

Duke Snider Belts 400th Four Bagger In Majors Career

By United Press International
The doors of baseball's exclusive 400-homer club opened today to admit the old Duke of the Giants.

He's long past his peak and playing out the string with the New York Mets but Duke Snider can still swing that home run bat with the best of 'em. And today the ex-Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodger has officially joined the greatest homer-batters in major league history.

Duke became the ninth player in history to reach the 400-mark Friday night when he connected for a two-run homer in the first inning of the Mets' 10-3 triumph over the Cincinnati Reds. It was his 11th homer of the season and placed him in a class with Babe Ruth, Jimmy Foxx, Ted Williams, Mel Ott, Lou Gehrig, Stan Musial, Mickey Mantle and Ed Matthews.

Connects Against Purkey
Snider connected off Bob Purkey following the first of four hits by Ron Hunt to spark the Mets to their first victory they have achieved in Cincinnati since they entered the league in 1962.

Carlton Willey went seven innings to gain his fifth victory of the year while Bob Purkey suffered his fourth defeat.

The San Francisco Giants beat the Houston Colts 2-1, the Chicago Cubs defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-1, the St. Louis Cardinals downed the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-2, and the Milwaukee Braves topped the Philadelphia

Phillies 3-0 in other National League games.

In the American League, the New York Yankees downed the Detroit Tigers 4-2, the Minnesota Twins edged the Los Angeles Angels 3-2, the Boston Red Sox topped the Baltimore Orioles 5-1, the Chicago White Sox shaded the Kansas City Athletics 3-2, and the Cleveland Indians beat the Washington Senators 3-2, after a 5-2 defeat.

Sanford Wins Eighth
Jack Sanford went 8 1-3 innings to win his eighth game for the Giants with the help of Tom Haller's homer and a brilliant catch by leftfielder Harvey Kuenn.

Ernie Banks drove in two runs with a double and his 14th homer of the season as the Cubs knocked the Dodgers out of first place. Glenn Hobbie went the route for his second win.

Warren Spahn pitched a three-hitter to win his ninth game of the season and the 336th of his career for the Braves, whose attack was led by Tommy Aaron with a sacrifice fly and a two-run double. Ray Culp suffered his fourth loss against eight wins.

Tri-City Pulls Into 2nd In Northwest League Race

By United Press International
Tri-City leap-frogged over a couple of rivals in the Northwest League baseball race Friday with a 5-3 victory over Eugene. The win enabled the Braves to take over second place behind Lewiston which downed Yakima 8-6 in 10 innings.

Wenatchee downed Salem 3-1 in the other game.

Tri-City settled things with Eugene on the basis of a four-run second inning. Les Kuhn accounted for two of them with a homer. Dick Kenworthy of the losers hit a two-run homer in the third.

Spencer Davis was the whole show for Wenatchee, driving in all three runs. His double in the seventh chased in two of the markers and he drove in the other in the fifth.

Lewiston came up with four runs in the tenth to take Yakima. Frank Cipriani tripled in one, Luis Rodriguez singled in another and a double by Ted Kubiak accounted for the other two.

All-Star Game Tonight
EUGENE (UPI)—The Metropolitan and State all-star baseball teams open their annual three-game series with a nine-inning game at Bethel Park here tonight.

The teams meet in two seven-inning contests Sunday afternoon.

Arizona, Trojans Set For College Showdown
OMAHA, Neb. (UPI)—Arizona and stubborn Southern California have battled to the end of the plank. The survivor of tonight's showdown is the national collegiate baseball champion.

It could have been all over Friday night. But Southern Cal's Trojans would have none of that.

The Trojans carried one defeat with them when they met Arizona Friday night in the first half of the championship finals of the NCAA's double-elimination tournament. They capitalized on a first-inning lapse for five runs and went on to a 4-1 victory which set up tonight's decisive game.

It was the first loss for the Wildcats in the tourney.
