The Class prophecy was read by Lana Turner and the class history given by Jalene Hane.

SHIRLENE BRAZIE'S FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Latin America starts in Mexico and works its way south... so does the amount of spices used in cooking in the different localities. The Mexican school of cooking is about the hottest in the world. The amount of spices used gradually thins out in the different countries until we get to the Argentine, where most dishes are almost as placid as a New England boiled dinner.
 In between, you will find a degree of spiciness to please all tastes. Actually it is Indian cooking overpowered by that of the conquerors who were mainly, but not entirely, the Spanish. In some places, the Indian recipes were pushed out entirely, and the cooking shows it. In others, like Ecuador, the newcomers, even after five hundred years, have little more than "a foot in the kitchen door".... (More next week)....
 For FOOD at its BEST and SERVICE that's FAST and COURTEOUS, you should dine at the TIMBER GRILL. Now open until 9:30 p.m. Featuring SEAFOOD... STEAKS... CHICKEN... RELAX in the atmosphere of our TIMBER ROOM LOUNGE at 732 S.E. CASS STREET... Phone OR 2-9109.
