

TO MARRY — Mr. and Mrs. Carol Jean J. Brent, Canyonville, announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Carolyn Mae, to Marvin Jones of Salido, Calif. Miss Brent was graduated from Canyonville Bible Academy, attended Central Bible Institute in Springfield, Mo., and this spring finished two years in Bethany Bible College, Santa Cruz, Calif., as a Christian Education major. She is employed as counselor in the Juvenile Hall, Santa Cruz. Mr. Jones was graduated from high school in Modesto, Calif., and has completed his junior year at Bethany Bible College. He will be graduated next spring with a BA degree in pastoral theology. He was president of his class this year and has been elected vice president of the student body for next year. He plans to enter full time gospel ministry following his studies. The wedding will be Aug. 2 in Modesto.

SHARON OLSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Olson of Canyonville, is the new worthy advisor of the South Douglas Assembly, Rainbow for Girls. She was installed at ceremonies at the Canyonville Masonic Temple.

Roseburg 39-ers Enjoy Luncheon

The 39-ers (Gerontology group of the Roseburg Woman's Club) met at the clubhouse for a potluck luncheon at noon Monday. Mrs. E. E. Mauer and Mrs. Ora Hillard acted as hostesses.

Twenty-five members and two guests were present.

New officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Golda Nickell; vice president, Mrs. John Bunsback; secretary, Mrs. Anna Knudsen; and treasurer, Mrs. W. D. Shugart.

Mrs. Laura Haughn from the Red Cross office discussed the work and needs of the local chapter and the group voted to make this its project for the year.

The next meeting of the club will be a potluck at Umpqua Park at 12:30 p.m. June 24.

Azalea Girl Is Married In Single Ring Ceremony

Sally Jean Buchanan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Buchanan of Azalea, and Jack Wesley Wilson, stepson of Ed Berline of Glendale, were married in a single ring ceremony which took place before members of the family and a few friends at the Azalea Community Church Saturday afternoon, June 8. The Rev. Arnold Dalke, pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride wore a white sheath dress with a quilted flower design in the material. The bodice was trimmed with pink piping around the short sleeves and sweetheart neck line. She wore a pink rosebud corsage and white accessories.

Mrs. Ray Buchanan, mother of the bride, wore a blue printed sheer dress with none-colored accessories and a pink orchid corsage.

Mrs. Ed Berline, stepmother of the bridegroom, wore a beige tailored dress with a three-quarter length jacket. With it she wore a bronze-colored orchid corsage.

The church was beautifully decorated with large vases of rhododendrons and snowballs placed on either side of the altar.

A reception was held later at the Ed Berline home in Glendale where the couple cut a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with pink rosebuds and white leaves. The cake was topped with appropriate bride and bridegroom figurines.

The bride has been a student at the Glendale High School. The bridegroom was graduated from the Glendale High School in 1962. The newlyweds are making their home in the Weatherall Addition in Glendale. He was recently employed by the U.S. Forest Service at Sweet Home.

Robinson Home Reunion Scene

Maude Robinson of Portland spent the weekend visiting in Drain with her mother, Mrs. J. C. Yager. Sunday, Mrs. Robinson's family had a reunion at the home of Mrs. Robinson's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Lewis.

Guests besides Mrs. Yager, Mrs. Robinson and the Lewis family were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hood, Linda, Pamela and Scott; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carson, Steve and Nancy; Mrs. Carole Sundholm, Rodney, Ronald and Sharol; and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Reed and Jackie, all of Portland.

Skating Party Given Saturday

A skating party at Cottage Grove was given Saturday by Mrs. James Carlile of Drain in observance of her son, Jimmy's, birthday.

After skating, the group returned to the Carlile ranch where they were served refreshments and enjoyed a game of baseball.

Guests were Myrtle Carlile, Norman Alsop, Tony Roy, David Long, Reese and Dale Palmer, Richard Trickey, Ronald Bickford and Ryan Hickman.

Interesting Meeting Held By Woman's Club Members

At the Tuesday meeting of the Roseburg Woman's Club, special music was presented by Nancy Niblett, who sang "Perfect Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Carstens at the piano.

William Evans, guest speaker and world traveler, told of the recent visit he and Mrs. Evans had taken to Japan, China and India. Evans gave his observations of the political and economic conditions of some of the countries visited, drawing many questions from his interested audience.

The Evanses have gathered treasures from the far places they have visited, and the exhibit which the speaker displayed included brass temple pieces, camel quirts, a priest's horn, centuries-old carved pieces, inlaid plates and wood carvings.

Guests at the meeting included Mrs. Henry Alexander, a new member; and Mrs. George Grubb, Mrs. Stephen Oakley, Mrs. Glen Baughman, Mrs. Frank Benson and Mrs. Chris Radford, all members of the Roseburg Junior Woman's Club. Mrs. T. L. Goodwin, Woman's Club president, announced the following chairmen for the coming year:

W. Eggleston; auditing, Mrs. Kenneth Kirk; budget finance, Mrs. George West.

Corsages, Mrs. P. E. Beaver; fellowship, Mrs. Kenneth Ford; fine arts, Mrs. James E. Campbell; gerontology, Mrs. Golda Nickell; home life, Mrs. William Kisinger; hospitality, Mrs. John Bunsback; international affairs, Mrs. Charles Wilson; keynote, Mrs. Robert Kidder; membership and registration, Mrs. Ruth Heiner; publicity, Mrs. Stanley Hyde; public affairs, Mrs. Al May; shadow box, Mrs. Aaron Speer; Camp Fire, Mrs. James Doyle; Girls League contact, Mrs. E. C. Strauss; Community Concert tickets, Mrs. Clyde Carstens; and high school scholarships, Mrs. Horace Berg.

Mrs. Lois Burton was elected general house board chairman with Mrs. Herman Bauer the custodian chairman; rentals chairman, Mrs. Edythe Gilmour, Mrs. Claude Baker and Mrs. Harlan Carter; grounds chairman, Mrs. J. R. Anlauf, Mrs. Vernon L. Wallace and Mrs. Paul Newman; housekeeping, Mrs. M. L. Fletcher, Mrs. Edward Kohlman and Mrs. Otto Gosnell.

The art exhibition for the day was the work of Mrs. Harry Jacoby. Mrs. Burton was chairman for the beautiful shadow box arrangements made by Mrs. Anna Knudson, Mrs. C. J. Feldkamp, Mrs. Herman Bauer, Mrs. W. D. Maddox, Mrs. Delmar Hockersmith and Mrs. Edward Kohlman. The peony and rose arrangements decorating the state and president's table were done by Mrs. Charles Wilson. Her tea committee was composed of Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. L. R. Wilson, Mrs. Jack West, Mrs. E. G. Young and Mrs. Alvia Wetherell. Mrs. Meredith Wilson was responsible for the basket of roses for the tea table.

Mrs. James E. Campbell announced the music recital series, a 10-week course to be given by professors from the University of Oregon School of Music, will begin Wednesday, Sept. 25 at the clubhouse. Women of Roseburg and vicinity interested in the cultural efforts of the club are invited to contact members for further information.
