Uncle Sam Will Pay A Part Of Higher Oregon Tax Bill

United Press International

SALEM (UPI)—The $48 million state income tax increase adopted by the 1963 legislature ups the state tax 28 per cent.

The federal deduction has been eliminated, but you can deduct the full amount of your higher state tax from your federal income tax return. This means a slightly lower federal tax, hence in effect Uncle Sam will be paying part of your higher state tax bill.

Wage earners who have their state income tax withheld from their pay checks won't notice the difference until their first paycheck in October. That's when the new rates are expected to go into effect.

The new state income tax measure will become law Sept. 2—unless it is referred by the voters.

If it is referred, the legislature has set aside $300,000 and a date in October for a special election.

Under the new tax measure, the familiar $600 exemption is gone. It has been replaced with a $22 credit for each dependent.

The bill provides a minimum tax of $5, or 1 per cent of adjusted gross income, whichever is greater.

Fractional Rates

The bill also includes "fractional rates" ranging from 2 to 7½ per cent, and designed to put taxpayers in the next highest bracket after each moderate increase in income.

The rates start at 2 per cent, then increase in quarters of percentage points to 7½ per cent. Most steps are graduated up for each $500 increase in taxable income.

The new bill gives unlimited medical deduction in excess of 5 per cent of income, adds a student exemption, and allows heads of households to file joint returns. The measure also allows a 5 per cent standard deduction.

The capital gains tax is liberalized, and corporate excise taxes were increased.

If the tax bill doesn't raise enough money, a one-shot speedup of withholding taxes can be used to bring in about $14 million at the end of the biennium.

If the bill raises too much money, provision has been made for all surplus in excess of $10 million to be applied as an offset against property taxes.

The original title of the tax measure, "relating to personal income and corporation excise taxes," was changed by the conference committee to include "and local property tax relief."

Dixonville Residents Attend College Rites In Corvallis

By MRS. ALBERT RADCLIFFE

Mrs. C. L. Branton of Dixonville accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Helen Anderson, to Corvallis recently to attend the graduation exercises of Mrs. Branton's granddaughter, Mrs. Rose Ann Goodwin, who was graduated from Oregon State University with high honors.

Residents On Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Brien and three small children, accompanied by Darlene Schmidt, have left for a 10-day vacation. They planned to go directly to Denver, Colo., where they will visit relatives and will return through Arizona, touring the Grand Canyon, and into California to do some sightseeing en route home.

Jerry Rust Jr. has arrived home from the University of Oregon where he finished his sophomore year. Accompanying him home as overnight guests were Nick Oatway of San Rafael, Calif.; Bob De Graff of San Moreno, Calif.; and John Martinez of Long Beach, Calif. The boys are fraternity brothers. Jerry was selected as a delegate to the National Student Association in Bloomfield, Ind., at the University of Indiana. He will leave early in August for the two-week session where the boys meet to exchange ideas with other collegians.

Dixonville youth who have accepted summer employment at the Douglas County Fairgrounds are Jeanne Hatfield, Mike Radcliffe, Jerry and Jack Rust.

Oscar Weber of Hebo spent the past weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Banning.

Mrs. Rose Ann Goodwin and two children, now of Palmer, Alaska, spent a few days with her grandmother, Mrs. C. L. Branton, last week.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Counts and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Counts and family last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Dick May and family of Portland.

Lloyd McCraw and Alda Lee Brumbach, students at the University of Oregon have arrived home for the summer vacation.

The Dixonville Home Extension Unit held a picnic at the O. C. Brown Memorial Park on Buckhorn Road recently. A large group was in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Radcliffe and son, Mike, drove to Toketee Falls Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Leland Toole and daughters, Donna and Kathy. The group drove to Diamond Lake and then to Lemolo where they picnicked and the young people went boat riding on the lake. They also stopped off to see the Clear Water Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Haas and daughter, Sharon, spent the weekend at Diamond Lake.

Sherry James and Becky Boyer left with the 4-H Horse Club members Wednesday morning for a two-day camping trip up the North Umpqua.

APPROVE INSURANCE BILL

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Finance Committee Wednesday approved a bill to give World War II and Korean War veterans an opportunity to renew G.I. life insurance they have allowed to lapse.

Although the Senate has passed the measure at least five times previously, it always has died in the House.

Veterans Administraton officials have said the plan would not cost the government any money because veterans would pay all the costs.

Glendale Matrons Re-Furnish Temple

By MRS. GERALD B. FOX

A committee from the Past Matrons Club of the Glendale Chapter of the Eastern Star redecorated the lobby at the Masonic Temple recently, using furniture purchased with stamp books and donations by members of the group. They added three table lamps, a floor lamp, end tables, an additional chair, ash trays, and a large glass basket of artificial flowers.

Committee co-chairmen for the project were Mrs. Mary Harris and Mrs. Ed Harris.

Fifteen members of the Glendale Rebekah Lodge attended the recent Rebekah Assembly meeting in The Dalles. Fourteen of the group comprised a drill team which participated in the ceremonial, seating the officers on the opening evening. The team, wearing new gowns chosen for the occasion, carried stalks of wheat as the flower chosen by the retiring president, Mrs. Thelma Watkins of Wasco.

Mrs. James Mize, a member of the degree staff, took motion pictures of the group at the Assembly.

Members of the Glendale group included Mrs. Steve Sutch Sr., Mrs. Robert Young, Mrs. Floyd Berry, Mrs. Walt McAllister, Mrs. Fred Kafer, Mrs. Don Thomas, Mrs. Frank Daniels, Mrs. Curtice Daniels, Mrs. Fred Wright, Mrs. Henry Creek, Mrs. Perle Winkleman, Mr. Al Mohr, Mrs. Willis Mosley, Mrs. James Mize and Mrs. Ben Whaley.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Van Duine of Windy Creek Road, near Glendale, have sold their ranch, including one dwelling, to Louis Hartsfield and Mr. and Mrs. James Hartsfield of Merlin, recently of Lemore, Calif. They are retaining the house they have been living in, however, and about three acres for their home. Louis Hartsfield is moving onto the property immediately, but the younger couple is remaining in Merlin for the present.

How To Play Winning Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY
(Written For NEA)

One of the best ways to win at bridge is to get a silly contract and then make it, as this hand from the Southeastern championships in Miami, Fla., shows.

With 20 high card points, South decided to jump to two spades after North responded with one heart to the opening diamond bid.

From then on North turned him every way but loose and there was South at a nice slam contract that had only one defect. There were two natural trump losers.

South gazed at dummy somewhat mournfully, but not mournfully enough to tell East and West that his cause was hopeless.

Dummy's ace of clubs held the first trick and South played the ten of spades. East had a problem. He did not know that South was looking only at ace-nine-seven-three of spades and East decided that it behooved him to play his queen. South put on the ace and when the jack dropped from the West hand South was able to ruff out his last low club, pick up the rest of the trump suit with the loss of only one trick and chalk up the impossible slam.

East had been faced with a tough play, but he could have afforded a low card on that first spade lead just in case West did hold that singleton jack.
