Maggie J. Davis Now Mrs. Taggart

TO MARRY — Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Borg of Roseburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie Ann, to Albert O. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Johnson of Maddock, N.D. The bride-elect was graduated from Roseburg High School and Oregon State University and is girls counselor at North Dakota State Industrial School. Mr. Johnson was graduated from Maddock schools and is employed at the US Weather Bureau as an electrical technician in Fargo, N.D. The wedding will take place in late summer in Mandan, N.D.

The double ring ceremony was used Tuesday, May 11, for the wedding of Maggie Jean Davis of Sutherlin and Ralph James Taggart of Glide. The nuptials took place at 8 p.m. at the Church of the Nazarene in Roseburg, the Rev. Robert D. Hempel officiating. More than 200 guests were present. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Allen Davis of Sutherlin. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ralph Taggart of Glide.

White and blue stock were used in the church decorations. Mrs. Kenneth Ewens was organist and accompanied Mrs. Robert Hempel, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because". The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was charming in her gown of all-white taffeta and chiffon, styled with full skirt, fitted lace bodice and long sleeves. The dress had detailing of white satin. The bride carried a white Bible topped with two white cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Kenneth Spicer of Sweet Home was matron of honor. Marjorie Taggart, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Both wore light blue taffeta sheaths with matching blue overskirts. Their bouquets were of blue carnations. Curtis Charon was best man. Ushers were Arthur Taggart, the bridegroom's brother; Bruce Steiner, his uncle; and Delbert Nash. Laura Lee Oert was flower girl, and Ray Allen Davis, brother of the bride, was ring bearer. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Davis wore a brown wool suit with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a bone-colored knit suit with white accessories. A reception was held in the fellowship hall following the ceremony. Mrs. Fred Meisner served the wedding cake. Mrs. Edward Charon and Mrs. Bruce Steiner poured punch and coffee. Miss Jenny Carson of Sweet Home presented the gifts, and the gifts were cared for by Jewel Morgan and Kathi Williams. Others assisting were Mrs. Carl Morgan and Mrs. Richard Abercrombie. The couple honeymooned at the Oregon Caves and Trees of Mystery. For traveling, the bride wore a white polished cotton dress. The young people are now at home in Glide. The bride attended Sutherlin High School and Northwest Nazarene College. The bridegroom was graduated from Glide High School and attended Oregon Technical Institute. He is currently employed by Eugene Veneer. Coming from out of town to attend the wedding were Mrs. Alice Taggart of Caldwell, Idaho; and Shelby Walker, Jenny Carson, Mrs. Archie Mays, Mr. and Mrs. David Cammon and Michael, and the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Spicer and children, all of Sweet Home.

MR. AND MRS. RALPH TAGGART, above, were married at the Church of the Nazarene in Roseburg with the Rev. Robert D. Hempel officiating. The bride, Maggie Jean Davis, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Allen Davis of Sutherlin, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ralph Taggart of Glide. Gladys Strong Presents Piano Students Monday

On Monday evening a piano recital was given by students of Miss Gladys Strong. The pupils were largely Junior and Senior High students. The program was very interesting as the literature chosen was fine and the students played well showing both developing musicianship and poise in performance. The recital was the third in a series being given in May and June. It was given at Miss Strong's residence studio on Southeast Main Street. A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the recital by the students and their guests. The following played: Camille Follett, Janet Moore, LuAnn Powell, Laurel Inman, Ann Verberkmoes, Nancy Halferty, James Thorn, Judith Krohn, Elissa Eckman, Eileen Hanlin, Barbara Saar, Charlotte Tyson, Barbara Kerr, Joanne Manning, Glenda McLain and Tony Follett.
