

INSTALLED following a dinner at the Gold Room at the Umpqua Hotel were Roseburg Junior Woman's Club officers. Front row, left to right, are Mrs. Douglas Bond, treasurer; Mrs. George Grubb, president; and Mrs. Gary Roan, first vice president. Back row, left to right, are: Mrs. John Boyles, one-year director; Mrs. Wayne Maxey, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Glenn S. Baughman, second vice president; Mrs. Steve Oakley, recording secretary; Mrs.

Vern Lively, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Stan Anderson, two-year director. Mrs. Bond and Mrs. Chris Rodford were responsible for the charming table decorations of rhododendrons and calla lilies. Mrs. Bond helped Mrs. McClanahan in making the rosebud corsages, and also assisted Mrs. Grubb Mrs. Oakley and Mrs. Frank Benson in fashioning the table favors. (Chris' photo)

IN ROSEBURG to conduct installation ceremonies for new officers of the Junior Woman's Club was Mrs. Wallace Smith of Portland, state junior director and third vice president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs. She is shown, at left, with Mrs. George Grubb, (center), new president of the Roseburg club; and Mrs. Larry Kvidera, past president. (Chris' photo)

MARY BADE, above, will be installed honored queen of Bethel No. 42, International Order of Job's Daughters' at a public ceremony planned for Saturday, June 8, at 8 p.m. at the Oakland Masonic Lodge. Mary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Bade of Sutherlin. (Picture by Clark's Studio)

Jay-C-Etts Installation Charming Event Of Monday

The Roseburg Jay-C-Etts entertained members and guests Monday evening at a dinner meeting held at the Turn Around Inn. After a short meeting, presided over by Mrs. Glen Govey, retiring president, Mrs. Don Strickling and Mrs. Bill Donnelly gave reports on the recent Jaycee State Convention they attended in Portland. Retiring officers installed the following new officers: Mrs. Bob Hays, president; Mrs. Ron Strickling, vice president; Mrs. Dick Davis, secretary; and Mrs. Larry Green, treasurer. The installation ceremony was done by candle-

Retirement Party Held

The Glide PTA and the Glide Education Association were hosts at a charming retirement tea Monday from 3 to 5 p.m. held in the multi-purpose room at Glide Elementary School, given in honor of Mrs. Albert (Clarice) DeBernardi, who has been teacher of the first grade for the past 22 years. Bouquets of iris decorated the serving tables. At the opening of the affair, Archie Huseby, president of the Glide PTA, presented the honoree with an orchid corsage; Mrs. Raymond Brown, president of GEA, followed with a gift of a large rhododendron plant. Mrs. Floyd Hickman and Mrs. Vern Shrum poured the coffee and Mrs. Marjorie Blase, special education director at Glide Schools, served the punch. Mrs. Edward Olson, Mrs. Ralph Hickman, Mrs. John Connine, Mrs. David Warner, Mrs. Harold McCormack and Mrs. Edward Smith assisted Mrs. Ray Hilgers, over-all chairman. More than 100 friends, teachers, students and Glide High alumni attended the event. Mrs. DeBernardi started teaching 1929-28 and 1929-30 at Glide Elementary, teaching both first and second grade students in one room. She resigned to marry Albert DeBernardi. She returned to teaching in 1942. The honoree stated she had no particular plans for the future, except to do whatever she wanted.

Sister Honored At Bridge Party

Mrs. George Sothman was a charming hostess at her home in Winston Thursday afternoon at a party in honor of her sister, Mrs. Gladys Falkenhagen of Quincy, Wash. Mrs. Falkenhagen has been visiting with her sister for the past month. Bridge and delightful refreshments were enjoyed by the Mesdames Charles McCord, Lee O. Hunt, Arthur McGuire, Gladys Falkenhagen and Mrs. Sothman.

Teacher Honored

The fifth grade class held a recent surprise birthday party at school for their teacher, Mrs. Oretta Suloff. Refreshments were served by the girls in the class. Several mothers attended the party.

Elgarose Club Has Installation

Elgarose Comfort Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Fred Alberding. Mrs. O. F. Stringer was co-hostess. At the meeting held before luncheon, installation of officers was held. Edna Sjogren won the quilt which had been made by the club members. The auction gifts went to Mrs. Carl Backlund; travel prize to Joyce Stewart, and door prize by Julia Yarbrough. Following the luncheon a pink and blue shower was held for Sandra Schultz. Games were enjoyed. Members present were Donna Warren, Edna Sjogren, Mabel Backlund, Jane Cheek, Marjorie Lander, Jan Parks, Arlene Backlund, Ruth Graves, Carol Newman, Sandra Schultz, Julia Yarbrough, Joyce Stewart, Evelyn Graves, Theresa Warner, Leona Yarbrough and the two hostesses. The last meeting of the year will be at a picnic at Stewart Park at 12:30. Members and their families are invited.

A PLANT was presented as a gift to Mrs. Clarice DeBernardi, above right, who is retiring from teaching the first grade at Glide after 22 years, and who was honored at a retirement party. Presenting the gift is Mrs. Raymond Brown president of the Glide Education Association. (Bob Kinyon Photo)

Mother-Daughter Banquet Held At Melrose Church

The annual mother-daughter banquet of the Melrose Community Church was held Friday evening. The theme, "Patterns for Living," was carried out in the decorations. More than 100 per present to enjoy the interesting program which included two lovely numbers by the "Vance Sisters Trio" and a timely message, "Patterns for Living," by Mrs. R. L. Dunn, guest speaker. A highlight of the evening was a comic fashion show presented by 15 women of the church. Taking part in the show were Sylvia Gray, Chris Gausnell, Ann Schroeder, Jane Thompson, Carol Isakson, Betty Reese, Lenora Lynn, Dianne Gausnell, Roberta Martin, Joyce Niswonger, Charlene Reeves, Diane Johnston, Judy Krohn and Virginia Hughes. They were assisted by Elsie Isakson, Carol Arnsmeier was the commentator for the event. Mrs. Dean Gausnell, program chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Pete Gray and Mrs. Wayland Gentry, plus the entire Pioneer Girls group of the Melrose Church. Mrs. Jenny Farr was chairman of the decorating committee, assisted by Mrs. Joe Fenn, Mrs. Bill Shipp, Mrs. Earl Martin and Mrs. Eugene Smith. Mrs. Bill Nickolaus, Mrs. Ralph Krohn and Mrs. Don Isakson were in charge of the food planning. Men of the church did the serving. Mrs. Art Buckwalter was toastmistress for the evening. Mrs.

Party Is Given

The Glendale Junior High seventh and eighth grades held a party at the school Friday evening, attended by 48 members of the two classes. The young people played games and danced. Afterward, refreshments were served by the chaperones, Mrs. Rod Swanson, Mrs. Gordon Mehl, Mrs. George Wells and Miss Ardith Meyers.

Club Is Hosted

The Past Matrons Club of Glendale met recently at the home of Mrs. Howard Edson, with Mrs. Joe Payne acting as co-hostess. The meeting included a discussion of plans for the OES installation of officers June 30. The hostess served delicious desert refreshments.

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER Society BEVERLY BROOKE

Sandra Brown Becomes Bride

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Mesa, Ariz., was the scene May 24 of the wedding of Sandra Janell Brown of Mesa and Donald Russell McFarland of Phoenix, Ariz. Bishop Harold Wright performed the double ring rites at 7 p.m. before 100 guests. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Brown of Mesa and the granddaughter of Mrs. William A. Teeple of this city. She is a former resident of Roseburg and attended high school here. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McFarland of Phoenix. The church was decorated in lavender and white. Soloist Tom Davis sang "This is My Beloved" and "Because." The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was charming in a gown of silk organza over angel tulle. The yoke and neckline of the long-line bodice was finished in Alencon lace which also accented the full skirt which featured a chapel train. The bride's head-dress was formed of the same lace, arranged in the form of petals. Her wedding bouquet was lavender and white. Linda Brown, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was clad in white chiffon, with lavender headpiece and slippers. She carried a cascade of lavender chrysanthemums. William McFarland was best man for his brother. Ushers were Don and Harold McFarland. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brown wore a white and turquoise linen suit. The bridegroom's mother wore blue linen. Mrs. Teeple, who made the trip to Arizona to attend the wedding, had a corsage of white roses to match those worn by the mothers of the bridal couple. Following the wedding, a reception was held at the church. The bride's table featured a three-tiered colonnade wedding cake and punch served from a huge block of cut ice. Janet Brown, sister of the bride, presented the guest book. The newlyweds left on a wedding trip to the Grand Canyon and Las Vegas, Nev., and are now at home at 1310 N. 48th, Phoenix. For traveling, the bride wore a white pique dress styled with a full pleated skirt. The bride attended Roseburg High School and Brigham Young and Arizona State universities. The bridegroom attended Phoenix College. Both are employed on the Salt River Project, Mrs. McFarland in a clerical capacity, and her husband as a surveyor.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD MCFARLAND, above, were united in marriage by Bishop Harold Wright of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints May 24 at Mesa, Ariz. The bride, Sandra Janell Brown is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Brown of Mesa formerly of Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Paul McFarland of Phoenix, Ariz. (Wedding Camera Photo)

Miss Wassom Is Honored At Lovely Bridal Shower

Mrs. M. A. Porter was a charming hostess when she entertained Saturday afternoon at her home on Miller St. in Roseburg at a bridal shower honoring Miss Carolyn Wassom whose marriage to Dennis James Batsch will take place June 9 at the First Methodist Church in Roseburg. Roses and wedding bells were used in decoration about the rooms. The table centerpiece was a beautiful arrangement of Fashion roses. Miss Wassom opened her many lovely gifts after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present or sending gifts were Mrs. Eugene Blosser, mother of the bridegroom-elect; Mrs. Phillip Wassom, mother of the bride-to-be; Mrs. John Krohn, Mrs. Leland Ewing, Mrs. Virgil Deedon, Mrs. Edward Plautz, Ruth Hazard, Mrs. Walter VanderVeg, Mrs. Tom Dawson, Mrs. Claude Wassom, Mrs. Carl Havens, Mrs. S. W. Gilman, Mrs. David Chase, Mrs. James Hombest, Mrs. L. B. Atterbury, Mrs. Hubert Graham, Mrs. Walter Becker, Miss Janet Wassom, and the hostess, Mrs. Porter. Both Miss Wassom and her fiancé are students at Southern Oregon College at Ashland.

Pupils Present Piano Recital

The piano students of Mrs. Merle Godding entertained their families and friends at a recital held recently at the Elkton Grade School. The program was varied with classical, contemporary numbers and folk songs. Those taking part were: Gayla Mitchell, Bruce Madison, Kelley Gossel, Kim Posekany, Shelley Mitchell, Rick Posekany, Molly Beckley, Terri Parrish, Joyce Moore, Enola Bobst, Carol Higgins, Christine Clemo, Mary Mitchell, Debbie Baker, Candy Clemo, Anne Rydell, Rita House, Sue Suloff, Debbie House and JoHara Lang-felt. Refreshments were served after the program by Mrs. James Davis and Mrs. Warren Baker.

Dear Abby! By Popular Vote! — By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: I'm no kid (33) and have had enough experience in this line to know better, but I am in a jam. I started seeing a young woman (she is 25) and we hit it off fine. You know, Abby, when the lights are low a guy makes a lot of "campaign promises," and I guess I did tell her we'd be married in the future. Well, what does this dizzy dame do but go out and buy herself an "engagement ring." She took it to the office where we both work and announced our "engagement." She's telling everybody we'll be married around Thanksgiving. We did talk about it, but I wasn't that definite. I really don't want to marry her or anybody else at the moment. What do I do now?

IN A JAM

DEAR IN: A man who makes "campaign promises" is definitely a candidate. So prepare yourself to "run"—in one direction or another.

DEAR ABBY: For crying out loud, if you use this letter, don't use my name of I'll never hear the end of it. I am a man almost 40. I sell for a living and do very well because I'm a good talker. I use the telephone instead of writing because, believe it or not, I can't spell. I have tried to look up words in the dictionary to see how they are spelled but how can you find a word in the dictionary if you can't spell it?

NO SIGNATURE

DEAR NO SIGNATURE: Look up the word the way you THINK it should be spelled. If you can't find it, look up a synonym (a word which means the same thing) —and you'll probably run into it. If you don't have any luck—just call up somebody and ask him! P.S. Start with "dictionary."

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl who is almost 12 years old and my mother never told me the "facts of life." How can I get her to tell me soon? If she finds out I already know, she will kill me.

SHOULD KNOW

DEAR SHOULD: Come right out and tell your mother exactly what you know. This will give her an opportunity to correct any wrong information you have received and to answer any questions you would like to ask her. If you are a normal young lady, you will probably have several.

CONFIDENTIAL TO ANDY: "What it costs to maintain one vice could bring up two children." (Franklin)

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 3363, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50c to Abby, Box 3363, Beverly Hills, Calif.

IMPROVE YOUR BIDDING AND PLAY

Order Your Copy of WIN AT BRIDGE with OSWALD JACOBY

In this 64 page book Oswald Jacoby shares with you the bridge playing techniques that have made him the No. 1 tournament player in the rankings of The American Contract Bridge League. It helped him accumulate more Master Points than any other player or columnist enabled him to win more than 40 national championships. Don't miss this opportunity to learn bridge from the best.