

Southern Democrats Join Kennedy's GOP Foes To Hand Out Biggest Legislative Defeat Of Year

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy today described as "tragic" the House defeat of his bill to expand federal aid to communities suffering chronic unemployment. He said he will resubmit the measure to Congress next year. Some viewed the outcome as part of the price he must pay for his tough new civil rights stand. Kennedy issued a special statement in which he said defeat of the proposal "could not have come at a worse time." The unexpected upset of the measure's Republican opponents in the House was a blow to the administration voted instead with the measure's Republican foes. But a tight party-line stand by the Republicans against the bill also contributed to its defeat. In his statement, Kennedy said: "The tragic defeat... could not have come at a worse time. Unemployment persists, our distressed areas need help and scores of hard-hit communities in Pennsylvania, Michigan, West Virginia, eastern Kentucky, upstate New York, upstate Minnesota and southern Illinois were counting on an expansion of this program."
