

Minnesota Tops Chicago Sox 8-6

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Remember Eddie Stanky, the modern Muggsy of Brooklyn's "ferocious gentlemen?"

"He can't hit, he can't field and he can't run," they said of Stanky. "But in a tough game he'll find a way to beat you."

Well, they're saying pretty much the same things about another second baseman today—Bernie Allen of the Minnesota Twins. Allen is a skinny guy often overlooked among all those Minnesota muscle men, but he's maintained his regular status despite a .164 batting average.

"Don't let that average fool you," comments manager Sam Mele, "or you'll liable to be sorry."

The 24-year-old native of East Liverpool, Ohio, made his manager's words look good Tuesday night when the Twins beat the Chicago White Sox, 8-6, for their 18th victory in 20 games and moved to within 2½ games of the American League lead.

Bats In Ninth

Allen went to the plate in the ninth inning with one out and Rich Rollins on second base. First base was open but White Sox relief ace Hoyt Wilhelm elected to pitch to the 146-hitter, who had made only seven singles in his previous 68 trips to the plate.

But Allen crossed up the strategy with a double to right center field and then scored the icing run on a pinch single by Jimmy Hall. The win went to relief pitcher Bill Dalley, who gave up one run in 2 1/3 innings and now has allowed only that single tally in his last 19 1/3 frames.

Zorro Versalles contributed four hits and Rollins, Earl Battey, Harmon Killebrew and Lennie Green two each to the Twins' 16-hit attack while Tom McGraw had three hits for the White Sox.

Indiana Beat Orioles

The Cleveland Indians beat the Baltimore Orioles, 9-5, the Boston Red Sox topped the Detroit Tigers, 7-3, in 15 innings and the Kansas City Athletics defeated the Los Angeles Angels, 5-2, in other AL games.

In the National League, the San Francisco Giants beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 3-0, the Houston Astros beat the Chicago Cubs, 6-2, the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-1, the Philadelphia Phillies shaded the Milwaukee Braves, 8-7, and the Cincinnati Reds whipped the New York Mets, 8-3.

Hit Four Homers

Al Luplow, Fred Whitfield, Dick Howser and Willie Kirkland hit homers for the Indians, who scored their eighth victory in nine games. The Orioles protested the game when manager Birdie Tebbets brought in relief pitcher Ted Abernathy before relief pitcher Bob Allen had completed pitching to one batter but the protest is expected to be rejected. Jim Grant went 8 2/3 innings to win his fourth game for Cleveland.

Dick (Smoky the Bear) Radatz struck out 11 and pitched shutout ball for 8 2/3 relief innings to win his fifth game for the Red Sox. The 6-8, 245-pound relief star has now pitched 31 consecutive shutout innings since May 12.

Frank Malzone and Dick Stuart hit back-to-back homers in the 15th when the Red Sox poured over four runs.

Gino Cimoli's double and a two-run single by pinch-hitter George Alusik featured a four-run fourth-inning rally by the Athletics. Diego Segui pitched a seven-hitter and struck out five to score his first victory of the season.

WBA Strips World Title From Ortiz

ENGLEWOOD, N.J. (UPI) — "Titles are won and lost in the ring, not by publicity-seeking lawyers."

That was manager Bill Daly's reaction to an order by the World Boxing Association (WBA) which stripped his fighter, Carlos Ortiz, of the world lightweight championship Tuesday.

Anthony Felice, an attorney for the WBA, announced the action in Spokane, Wash., on behalf of the association president, Dr. Charles D. Larson.

Felice said the WBA had decided to withdraw its recognition of Ortiz as champion because the New Yorker had failed to meet Kenny Lane, the No. 1 challenger from Muskegon, Mich., by June 3.

"I don't think they know what they are doing," said Daly, who revealed that only last week he was told he and Ortiz would be given a hearing at the WBA convention at Miami Beach, Fla., in August.

"Now they turn around and take the title away from Carlos," he added. "We'll fight 'em all the way on this one."

Daly said that Ortiz hasn't agreed to defend against Lane because "they've been offering us peanuts."

A promoter in Muskegon offered us $30,000 for the fight," he said. "That's not even half enough. Carlos got $63,000 for his last title defense (against Doug Vaillant) in San Juan."

Anthony Petronella, former WBA president and currently chairman of the association's ruling committee, also expressed surprise at the WBA action.

"I think they should have given Ortiz a hearing first," he said in Providence, R.I. "He may have some solid arguments why he has not fought Lane."

Petronella revealed he wired Larson as soon as he learned of the title stripping, asking the WBA press to "postpone the Ortiz matter until a hearing is granted all parties concerned."

Ortiz, currently vacationing in San Juan, has defended twice since winning the lightweight crown from Joe Brown on a 15-round decision on April 21, 1962.

He knocked out Japan's Teruo Kosa in the fifth round at Tokyo last Dec. 3 and then scored a 13th round kayo over Vaillant at San Juan on April 17.

Juan Marichal Pitches San Francisco 9 To 3-0 Victory Over Los Angeles Dodgers

By United Press International

The San Francisco Giants' long suit is power but don't try to tell the Los Angeles Dodgers they lack pitching.

Not as long as there's a fellow named Juan Marichal on the Giant roster.

Marichal is known as the Giants' "big pitcher"—the one they like to match against their rival's ace. He throws with a sweeping, high-kicking motion and he beat the Dodgers three times in four tries last season en route to an overall 18-11 record.

The 26-year-old right-hander made it two out of three for this season Tuesday night when he pitched a seven-hit 3-0 victory that knocked the Dodgers out of the National League lead and paved the way for the St. Louis Cardinals to take over the top rung. The win raised Marichal's record to 9-3 and was especially impressive because it came against Don Drysdale, the 25-game winner and Cy Young Award ace of the 1962 Los Angeles staff.

Swings Big Stick

Willie McCovey, the free-swinging San Francisco left fielder, swung the big stick for the Giants—a three-run homer, which he sliced to left field in the sixth inning. It's the kind of thing the Giants have come to expect from McCovey, who tagged Drysdale for 19 hits, including seven homers, four doubles and a triple, in 55 at-bats last season.

Marichal, who struck out four and didn't walk a batter, was in trouble only in the third inning when three Dodger singles filled the bases with two out but he struck out Ron Fairly to end the threat. The loss evened Drysdale's record at 7-7.

Cards Beat Buccs

The Cardinals beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-1, the Houston Colts defeated the Chicago Cubs, 6-2, in 10 innings, the Philadelphia Phillies edged the Milwaukee Braves, 8-7, in 10 innings and the Cincinnati Reds whipped the New York Mets, 8-3, in other NL action.

In the American League, the Minnesota Twins beat the Chicago White Sox, 8-6, the Boston Red Sox scored a 7-3 15-inning victory over the Detroit Tigers, the Cleveland Indians outslugged the Baltimore Orioles, 9-5, and the Kansas City Athletics beat the Los Angeles Angels, 5-2.

Bob Gibson pitched a six-hitter and struck out eight for the Cardinals, who moved into first place, one game ahead of the Dodgers and Giants. The big fireballer also hit a run-scoring single to help earn his fifth win and lead Don Schwall his fourth loss.

Bill White had a homer and a single and Dick Groat two singles for the Cardinals.

Hits Grand Slam

Bob Aspromonte's grand slam 10th-inning homer gave Houston relief star Hal Woodeshick his sixth win. Woodeshick led off the winning rally with a single and the bases were filled on an error by losing pitcher Lindy McDaniel and a deliberate walk. Ernie Banks had three hits for the Cubs.

Jack Baldschun earned his fourth win for the Phillies when Cal Darymple singled with the bases filled in the 10th inning. The Braves had taken a 7-6 lead in the top of the inning with the help of Mack Jones' fourth steal of the game — one short of the modern record — and Roy McMillan's third run-producing single. Bob Shaw was the loser for the Braves.

Jim Maloney pitched a four-hitter and struck out 12 batters in eight innings to win his ninth game for the Reds, whose 12-hit attack was paced by homers by Vada Pinson and Tommy Harper. Al Jackson tagged for four runs and six hits in two innings, suffered his sixth loss for the Mets.

He said Spokane's 160 per cent rise in attendance was the league's best and also cited rises in Hawaii, Seattle, San Diego and Tacoma. Portland and Salt Lake, hard hit by bad weather all year, have suffered minor decreases.

The loss dropped San Diego into third, a percentage point back of Oklahoma City. But the Pads have to play Dallas-Ft. Worth six more games in the current series.

Sammy Snead Qualifies For U.S. Open Tournament

By JOE SARGIS
UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI) — This could be the last time around for old "Sammy" Snead in the U.S. Open golf championship.

Sam has had his Open hopes buried more times than one of those movie cadavers and, at 51, he admits it's getting tougher all the time. But here he is back once again for a shot at the one golfing title that continually has eluded him.

Snead, deadly serious and equally as accurate, carded a 69-71-140 at the Old Oaks and Century golf courses in Purchase, N.Y., Tuesday to qualify for the "big one" at Brookline, Mass., June 20-22.

"God knows how bad I've wanted to win this tourney in all those other years," Sam said in that homey West Virginia drawl of his. "It sure would be nice if I could make it this time, but I know it'll be a grind with all those good young players around."

Only 11 players among the 129 who won Open berths through a second qualifying round at 13 sites on Monday and Tuesday shot better golf than Snead. They were topped by a sparkling 69-64-133 by Dow Finsterwald at the Cloverbrook Country Club in Cincinnati. The veteran Fred Wampler of St. Louis had a 69-66-135 at the Indian Hills Country Club in Kansas City and Gardiner Dickinson, another tourney pro, had a 68-67-135 at the Detroit Golf Club.

Those were the top scores but most were turned in against mediocre qualifying fields, while Snead was shooting with some of the best pros on the tour at suburban Westchester, where golf elite are gathered for the start of the $100,000 Thunderbird classic Thursday.

As it was, unheralded Bob Schoener of Bethlehem, Pa., was tops in the New York field, where 45 players qualified, with a 69-70-139.
