

Defending Champ Leads Yanks In British Tournament Advance

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (UPI)—It was the United States vs. England today in the quarter-finals of the British Amateur golf championship.

Four Yanks, led by defending champion Dick Davies of Pebble Beach, Calif., and four Englishmen battled their way into the round of eight Thursday, leaving the host Scots on the outside looking in.

Davies, who barely escaped elimination Thursday, drew British Walker Cupper Michael Lunt as his quarter-final opponent. The two were first off the tee this morning.

All-American Match
The other quarter-final matches pitted Dick Sikes of Springdale, Ark., against a fellow Walker Cupper, Dr. Ed Updegraff of Tucson, Ariz., in an all-American showdown. Dr. Ron Lucetti of South San Francisco, Calif., against Peter Green, and David Moffatt against John Blackwell in an all-English match.

The quarter-final winners will square off this afternoon for the right to meet in Saturday's 36-hole title round.

Davies came perilously close to surrendering his title in both of his matches Thursday. He needed an extra hole before eliminating Scotland's John Wilson in his morning round, sinking a seven-foot putt for a birdie-three on the 19th green. In the afternoon, Davies was four down after 11 holes before rallying for a 1-up victory over former champion John Barrell of England.

Lucetti, meanwhile, remained alive in the lower half of the draw to retain the Yanks' chances of an all-American final. The 26-year-old Army dentist upset English Walker Cupper Martin Christmas, 3 and 2, after downing Scotland's Brian Anderson by the same score.

Sikes, the U.S. Public Links champion the last two years, downed Dr. Harry McAnespie of Scotland, 4 and 3, and 19-year-old Fraser Urquhart of Scotland, 2 and 1.

Updegraff bested Geoff Dixon of England, 2 and 1, then gained an upset 3 and 2 victory over Ronnie Shade, the Scottish Walker Cupper who was the tournament co-favorite when the shooting began Monday.

CLEARING a major obstacle the mighty chinook salmon is shown jumping the final step in the fish ladder at Winchester Dam on its way up the North Umpqua River to the spawning grounds. Salmon have been pouring over the dam for the past few weeks, but anglers will not be able to take advantage of this as the salmon season is now closed. (News-Review photo)

Yankees Cooled By Raging Orioles

By United Press International

Ralph Houk and Billy Hitchcock have another feud going and this one could be a pip.

The two managers had to be separated during a sudden flare-up in New York last summer. Neither threw any punches in Baltimore Thursday night but both got in some hot-tempered conversational licks after the Orioles beat the Yankees 4-2 to take a 1½ game lead in the American League race.

"We'll win the pennant, snapped Houk, obviously smarting over the fact the Yankees lost two out of three games to the Orioles. "Baltimore won't beat us. You can bet on that and you can put it in headlines."

Cooling off a bit, Houk conceded "the Orioles have a good ball club," then hastily added, "but I think we have a better one—even with our injuries."

Apprised of the Yankee manager's comments, Hitchcock countered: "I'm glad Houk is so concerned about the Orioles. He must really be worried about us to be so concerned."

Rally Against Williams

The Yanks fell behind early Thursday night, finally tied the score at 2-all in the top of the eighth and then saw the Orioles break the tie in the bottom of the inning when singles by Brooks Robinson and Jim Gentile off loser Stan Williams capped a two-run rally.

Dick Hall, who relieved Baltimore starter Robin Roberts with one out in the eighth, hurled scoreless ball the rest of the way for his second victory, both over the Yankees.

The Yankees, who lost Mickey Mantle for at least a month when he suffered a broken bone in his left foot Wednesday night, also suffered another blow Thursday night when starter Jim Bouton was struck on the jaw by Jackie Brandt's line drive in the fourth inning.

Bouton, owner of a 7-1 record, was forced to leave the game and had to have 12 stitches taken.

Win Fourth Straight

In a ball game where there was less conversation, the Washington Senators beat the Boston Red Sox 2-1 for their fourth victory in a row and their longest winning streak of the season.

Larry Osborne's 10th homer with one man aboard off loser Gene Conley in the first inning.

Records In Danger At Compton Relays

COMPTON, Calif. (UPI)—The Compton Invitational Track and Field Meet tonight features a number of superlatives on an entry list which includes six seven-foot high-jumpers, five sub-four-minute milers, and six 16-foot pole-vaulters.

The meet has attracted major attention from track and field fans because of the presence of New Zealand's Peter Snell who may be forced to break his world mark of 3:54.4 if he hopes to win. A fast early pace might leave the door open for an upset victory by one of the following: Jim Beatty, holder of the American record at 3:56.2; Jim Grelle, whose best is 3:56.7; Dyrrol Burleson, 3:57.6; and Carl Weisiger, 3:57.3.

Snell said this week the way to beat him was to run him into the ground with a fast early pace. Several Los Angeles Track Club runners teamed up with this thought in mind at the recent California Relays in Modesto but Snell outlasted them all, winning in 3:54.9. Weisiger was second and Beatty third.

The high-flying pole-vaulters entered here include: Brian Sternberg, Washington, 16 ft. 7 in.; John Rose, Arizona State, 16-0 ¼; C. K. Yang, UCLA, 16-1; John Pennel, Northeastern Louisiana, 16-6 ½; Dave Turk, Fairmont, W. Va., 16-9 ¼; Ron Morris, Southern California Striders, 16-1.
