MR. AND MRS. MERRITT RAMSEY, above, were united in marriage June 9 at the Riddle Episcopal Church of the Ascension. The bride, Karen Kathleen White, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. White, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Strobridge, all of Riddle. (Picture by Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek).

Riddle Wedding Event Of June 9

Miss Karen Kathleen White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. White of Ridle, and Merritt Kent Ramsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Strobridge of Riddle, exchanged marriage vows in an impressive double ring ceremony which took place Sunday, June 9, at three o'clock in the afternoon in the Riddle Episcopal Church of the Ascension.

The Rev. Robert W. Bunnage, vicar of the church, officiated at the ceremony and the nuptial Eucharist following. Altar flowers were white calla lilies with fern. Wedding music was played by Miss Alice Walker. A former vicar of the church, the Rev. Loren Bush of Corvallis, sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor-length gown of white satin with fitted bodice, long sleeves and hoop skirt. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara of pearls arranged in the shape of hearts. She carried a colonial nosegay of dark pink Frill roses centered with a large white orchid with a cascade of white satin ribbon streamers, and a white Bible. Her ensemble was accented by a diamond necklace, a Strobridge family heirloom.

Maid of honor was Miss Gail White of Roseburg, cousin of the bride. She wore an afternoon frock of pink satin and a pink net headdress held in place by a pink satin bow. She carried pink roses on silver net with pink satin streamers. Bridesmaid was Leslie Strobridge, sister of the bridegroom, wearing a costume identical to that of the maid of honor with identical headdress and flowers. Gail Strobridge, younger sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl, also wearing a pink satin gown, and pink veil headress, and carrying a white basket with pink lace trim, filled with pink and white rose petals.

Best man was Robert White, brother of the bride. Seating the 175 guests were ushers Kevin and Frank Davis, cousins of the bridegroom, and Ronnie Weakley, Acolytes were Jim Dowdy David Clark and Bill Markham.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. White chose a turquoise silk afternoon dress with matching blue veil and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Strobridge, the bridegroom's mother, chose a pastel print in lime green and orange with a matching flower hat and a corsage of orange roses. The bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Pearl Lawson, wore a dark blue afternoon dress, a lighter blue flower hat and a white orchid corsage.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception by the bride's parents was held in the parish hall with the bridal party in the receiving line. Exquisite floral arrangements of pink roses and azaleas graced the tables and were placed at intervals about the room. Decorations for the reception were done by Mrs. Austin Wilson. The refreshment table held a beautiful four-tiered wedding cake in white with touches of pink and yellow accenting the doves, cupids, and hearts adorning it. A minature bride and bridegroom in a heart of ruffled net surmounted the top layer, and above the couple was a small sterling silver cross made especially for the occasion by Robert Pickell with entwined silver rings made by Lee Hall to complete the cake decor. The wedding cake had been baked by Mrs. A. L. Gilman, a family friend, and decorated by the bride's mother.

After the bride and bridegroom had cut the traditional first slice, the cake was served by Miss Joan McMillion, assisted by Miss Ann Johnson. Pouring coffee were Mrs. Darrell Carter, Mrs. Jessie Stout, Mrs. E. P. Blundel and Mrs. W. E. Best. Miss Moiselle Morrison and Miss Carmen Waddle served the punch. Miss Peggy Koerner presented the guest book, and Miss Roxy Clark, Miss Ila Keele and Miss Carolyn McCoy had charge of the gift table. During the reception, Miss McCoy sang "Young Love," accompanied at the piano by Miss Alice Walker. Assisting with the reception were Mrs. Heinrich Schmidt, Mrs. William Markham, Mrs. J. S. Mimnaugh and Mrs. Kathy Roberts.

After the reception, a buffet supper was served at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Strobridge to the bridal party, out-of-town relatives and friends and members of the Episcopal church.

Following a wedding trip to the coast, the couple will leave Riddle shortly for Wichita Falls, Texas, where the bridegroom, an airman 1/c, is stationed with the U.S. Air Force. He reports for duty July 26.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Kenneth Whiteman and Mr. and Mrs. Waidley Fossett and infant son, all of Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Carrie White of Kalama, Wash.; Mrs. Ethel White of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ramsey of Burns; Mrs. Elizabeth Disque and daughters, Barbara and Margot, of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brusatori and daughter, Joyce, of San Rafael, Calif.; Ed Stuller of San Francisco; Robert Cole Jr. of San Jose, Calif.; the Rev. and Mrs. Loren Bush of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Davis, sons Kevin, Frank and Scott, and daughter, Betty, Medford; and George N. Yokum, Portland.

OF INTEREST to many in the Roseburg area are visitors, Mr. and Mrs. George Santti of Santa Clara, Calif., former Roseburg residents, who have been here visiting their daughter, Mrs. Michael Wooton, and family. From here they went to Portland to visit another daughter, Mrs. Bud (Yvonne) Grossenbacher, and family, and attended the wedding of their son, Dale, to Patricia Rae Babbitt of Portland at Faith Lutheran Church. They attended commencement exercises at Oregon State University, at which time Dale was graduated with a degree in chemical engineering. Their youngest daughter, Mrs. Vince (June) Swanson, of Mt. View, Calif., accompanied them on the trip.

Committee Apopintments Made By Chapter President

Mrs. Sid Domenico was a charming hostess when she entertained members of Xi Omicron, Beta Sigma Phi, at the final meeting of the year. Lovely arrangements of flowers were used about the rooms of her home.

Mrs. James Fourtner conducted her first meeting as new president. She announced committee appointments as follows: Program, Mrs. Robert Triplett and Mrs. Bill Weber; social, Mrs. R. L. Wiley, Mrs. Harry Hill, Mrs. Kenneth Jones and Mrs. George Larson; contact, Mrs. Craig Short and Mrs. Donald Gingery; publicity, Mrs. Neil Christian; ways and means, Mrs. Donald LaBranch, Mrs. John Horn, Miss Jean Crow and Mrs. Arnold Ryder; project, Miss Joan Harper; and historian, Mrs. Ryder.

An election to fill the offices of extension officer and city council alternate was held. Unanimously elected were Miss Jean Crow and Mrs. Donald Gingery. These vacancies were created when Mrs. Roy Holbrook resigned due to being transferred to Salem.

The evening's cultural program on "Friendships" was interestingly presented by Mrs. Meredith Wilson. A discussion of the year's programs was held. A prize was awarded to Mrs. Holbrook for the best presentation for the year.

The group enjoyed a white elephant auction, after which delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. R. L. Wiley, Mrs. C. V. DeCamp and Mrs. Domenico to Mrs. Neil Christian, Mrs. James Fourtner, Mrs. Harry Hill, Mrs. Roy Holbrook, Mrs. Robert Kidder, Mrs. Florence Powell, Mrs. Bert Shoemaker, Mrs. Craig Short, Mrs. Robert Triplett, Mrs. R. L. Wiley, Mrs. Meredith Wilson, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. Donald LaBranche, Mrs. George Larson and Miss Jean Crow.

Potluck Precedes Grange Meeting

A potluck dinner served by Mr. and Mrs. Will Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Gerard preceded the Fair Oaks Grange meeting Tuesday evening.

At the meeting, Ted Simms, Grange state deputy, was presented. He spoke on the coming State Grange session and of the resolutions coming up at this session. He announced that the seventh degree will be given Nov. 15 and 16 at the National Grange meeting in Portland.

Home ec chairman, Rose Chandler, announced that the Arthur Kinchers and Charles Garrett will be hosts for the month of June.

Virginia Williams was elected as delegate to the State Grange Session.

The members enjoyed group singing and skits following the meeting.

Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Simms of Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Crave of Alameda, Calif.

Carol Meehan Is Honoree

Mrs. Carl Fair was a charming hostess Monday evening when she entertained at a delightful bridal shower honoring Miss Carol Meehan.

Decorations included a miniature bridal couple, arrangements of sweet peas and daisies, wedding bells and shower unbrellas. The cake was decorated with pink roses and white wedding bells.

During the evenings the guests tied the rice bags which were used for the wedding.

Those attending were Mrs. Frank Webster, Mrs. Kenneth Hermes, Jolynn Thomas, Marlene Thomas, Mrs. Frank Webster Jr., Mrs. Art Mills, Mrs. Melvin Wetherall, Mrs. Harley Schaeffer, Mrs. Larry Fuller, Mrs. Henry Sanders, Mrs. Blanche Rothrock, Mrs. E. P. Holcomb, Mrs. Eddie LaRoque, Mrs. R. Z. Barker, Mrs. Gary Broyhill, Mrs. Thomas Meehan Jr., Mrs. Dick Sjogren, Mrs. Forrest Gluesing, Janice Curry, Cindy Sevall, Mrs. Thomas Meehan and Mrs. Fair.

ENGAGEMENT TOLD — Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rigor of Elkton announce the engagement of their daughter, Charlotte May, to Fredrick Linn Clemo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clemo, also of Elkton. The bride-elect will attend Northwest School of Commerce in Portland beginning July 8. The bridegroom-elect is stationed in the U. S. Air Force at Fort Worth, Texas. No date has been set for the wedding.

Tenmile Ladies Enjoy Luncheon

The Tenmile Ladies Club met Tuesday for a delicious covered dish luncheon served at noon. The women enjoyed a social afternoon of visiting.
