if this summer in Moscow the men's track and field team of Russia defeated the U.S. men's team for the first time."

The latest eruption was caused by the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference (E.C.A.C.) announcement Monday that member schools should not participate in AAU-sanctioned track meets unless sponsors of these events obtained sanctions from the U.S. Track and Field Federation, a wing of the NCAA. This immediately produced an outburst from MacArthur, since a new war could prevent NCAA athletes from competing in the AAU championships at St. Louis June 21-22. Without USSTFF sanction, many of the nation's outstanding college track stars would shun the event that selects members for the meeting against Russia in Moscow.

"I am reluctant to believe that either of these groups, directly or indirectly, intend to abrogate their given word to the detriment of their country and the athletes whose activities they control," MacArthur said in a statement that urged a halt to the new flareup. Angry AAU officials charged the NCAA with renegeing on the agreement that MacArthur hammered out early this year. The AAU maintained that MacArthur's ruling under this agreement gave it sole sanctioning power in the United States for open track and field competition. Some NCAA officials, however, never accepted that edict because it failed to grant the USSTFF's proposal for dual track meet sanctions.

Barber Tops Yanks; Orioles Take Lead

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

A slight twitch in Steve Barber's left shoulder explains today why the New York Yankees have a very large pain in the neck. A 24-year-old left-hander who can throw a baseball through the side of a barn, Barber felt the twitch about three weeks ago. He informed Baltimore Oriole manager Tommy Hitchcock then and there that he would rely henceforth on his fast ball.

The six-foot, 190-pound Barber couldn't have caused more grief among American League hitters if he had announced that he was going to fire 50-calibre dum-dum bullets out of a machine gun at them. Because Steve's fast ball is just about all any pitcher needs—as evidence his 9-4 record that makes him the first AL pitcher of the season to reach nine victories.

A crowd of 37,137 in Baltimore saw Barber move the Orioles into first place Tuesday night with a 3-1 victory over the Yankees.

"I haven't thrown a curve in four games," said Barber after the game. "I think that's what was bothering my shoulder. Anyway, I never did have a good curve ball."

Barber's ninth win enabled him to equal his entire total of 1962, part of which he spent in the Army, and made him a leading candidate to become a 20-game winner this season. That would make him the first 20-game winner in modern Baltimore baseball history.

Barber struck out six and walked three in 8 2-3 innings before Dick Hall emerged from the bullpen to retire Elston Howard for the final out. Johnny Powell's two-run fifth-inning homer was the big blow of the Orioles' attack on Ralph Terry (6-5) and Mickey Mantle homered for the Yankees. The win snapped an Oriole five-game losing streak.

The Los Angeles Angels defeated the Chicago White Sox, 1-0, the Cleveland Indians downed the Detroit Tigers, 6-4, the Washington Senators shaded the Boston Red Sox, 1-0, and the Minnesota Twins beat the Kansas City Athletics, 5-0, in other AL games.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs topped the San Francisco Giants, 6-1, the Los Angeles Dodgers edged out the Houston Colts, 2-1, and the Milwaukee Braves nipped the New York Mets, 3-2.

Dan Osinski pitched a three-hitter and Lee Thomas singled home Felix Torres with the only run of the game in the second inning as the Angels dealt the White Sox a loss that prevented them from sharing first place. It was the fourth win in five decisions for Osinski while Gary Peters suffered his third loss against the same number of victories.

Pinch hitter Mike De La Hoz' two-run homer was the big blow of a five-run seventh-inning rally that gave Cleveland's Jerry Walker his third win of the year. Joe Adcock also homered for the Indians, who handed Hank Aguirre his fifth defeat against four wins. Tom Cheney turned in a five-hitter embellished with six strikeouts to win his fifth game on the wings of Don Lock's fourth homer in as many games—a sixth-inning poke off Boston's Earl Wilson. It was the third straight win for the Senators and snapped Cheney's personal six-game losing skein.

Bob Allison connected for his 14th homer of the year with two mates aboard and Earl Battey also homered for the Twins as Jim Perry went the distance for his fourth triumph.
