Complete Medical History!

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: A nurse wrote that a married woman visited a doctor at the hospital regularly and she implied that something shady was going on. I am that woman. For three years I've been seeing the doctor about chronic headaches caused by the nervous tension of an unhappy home life. My doctor, being the most patient, understanding man in the world, has helped me to face my problems and adjust to them. Last year I was dumbfounded when my doctor confided to me that his home life was worse than mine. He trusts me and discusses everything with me. His wife recently took an overdose of sleeping pills and he said if he didn't have me to talk to he would have had a nervous breakdown. He helped me when I needed it, and now I can't let him down, no matter what.

tal staff is up in arms about the nurse who wrote the letter reporting the married woman who visits the doctor regularly behind closed doors. We nurses at that hospital think you ought to know that no doctor would even attempt to get away with such carryings-on in his hospital. In the first place, every minute of the doctor's time is scheduled, and even if he wanted to, he wouldn't have the time. The nurse who wrote that letter has been mad about the doctor for years, and he has refused to look at her. "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned."

THE BELLES OF ST MARY'S

DEAR ABBY: I am sure that letter about the married woman visiting the hospital so often to see the doctor was meant for me. I wish you would put this in the paper for that long-nosed nurse to see. Yes, I am seeing a doctor at the hospital frequently, and if you are so curious about whether I am getting a treat instead of a treatment, why don't you ask the doctor? You might be surprised to learn that I am taking a series of shots for a combination of 116 allergies.

DEAR ABBY: About the married woman who made a habit of going to the hospital regularly to see a doctor. I think she is my wife. Her weakness has always been doctors. If there is a good-looking doctor within a hundred miles, she'll find him and keep him busy with one complaint or another. Can you tell me if the letter came from Elmira, New York?

DEAR ABBY: Why can't people mind their own business? I am the woman who goes to the hospital so often. The nurse got it all wrong. I am not seeing a doctor, I'm seeing an engineer. It's not about love, it's about money. We bet the horses together.
