

A PICNIC AT BROWN'S PARK was held by the Mather Goose Nursery at the close of school with 37 attending. Adults assisting Mary Eastman were Doris Merry, Hedy Wilson, Alberta Preston and Barbara Willis. Those graduating from nursery school were on TV, had a treat down town then went to the Bible Book store for a gift of a New Testament. Their diplomas show they are ready for the first grade. The group sang three songs and demonstrated their academic work. With Mrs. Eastman, above, are Steven Cotnam, Patty Ulam, Tressa Leonard, Jeanie Britton, Bobby Walker and Danny Justen. Second row: Tracy Christensen, Mark Walpole, Dena Bunnell, Ricky Whelchel, Babsie Smith, Randy Taylor and Bobby Rowland. Below are members of the nursery school. Interesting Meeting Held By Winston-Dillard Group

"Blue Prints" was the theme chosen for the Winston - Dillard Toastmistress Club meeting on Wednesday evening, which was held at the Douglas High School in Winston.

Edith Roberts was a guest present representing the Myrtle Creek club. She gave a report on the activities of her club in that city.

The invocation and pledge were led by Mary Tomlinson. A welcome was extended by the president, Vi Hanson.

"Unusual Situations" as revealed by the members comprised the topics, conducted by Edna Ebner. Vivian Laurance, acting as toastmistress, rendered the introductions using the theme, "Blue Prints."

Speakers included Iva Schweppe, who chose "Memory Course" as her subject; "Schools of the Future" was presented by Carol Talbert.

Timekeeper was Loreta Campbell. Velma Albertus served as general evaluator for the program and the closing thought was presented by Betty Kleiner.

The social portion of the evening meeting was in honor of Carol Talbert, who will soon be leaving Winston to make her home in Bend. A beautifully decorated pink and white cake had been made and was served by Ethel Sirrine. Betty Kleiner served the punch.

The next meeting will include the election of officers June 12 at 7:30 p.m. at the Douglas High School. Installation of officers will be conducted June 26 at the last meeting for the summer months.

The nominating committee, consisting of Edna Ebner, Marge Brady and Vivian Laurance, gave a report which will be acted upon at the next meeting.

Mrs. Erlebach President Of County Teacher Group

The nominating committee of the Douglas County Retired Teachers Association presented the following slate of officers for the ensuing year at its meeting held recently at the Garden Valley clubhouse:

Mrs. Anton Erlebach, president; Mrs. Alvia Wertheil, vice president; Mrs. Margaret Kimmel, secretary; and Mrs. Irma Blumer, treasurer.

They will be installed at the June meeting.

At the meeting which followed a potluck dinner, the group voted to give $50 toward the proposed Women's Christian Temperance Union boys' home to be erected on property near Myrtle Creek. The property was recently presented to the WCTU by the Wixson family of Myrtle Creek.

Mrs. Margaret Adair gave a report of her recent tour of Mexico. Her description of the country was illustrated by numerous slides of points of scenic and historic interest as well as those showing the life and culture of the people in various city and rural areas. A display of Mexican and Indian handicraft was also shown.

Guests of the club were Mrs. William B. McKinney of Portland, Mrs. Lela Cullison of Lakeview and Mrs. Edyth Gilmour of Roseburg.

TO BE BRIDE — Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Knowles of The Dalles announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Marjilla Mary Humphrey, to Victor H. Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Cook, also of The Dalles. A summer wedding is planned. Mrs. Knowles is the former Edna May Henry of Roseburg. The family lived here until 1957, when they moved to the coast and later to The Dalles.

Ruth Circle Entertained At Home Of Mrs. Harrison

Mrs. Hugh Harrison was a charming hostess Thursday for the Ruth Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church at her lovely home in West Roseburg. She was assisted in serving the delicious dessert luncheon by Mrs. George Felt and Mrs. Ned Dixon.

Roll call was responded to by the members quoting a helpful Biblical passage and a favorite poem. Mrs. Arthur Marsh presented a brief report of the Society study book, "The Dimensions of Prayer."

Announcement was made that no circle meeting would be held in June and that all groups would join in a garden meeting at the home of Mrs. J. M. Boyles July 18. Mrs. Frank Hart and Mrs. Floyd

Powell will serve as program co-chairmen for the coming year.

Present were Mrs. Roberta Davies, Mrs. Jack Dent, Mrs. Ned Dixon, Mrs. Lawrence Burbach, Mrs. George Felt, Mrs. Frank Hart, Miss Jennie Jorey, Mrs. Walter Kurtz, Mrs. Roscoe Marsters, Mrs. Arthur Marsh, Mrs. Floyd Powell, Mrs. Bruce Mellis, Mrs. Hazel Pollard and the hostess, Mrs. Harrison.

Fifth Birthday Is Celebrated

Mrs. Herbert Young of Tenmile entertained Monday at a party for her son, Paul on his fifth birthday. Paul received many nice gifts.

Each child attending had favors. A lovely birthday cake was served with the refreshments.

Present to enjoy the party were Paul's grandmother Mrs. A. F. Young; Kim, Libbie and Brenda Miller; Mrs. P. A. Wafer, Frederick, Susan, Diana and Colleen; Ricky and Bobby Young; Paul's brothers, Michal and Scot, and the hostess.
