

THIS VIEW OF FORBIDDEN TIBET was taken from 29,028-foot Mt. Everest, highest point on earth, by Barry C. Bishop, National Geographic Society staff member and a member of the Society's American Mt. Everest expedition. Bishop and his climbing partner, Luther G. Jerstad, of Eugene, reached the summit May 22. Looking northwestward from Everest, the serpentine strip from the middle foreground to right background is the Rongbuk Glacier. (Copyright, National Geographic Society from UPI Telephoto)

THE SECOND NEGRO GIRL to try integrating the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa, Vivian Malone, 20, of Mobile, is shown as she makes preparations for her trip to the campus to enroll next Monday in summer session. (UPI Telephoto)

JOEY RENZI, 11, blind since birth shakes hands with President Kennedy in San Diego as the President looks at letter in Braille he received from Joey. The boy wrote the President on May 23 asking if he could shake his hand when he came to San Diego.

Picture Page

All pictures via UPI Telephoto Service

Sat., June 8, 1963 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

LETITIA BALDRIDGE (left), social secretary to Mrs. John F. Kennedy, has left her White House job, and was replaced by Miss Nancy Tuckerman of New York (right). Miss Tuckerman is a former roommate of the First Lady at Miss Porter's School in Farmington, Conn. Miss Baldrige is taking an executive position at the Merchandise Mart in Chicago, owned by the President's father, Joseph P. Kennedy.

GOV. GEORGE WALLACE grins with approval over the telegrams flooding his office in support of his fight to prevent integration of the University of Alabama. The response followed the segregationist's appearance on a national radio-television news panel show.

AUTHOR BIOLOGIST Rachel Carson is shown as she appeared before a Senate Government Operations sub-committee, studying pesticides. Miss Carson called for strict control of aerial pesticide spraying as a first step toward dealing with "contamination of the environment."

BODY OF POPE JOHN XXIII is carried in state through a crowd of thousands in St. Peter's Square Tuesday. The body was taken in procession from the Vatican to St.

Peter's Square, where it was to lie in state for the public to see.

CADETS TOSS THEIR HATS in the air at the end of commencement exercises of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point. Graduation address was given by Maxwell D.

Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, who warned the cadets that Americans are made uneasy by the responsibilities of military leadership. (UPI Telephoto)