Old-Timers Annual Picnic Takes Place At Glendale

Approximately 100 from all over Oregon and several points in California joined in an old-timers' picnic held at the Glendale City Park on Memorial Day.

Plans for the picnic had developed informally only a short time before the date, and some of those present had been alerted by correspondence or newspaper announcements.

Plans were announced for repeating the event next year at the same time, 1 p.m. Memorial Day, and at the same place, the city park.

A $2.50 prize was presented to Mrs. Myrtle Marshall Wampole of Sweet Home for having been the earliest resident present. Mrs. Wampole came to Glendale in 1889 as a baby.

The oldest former resident present was Mrs. Anna B. Nickson. The Rev. Allen Brown of Modesto, Calif., who acted as unofficial master of ceremonies for the afternoon, came to Glendale in 1896. He is a retired Assembly of God minister, who has spent 40 years in the ministry, serving in

Lovely Wedding Of Interest Here

Of interest to local residents was the recent marriage of Miss Carmen Sandra Hamilton and Roy Dean Worthington, both of Medford.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fish of Dillard.

The event was witnessed by 150 guests at the 8 p.m. rites held at the Medford Friends Church May 25. The Rev. Andrew W. Rahn performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carthal James Hamilton, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Francis Worthington. Both families reside in Medford.

Seve Hudson of Grants Pass was best man. Ushers were Jack D. Downs of Anderson, Calif., a cousin of the bride; and Ivan Higinbotham.

Lighting the candles were Kathy Worthington, cousin of the bridegroom, and Maurie Kinney. Their dresses were of lavender taffeta.

Lynne Kinney, maid of honor, wore a yellow satin street-length gown. Her short veil and her satin slippers were yellow to match her dress.

Miss Glenda Worthington, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Louis Stanton, a cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids, wearing matching gowns of pale orchid with headpieces and slippers to match.

The honor attendant's flowers were yellow and white carnations arranged in a colonial nosegay. The bridesmaids' yellow bouquets were of the same design as Miss Kinney's.

Danny Earl Fish, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer. Flower girl for her cousin was Glynnia Gayle Fish of Roseburg.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of satin brocade fashioned with a bouffant skirt accented by a full train. The long pointed sleeves and the scooped neckline were trimmed with small white pearls which matched those sprinkling the bodice. Her small pearl-covered princess-style crown held in place her veil of silk illusion. Her flowers were white carnations and yellow rosebuds fashioned in a colonial nosegay atop a Bible. The bride's garter had been loaned to her by Mrs. David Holder of Roseburg.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. Serving were Pat Gugin, Mrs. Dwight Worthington and Peg Brownlee. The guest book and gifts were tended by Cheryl Potucek, Mrs. Adrian Stansfield and Mrs. Ray Goodson.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hamilton wore a bone-colored suit with peacock blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore an eggshell-colored suit with pale pink accessories. Both mothers wore pink rosebud corsages. The bride's grandmother wore a royal blue jacket dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The couple is living at 43 Oak St., Central Point, following a wedding trip.

Roseburg guests attending the wedding were the bride's grandparents. Others from out of town were from various points in Oregon and from California.

University Women Hosted At Continental Breakfast

Mrs. Lee O. Hunt, Mrs. Georgene Clark, Mrs. Alfred DeBord, Mrs. Marshall Sherwin and Mrs. Arthur Marsh were hostesses for a delightful 10:30 o'clock continental breakfast for the Roseburg Branch of the American Association of University Women.

The affair was held Saturday morning at the lovely new Lookingglass Grange Hall. Roses and sprays of ivy atop the podium arranged in a graceful semicircle made a beautiful background. The lace-covered serving table was centered with a basket of Cecil Brunner roses.

Mrs. Walter Edmonds, a past president of the Roseburg Branch, conducted an impressive installation service for the incoming officers; Mrs. Lee O. Hunt, president; Mrs. Robert Rhodes, vice president; Miss Esther Dyar, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. James Waterfield, recording secretary. Holdover officer is Mrs. J. W. Freard, treasurer, who was appointed recently to fill the unexpired term of Miss Elinor Nelson who resigned because of ill health.

Mrs. Hunt gave a brief report of the Oregon Division annual conference held recently at Gearhart. Mrs. Edmonds reviewed the structure changes proposed by National which will be considered at the National Convention to be held in Denver June 24-28.

Miss Helen Casey, supported by Mrs. Sydney Domenico and Mrs. Robert Kidder, presented a "psychological" comedy "An Even Exchange."

Attention was called to the State Board meeting which will be held at The Village Green on July 26-27 to which all members are invited.

Members and guests attending the Saturday morning meeting included: Mrs. Henry Talis, Mrs. Hal Schiltz, Miss Virginia Johnson, Mrs. Guy McGee, Mrs. H. S. Bruffy, Mrs. J. E. Slattery, Mrs. Walter Edmonds, Mrs. Sidney Domenico, Mrs. Everett Moody, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. Robert Kidder, Mrs. Max Kimmel, Mrs. B. Childers, Mrs. Robert Rhodes, Mrs. Geneva Hyde, Mrs. Arthur Rich, Mrs. William Richman, Miss Carol Trimble, Mrs. Deming Bronson, Mrs. Charles Woodrich, Mrs. Claude Baker, Mrs. M. Smith, Mrs. Alvin Helgeson, Mrs. Donald Matson, Mrs. John Freard, Mrs. Robert Halloway, Miss Esther Dyar, Mrs. Ben Smith, Mrs. Allen Ingersoll, Mrs. Roy Byrd, Miss Verma Johnson, Mrs. Kathie Jackman, Mrs. James Richardson, Mrs. Verdon Hockett, Mrs. William Meeks, Mrs. W. C. Stonebraker, and the hostesses, Mrs. Lee Hunt, Mrs. Georgene Clark, Mrs. Alfred DeBord, Mrs. Marshall Sherwin and Mrs. Arthur Marsh.

A PRETTY WEDDING of much interest here took place in Medford, when Carmen Sandra Hamilton became the bride of Roy Dean Worthington. The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fish of Dillard and is well-known here. (Picture by Kenn Knackstedt, Medford)

Shower Is Held For Bride-To-Be

Ginger Clifton of Canyonville, whose marriage to Michael Patrick is scheduled for June 16 at the Tri City Presbyterian Church, was the inspiration for a bridal shower given by Sue Hoverson and Andrea Gill at the Oscar Hoverson home recently.

Twenty-two high school classmates of the girls were guests, together with Mrs. Leonard Clifton and Mrs. Reese Patrick.

Centerpiece on the gift table was a pink organza umbrella decorated with butterflies and flowers. Spring bouquets in pink and white complemented the bridal theme. Individual cakes decorated in pink and white were served to the guests by the hostesses.

Pat Patterson and Roxanne Dixon won prizes for the games played.

Reunion Is Held

A delightful reunion was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Curtis. A delicious dinner was served.
