

Arlene Gibson Becomes Bride

Arlene Sharon Gibson and Walter Ray Brown Jr. exchanged marriage vows in a 7:30 p.m. ceremony, Friday, May 31, at the Gospel Tabernacle in Canyonville. The Rev. Claude A. Malan officiated. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Dale Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ray Brown, all of Riddle.

The bride's colors of pink and white were carried out in the church decorations of pink roses and white carnations.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length white lace sheath with white satin overskirt. A pearl crown held her sequin-sprinkled fingertip veil, and she carried a white Bible with an arrangement of miniature pink roses, lilies-of-the-valley and orange blossoms.

Maid of honor was Beverly Gibson, sister of the bride, wearing a pink dress with chiffon skirt and lace bodice and white accessories. She carried pink rosebuds, lilies-of-the-valley and white carnations. Bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Cyphert, who wore a pink dress with lace jacket with pink accessories, and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations; and Mrs. Edgar Brown, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, who wore a pink suit with pink accessories and carried an identical bouquet.

Best man was Edgar Brown, brother of the bridegroom. Candelighters were Barbara and Teddy Gibson, sister and brother of the bride. Flower girl was Cindy Wasson, niece of the bridegroom; ring bearer was Jeff Wasson, nephew of the bridegroom. Ushers were Phil Newcomb and Howard Inman. Mrs. Phil Newcomb sang, "Because," and Mrs. Ralph Martin sang, "We'll Walk With God."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Church parlors. The bride's mother wore a pink suit with white accessories; the bridegroom's mother wore a powder blue suit with white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Joyce Gordon presented the guest book. Mrs. Don Gibson and Carolyn Gibson had charge of the gifts. Mrs. Albert Huffman served the wedding cake, Mrs. Russell Weimer poured coffee, and Mrs. Roscoe Ball served the punch.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Riddle High School. The bride recently completed a business training course at Nampa Business College, Nampa, Idaho. The bridegroom has completed his first year at Oregon State University and plans to return to college in the fall. He is presently employed by Douglas Veneer. The bride is employed in the office of the Roseburg Lumber Co. Mr. and Mrs. Brown are at home at 517 Harrison, Roseburg.

Mrs. R. D. Clauson Gives Delightful Bridge Party

Mrs. Robert D. Clauson entertained at a bridge party recently at her home at the Tiller Ranger Station when two tables were in play. Arrangements of spring flowers lent a decorative note and dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Present were Mrs. Edgar Lohmeyer of Canyonville and Mrs. Robert Kohl, Mrs. Paul J. Brady, Mrs. John T. Utley, Mrs. David Little, Mrs. Ralph Perkins, Mrs. Charles L. Redding and the hostess.

Interest in the game has resulted in players meeting for contract bridge sessions Wednesday afternoons and evenings when Mrs. Redding assists beginners who wish to learn the game. Mrs. Clauson and Mrs. Redding have undertaken the task of arranging hostesses for the affairs and of listing reservations so numbers of players for each session will be known in advance. Play is open to any interested woman in the vicinity and inquiries are invited by Mrs. Clauson or Mrs. Redding.

Plans were discussed for the summer luncheon and a later steak barbecue.

Mrs. Marge Winslow attended as a guest. Mrs. Hayden Haley won the door prize.

Other members present were: Mrs. Louis Blevens, Mrs. J. M. Smith, Mrs. Aaron Speier, Mrs. William Scott, Mrs. Robert Weaver, Mrs. Cliff Thomas, Mrs. Akiko Takamo, Mrs. Gil Commons, Mrs. Loren Rudford, Mrs. Paulus McKee, Mrs. Leo Sensabaugh, Mrs. H. J. Grakowski, Mrs. Peter Bartling and the hostesses.

Lovely Engagement Party Given On Saturday Night
