

Globe Trotters Of Baseball See Action Here Saturday

The Indianapolis Clowns, billed as the Harlem Globe Trotters of baseball, are set for an exhibition tilt at Legion Field Saturday.

Opposing the Clowns will be the hard-hitting Brooklyn Stars. While the stars can't quite match the Clowns when it comes to comedy, they provide formidable opposition at the game of baseball.

Both teams are touring Negro clubs which have built up a reputation as proving grounds for major league prospects.

The Clowns boast the only mid-ponents from the semi pro and professional ranks.

Saturday's game will begin at 8 p.m. The exhibition tilt is being sponsored by the Roseburg Indian Club, with the proceeds being used by the club to help finance various activities beneficial to athletics in the Roseburg school system.

Lumberjills Down Creswell By 17-0 In Opening Game

Roseburg's Lumberjills opened the season with a lopsided 17-0 triumph over the Creswell girls team at Creswell.

Brenda Solnicka paved the way for the victory with a brilliant one-hitter. Miss Solnicka struck out 12 and walked three as she was in complete control from start to finish. Her teammates backed her up with errorless fielding.

Heavy hitting was provided for the Lumberjills by Judy Zeigler and Rexi Nicholson who blasted triples, while Joanne Davenport connected for a pair of two-baggers. Jean Sork and Sue Weber each collected three hits in four appearances at the plate.

The Lumberjills, sponsored by Paul Jackson's Wholesale, will head south for their next game, taking on Eagle Point at the Camp White diamond June 15.

et ball player in professional competition in the form of Billy Vaughn. Vaughn stands 4-5 and tips the scales at less than 100 pounds. The 19-year old midget is set to open at short-stop for the Clowns.

Vaughn serves as the straight man for many of the comedy routines, teaming with Natureboy Williams. Williams is a natural "ham," but is also a topflight ball player.

Several major league players have come up through the ranks of the Clowns, with one of the most famous being Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves.

The Clowns have won the Negro World Championship four times. Last year the Clowns built up a record of 131 wins against 29 losses, playing against all classes of op-

East Produces Deception Play

By OSWALD JACOBY
(Written For NEA)

All deceivers don't go around selling gold bricks. Some operate at the bridge table.

South was more of a duplicate player than a rubber bridge man so instead of being properly thankful for the small favor of a spade lead which insured his contract, South went out after everything that he could gather in.

He came to his hand with the jack of diamonds at trick two and led the queen of hearts. Meanwhile East had been engaged in a little quiet thought. Obviously South held four spades so that if the suit were headed by the ace South would have responded one spade, not one trump.

In that case South would have the ace of clubs among his securities and there would be no way to keep him from making nine tricks unless East could install a real feeling of confidence.

Accordingly, East lost no time letting the queen of hearts hold and when South led a second heart dummy's ten was allowed to hold that trick.

Now South was ready to make five odd. He led a spade from

Roseburg Legion Twin Bill With Sweet Home Called Off

Rain came back once again to plague coach Bill Harper's charges Tuesday—this time in American Legion Junior play rather than high school ball.

After a wet high school season every one was looking forward to the sunshine and Legion baseball. However, just as the Roseburg team was ready to take off for Sweet Home Tuesday a telephone call came to tell the local crew to stay at home as it was raining hard in the foothills of the Cascades.

As a result the twin bill scheduled at Sweet Home was cancelled. The next scheduled game for the Lockwood Motors team is Friday night at Corvallis, followed by a Saturday doubleheader at Albany.

Dear Abby!
Jealous Of Violet!
— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: I am 45 years old and have been married almost 15 years. My wife is a good cook, a good housekeeper and a good woman. She has one bad fault. She will spend lots of time watering her African violets, her one passion in life, but she never asks me if I want a drink of water. I am well able to get myself a drink of water, but it would be nice if she would offer it to me once in a while. Am I wrong?

MR. R. T. K.
DEAR MR. K.: You are the first man I have ever heard from who is jealous of an African violet! Don't suppress your anger. Emulate the competition. Turn purple and say, "I'm thirsty, Darling. . . will you water me, too?" And don't be surprised if she tells you you are already all wet. . . or simply to dry up!

DEAR EDNA: The wedding setting is the bride's choice. Traditionally, the bride is married in her own church, but if she prefers to be married in the groom's church, it is proper to have it there.

DEAR EDNA: I like to work in my shop some evenings after supper. I do so almost every evening. My problem is this: A neighbor girl, 16, keeps coming into my shop to watch me work. I enjoy her company, but my wife is afraid the neighbors will get the wrong idea. What can I do to keep everybody happy?

DEAR MAN: No one can keep "everybody happy." But for a start, tell Sweet 16 (sweetly) that she should spend more time on her homework and less on your shop work. P.S. Tell "wifey" to grow up, too.

DEAR EDNA: Is it correct for a wedding to be held in the groom's church? The bride's church is a small one in a rural section, and has no place for the reception. The groom's church is very large and has a huge basement where receptions are held. Please print your answer because about 300 people are directly involved.
