

A WEDDING of much interest in Roseburg took place in Kern Park Christian Church in Portland, when Naida Jean Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Smith, formerly of Roseburg, became the bride of Robert Floyd Rohrbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Rohrbach of Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Rohrbach are now residing in Redmond, Ore. (Picture by Kennell-Ellis, Portland).

DON LEHMANN, adjudicator here last year and again this year, will present a concert at 8 p.m. Monday, June 10, at the First Methodist Church. A special invitation has been extended to all music teachers as well as music lovers of the area to hear this fine pianist. Lehmann and his wife are guests of Mrs. C. S. Heinline while in Roseburg.

Music Lovers To Hear Pianist

Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Roseburg music teacher, has invited all Roseburg music teachers and lovers of good music in this area, to enjoy the concert Monday evening at the First Methodist Church to be presented by the National Guild adjudicator, Don Lehmann. Lehmann, who is on the music staff of Warner Pacific College in Portland, acted as adjudicator here last year for Mrs. Heinline's pupils and is again serving in this capacity this year. Because of the smallness of her home, Mrs. Heinline has secured the Methodist Church so that more friends could enjoy hearing Lehmann present his concert Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Lehmann, who reside in Portland, are guests this week of Mrs. Heinline.

Installation Held By Club At Annual Social Meeting

Mrs. E. V. Lincoln will head the University of Oregon Mothers Club for the 1963-64 season. Along with other new officers, Mrs. Lincoln was installed at the May meeting of the club held in connection with a social event to which husbands were invited as special guests. The joint affair was a potluck dinner held at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. St. Onge on Foothill Drive. To serve with Mrs. Lincoln, and also installed were Mrs. L. F. Parks, vice president; Mrs. C. E. Fraback, secretary; and Mrs. Edwin Starr, re-elected treasurer. Mrs. Darley Ware, retiring president, was the installing officer.

The May meeting of the club is traditionally a time for honoring husbands of members, themselves of fathers who have done much through the year to aid the club members in their many activities promoting the welfare of their sons and daughters at the university. Traditionally, also, Mr. and Mrs. St. Onge open their home for the event. This year, weather permitted the dinner to be served on the patio near the outdoor fireplace. Club members conducted the installation and short business meeting which concludes the club's activities until the start of the fall sessions at the university.

Mrs. Ware and Mrs. Paul Dodd, the latter a newly appointed member of the state board, reported on business conducted by the board at the recent "Mothers Weekend" on the Eugene campus at which time the clubs throughout the state presented a check for $8,000 to the university president to be turned over to the scholarship fund.

Present for the charming affair besides the host and hostess were Mrs. Ware, Mrs. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln, Mrs. Fraback, Mr. and Mrs. Dodd, Mrs. Robert Lloyd, Mrs. H. A. Watzig, Mrs. Burton Randall, Mrs. Adah Knowland, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Booth, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Mrs. W. H. Carter, and special guests Mrs. M. W. Kimmel, Mrs. Stanley Kidder Jr. and Miss Sarah Ann Kidder.

Former Roseburg Girl Now Bride

Of interest to friends of the Wayne D. Smiths of Klamath Falls, formerly of Roseburg, is the news of the April 20 marriage of their daughter, Naida Jean, to Robert Floyd Rohrbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Rohrbach, Bend.

The young couple exchanged marriage vows in Kern Park Christian Church, Portland, in a double ring ceremony read by the Rev. Kenneth Johnston. Yellow and white girdled and white tapers decorated the church for the two o'clock ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full-length gown of embroidered white nylon organza and carried a cascade of stephanotis and yellow rosebuds with white satin streamers centered with a white orchid. Her bouffant, shoulder-length veil was held in place by an ornament of flowers fashioned of pearls. For something old she carried an imported lace handkerchief from Brussels, Belgium, which had belonged to her great-grandmother.

Miss Jean Barnes of Roseburg, cousin of the bride, sang "I Love Thee" by Grieg and "At Dawning" by Cadman.

Mrs. Bernard Heuker of Portland, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Barnes of Roseburg, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Donnie Dunlap, the bridegroom's sister. All three attendants carried nosegays of yellow and white carnations. Their short yellow veils were held in place by circlets of net leaves. The pearl bracelets which they wore were gifts of the bride.

Donnie Dunlap, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man, and Anthony Lum and Nicholas Wiltz Jr., both of Portland, were ushers.

A reception followed in the church fellowship hall. Wedding cake was served to about 200 guests by Miss Joan Lokken and Miss Sandra West. Mrs. Theodore L. Barnes, Roseburg, aunt of the bride, served punch and Mrs. William S. Barnes, another aunt of the bride, also of Roseburg, poured coffee and tea. Miss Betty Nakshimada of Portland was in charge of the guest book, and Miss Lavonne Wauters, also of Portland, took care of the gifts.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Smith wore a sheath type frock of light green lace with matching accessories and a corsage of pale pink orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink linen sheath with white accessories and light green orchid corsage.

For her wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, Calif., the bride wore a soft green coat and dress ensemble with black accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The young couple is now at home at 239 1/2 St. Street, Apartment 6, in Redmond, where the bridegroom is employed by Crater Lake Machinery Co.

The bride attended Medford High School, Robertson's School of Business and Linfield College at McMinnville. She resided in Portland where she was employed for five years prior to her marriage.

The bridegroom was graduated from Baker High School and attended Central Oregon College at Bend and the University of Oregon where he was affiliated with Theta Chi fraternity.

The Wayne Smiths were residents of the Winchester area for three years before moving to Klamath Falls where they now live at 434 Selma Ave.

Club Party Is Given Mrs. Flood

The Wednesday Bridge Club enjoyed a delightful no-hostess luncheon at the Umpqua Hotel to honor Mrs. Paul Flood, who with Mrs. J. A. Anderson, will spend the next couple of months in Europe. A lovely gift was presented to Mrs. Flood from Mrs. Emil Ramberg, Mrs. C. H. Babitt, Mrs. Don H. Sanders, Mrs. R. J. Hatterscheid, Mrs. Jack Davis, Mrs. Ralph DeMoisy, Mrs. T. C. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Bea Smith.

Church Rites Unite Couple

Nancy Ellen Fotheringham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Fotheringham of Glendale, and Darald Holcomb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Holcomb of Sutherlin, were married in a double ring ceremony held at the Glendale Assembly of God Church Friday evening, May 31.

The bride's attendants included Kay Hubler, maid of honor; Judy Holcomb of Sutherlin, sister of the bridegroom, and Patty Buchanan, bridesmaids.

The bridegroom's attendants were Jim Trimmer of Weed, Calif., best man; and Lynn Clemo of Elkton, his cousin, and Earl Hembrick of Sutherlin, his brother-in-law, as ushers.

The Rev. Bruce Manning of Springfield, former pastor of the church, officiated. Two candelabra held the white candles which were lighted before the ceremony began. The candelabra were flanked by large white baskets of iris in multiple tones of orchid. The ends of the pews were decorated with wide white ribbon bows.

Before the ceremony began, Brad Williamson, nephew of the bride, cut the ribbons at the ends of the pews reserved for the families of the couple. Candles were lighted by Barbara Williamson, niece of the bride, and by John Fotheringham, her youngest brother.

Mrs. Delbert Multimer of Sutherlin was pianist. Her husband, pastor of the Sutherlin Assembly of God Church, was the soloist. He sang "Because" and "Perfect Love."

The bride was exquisite in a traditional-length white lace gown over white acetate crepe. The dress was detailed with a scoop neckline, long pointed sleeves, covered buttons down the back and a Basque waistline above a pleated skirt over a full hoop. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a pearl-studded tiara. She carried a bridal bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Her maid of honor and bridesmaids wore identical pink taffeta street-length gowns with simple rounded necklines, elbow-length sleeves and tailored bows at the waistline above the full skirts. Each wore an openwork white hat over pink, wrist-length white gloves and white slippers. They carried bouquets of white carnations tied with white ribbon streamers.

The candlelighter wore a green dress trimmed with white lace, similar in style to those chosen by the other attendants.

Mrs. Al Fotheringham, mother of the bride, wore a green suit and white hat. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Mrs. Wilbur Holcomb, mother of the bridegroom, chose for the occasion a pink, green and white flowered dress with white hat and accessories and white carnation corsage.

After the ceremony, the newlyweds were honored at a reception held in the Masonic Temple dining room. The couple cut a four-tiered white cake decorated with garlands of white and topped with four white wedding bells and white flowers under an arch of white lace and flowers. The cake centered a white damask linen-covered serving table and was flanked by lavender and white twisted candles in crystal candle holders. Cut glass punch bowls occupied the ends of the table. The tablecloth edge was decorated with miniature bouquets of pink and white flowers tied with pink ribbon.

Lavender and white crepe paper streamers and white tissue wedding bells were hung above the serving table. Lavender and white streamers and miniature bouquets of flowers were used above each of the exits.

Bouquets of orchids around white candles decorated the piano in the dining room, and bouquets of snowballs and lavender verbena were used in the entrance hall.

The guest book rested on a small table opposite the main entrance doors. The table, covered in lavender and white, was accented with a large bouquet of flowers in blue, orchid, and pink tones in a white bowl, together with a cluster of paper wedding bells.

Mrs. Norval Sheppard, Nancy J. Miller, Kathy Allen, Nancy Clare and Jane Lee served the cake and punch. Celia Mae Thompson and Alma Grace Hutto had charge of both the guest book and the gift table.

Duplicate Club Is Entertained

Mrs. M. L. Hallmark entertained her Round Robin Duplicate Bridge Club Monday afternoon at her beautiful home on SE Overlook Ave. A dessert-luncheon was served at 1 o'clock by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. S. G. Palmer.

Members enjoying the occasion with Mrs. Hallmark were Mrs. Harold E. Schmeer, Mrs. B. L. Hardenbrook, Mrs. Roy Catching, Mrs. L. W. Metzger and Mrs. W. L. Tozer and guests included Mrs. W. C. Callison, Mrs. S. G. Palmer and Mrs. Fredrick J. Porter.

THE WEDDING of Nancy Ellen Fotheringham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Fotheringham of Glendale, and Darald Holcomb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Holcomb of Sutherlin, was an event of Friday evening, May 31, at the Glendale Assembly of God Church. Mr. and Mrs. Holcomb will make their home in Sutherlin. (Fox Photo).

ANN WALTON, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Walton of Roseburg, will be installed honored guest of Roseburg Bethel No. 8, International Order of Job's Daughters Saturday, June 8, at 7:30 p.m. at the Masonic Temple at an open affair. Other line officers to be installed include Randi Todd, Gale Short, Stephanie Giles and Kathryn Elliott. The public is invited to attend. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography).

S. Clarence Trued Students Give Final Spring Recital

Monday evening, a group of students comprising all grades were presented in a final spring play-off at the home studios of S. Clarence Trued on Jackson St. In a profuse setting of roses (graciously offered by Mrs. Roy K. Byrd), bright young students of various ages gave adequate testimony to their musical talent, skill and training by turning in a fine keyboard exhibition, many showing marked improvement over previous performances. The receptive and enthusiastic audience of some 50 friends and relatives acknowledged with spirited applause each rendition as programmed.

Selections from Rubenstein, Debussy, Mendelssohn, Rachmaninoff and many moderns, were offered and much versatility was achieved as a result of this choice. And while several of those scheduled to play had left the community as a result of graduation, 11 remained to appear in the recital. Those participating were as follows: Helen Metzger, Pat Phillips, Cindy Cox, Pat Bryd, Charles Colbrunn, Brian Baker, Cinda Byrd, Debbie DeBernardi, Cheryl Baker, Richard Watters and Peggy Ostrander.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Trued, assisted by Mrs. J. A. Colbrunn and Mrs. Wilbur M. Watters.

Bride-To-Be Has Charming Shower

Alma Powell, Kate Powell and Charlotte Bates of Roseburg were co-hostesses for a bridal shower given at Alma Powell's home on Porter St.

The affair was in honor of Miss Gloria Bates, who will become the bride of Stephen Lampert June 15.

The evening was spent in playing games and visiting, after which the honoree opened her many lovely gifts.

The hostesses served delicious refreshments which included a beautiful cake decorated by Rhoda Jensen.

Those present were Ellen Marie Colwell, Shirley Astry, Marjorie Lampert, Terry Bowman, Margaret Colwell, Ruby Beasley, Neola Schultz, Angela Laurance, Beverly Astry, the guest of honor and the hostesses.

Unable to attend, but sending gifts were Muriel Schultz, Bonnie Jamison, Mrs. Harlan Moore, Marie Kaster, Gayle Papst and Marjorie Schultz.
