

Irons-Haslam Wedding June 1

A lovely wedding to Saturday, June 1, was that of Barbara Jo Haslam and Donald Wayne Irons, both of Sutherlin. The 8 p.m. double ring ceremony took place at the Neighborhood Church of Christ in Sutherlin, the Rev. Charles L. Crane officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Haslam; the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Irons. Both families reside in Sutherlin.

Baskets of pink carnations and stock were used in the church decorations. The pews were marked with white satin bows. Cynthia McGill was organist, accompanying Mrs. Shirley Brown, who sang "Whither Thou Goest," "Because" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was wearing a white floor-length dress of white silk net with a lace band over net ruffles. The lace formed a shallow neckline extending to the sleeves. The lace-edged veil fell from a tiny crown of twisted braid. Her mits, matching her gown, were edged with the same lace. The bride carried a white orchid in a cluster of pink carnations and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Ronald Johnson of Riddle, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Eldon Spurlin of Roseburg and Miss Grace Irons, both sisters of the bridegroom. Mrs. Johnson wore a lavender flowered chiffon frock, styled with a full skirt and cummerbund of lavender satin. The bridesmaids' dresses were satin lavender sheaths with pale orchid cummerbunds. Their veil hats matched their frocks. All carried

Carstens Piano Recital Presented Wednesday Night

A capacity audience of nearly 200 attended the piano recital given Wednesday evening by the pupils of Mrs. Clyde W. Carstens at the Roseburg Woman's clubhouse. Mrs. Carstens, an accredited teacher of beginners through elementary and intermediate pianists, had as her guest artist, Barbara Martin, vocalist, accompanied by her sister, Sally.

Students played two numbers each during the first part of the program. Ensemble and class work made up the last part of the program with every student participating in the demonstration.

During the early summer Mrs. Carstens will continue her teaching. Summer registrations were taken during the last week.

A social hour followed the recital program. The tea table was covered by a beautiful silver cloth with apricot net and touches of turquoise to compliment the new club house decorations. Mrs. Charles Hiney, Mrs. Howard Chaney, Carolyn Roe and Jackie McFarland served the coffee and punch. The beautifully decorated shadow boxes were arranged by members of the woman's Club.

Melrose Grange Has Card Party

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Edwards were host and hostess at the most recent Melrose Grange card party. Prize winners included Emma Abeel, door prize; Ethel Welker high score; Gary Dixon, high for men; Mabel Hansen, low score, and Ora Welker, low for men. Proceeds from the party are to help the Grange present two 4-H scholarships. Next public party will be June 23 with Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Stinner as hosts.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Busenbark, Alice Goff, Jackie Mask, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Trozelle, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Grow, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams, Mr. and Mrs. M. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moon, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Mishler, Mrs. Berth Lett, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bayless, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Aydelott, Mary Trump, Joseph Sedar, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Abeel, Mr. and Mrs. Tence Busenbark and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Edwards.

Warren Cloakes To Celebrate

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Warren T. Cloake will be celebrated at a reception Sunday, June 23. The affair will take place from 2:30 to 5 p.m. in the First Conservative Church, 1138 NE Lincoln St.

All relatives and friends of the couple are invited. The Cloakes have requested that there be no gifts.

Club Entertained By Mrs. Cheek

Mrs. Roland Cheek was a recent hostess to members of the Melrose Friendly Hour Club.

At noon a tasting party was enjoyed. Each member brought a favorite dish for the occasion. The door prize was won by Mrs. Claude Yarbrough. The afternoon was spent working on various projects.

Those present were the Mesdames J. C. Conn, Amy Seeley, Grace Fenn, C. A. Coffell, M. L. Kimmitt, G. G. Graves, Claude Yarbrough and son; Fred Miller, Minnie Jacobson, Eugene; Ray Reilly, Olympia, Wash., and the hostess, Mrs. Cheek and children.

Home Of Bride's Parents Scene Of June 8 Wedding

Miss Joyce Terry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Terry of Oakland, and Richard Joe Hollamon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hollamon of Yoncalla, were united in marriage Saturday, June 8, at 11 a.m. at the home of the bride's parents.

The Rev. D. L. Nultemeier of the Assembly of God Church of Sutherlin officiated.

The rooms were decorated with baskets of white peonies and red and white roses, arranged by Jesse Lee.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor-length dress of white tulle, with a lace banded skirt over net ruffles. Lace formed a shallow V neck which extended to the sleeves. Her lace-edged veil was held by a crown of twisted braid. Her mits matched the lace on her gown. Her bouquet was of white carnations with streamers.

Linda Koch was maid of honor, and Melvin Terry, brother of the bride, was best man. Following the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's parents in their home. The wedding cake was flanked by candles. Mrs. John Creach cut the cake, and Joyce Cook served punch, assisted by Mrs. Ernest Cantwell.

Pink, Blue Shower Given

A delightful pink and blue shower to honor Mrs. Nancy Martin was given recently by Mrs. Betty Hickok and Mrs. Alice Harrison. Mrs. Harrison had made a beautifully decorated cake for the occasion. The honoree received many lovely gifts, and after they were opened, refreshments were served. A game period was also enjoyed.

Those present were Shirley Struck, Ethel Wright, Norma Martin, Mable Burr, Sharon Martin, Nadine Bicknell, Sherry Bucknell, JoAnn Roberson, the hostesses and the guest of honor.

Sending gifts were Mr. and Mrs. B. Steves.

Nancy Henry Is Installed Queen Of Riddle Bethel 39

Miss Nancy Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Henry of Riddle, was installed as honored queen of Job's Daughters, Riddle Bethel No. 39, Wednesday in the hall of the Masonic Temple, Canyonville.

The theme chosen by Queen Nancy was "We Walk by Faith." A mural on the west wall depicted a girl walking along the beach at sunset. Driftwood floral arrangements were displayed around the room. Six white candles lighted the altar and 14 alternating yellow and lavender candles were in the East.

Installing officers for the evening were: Sara Preston, guide; Florette McGee Lewis, marshal; Bonnie Wright, chaplain; Nina Henry, recorder and narrator; Shelby Brown, senior custodian; Mary Perry, junior custodian; Alice Walker, musician; Carmen Wadell, flag bearer; and Deedee and Suzie Foster, Myrtle Creek twins, candlelighters.

Officers installed for the following six months were: Nancy Henry, honored queen; Lynn Coleman, senior princess; Debby Roberts, junior princess; Kathy Stuart, guide; Ellen Parks, marshal; Phyllis McCleny, chaplain; Susan Nichols, musician; Glenna Zarnackee, librarian; Leslie Strohbridge, recorder; Kathy Olsen, treasurer; Rita Deal, junior custodian; Susan O'Donnell, senior custodian; messengers, Rosy Clark, Linda Dort, April Eckenbeck, Peggy Crievel, and Peggy Faver; Winnifred Colter, inner guard; Beatrice Colter, outer guard.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Richard Rohrbaugh, pastor of the Tri-City Presbyterian Church, who later sang the "Lord's Prayer" as an altar solo during the crowning of the queen. Installing honoree queen was Miss Dea Dee Foster. The Roseburg chapter, Order of De Molay, assisted with the crowning ceremony.

Members of Honor escorted were Mr. and Mrs. Guy McGee of Days Creek and Mrs. Cora Young of Roseburg, who is a Past Grand Guardian of Oregon.

A reception followed the installation ceremony.

Mrs. Jenkins Is Honored By Electa Circle Women

The May meeting of Electa Circle, Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Roseburg First Methodist Church, was held in the lovely home of Mrs. Joseph Logan on Indianola Ave.

Mrs. Al Ritzow, chairman, conducted the session. The Rev. H. James Jenkins presented the conclusion of a series of lessons from the Book of Acts.

Mrs. H. James Jenkins received farewell gifts from the group. A delicious luncheon in her honor was served by co-hostesses, Mrs. Logan and Mrs. Ritzow. Out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Dixon of Camas Valley, parents of Mrs. Jenkins.
