

Dear Abby!

Small Catch!

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: A certain handsome, gray-haired man in this town has never been married and claims he never will be. He would be a real catch for any woman. He boasts that he has had a fling with every attractive woman in town, before she was married. (And a few after.) He claims that they all have told him that he makes their husbands look like schoolboys. My theory is that anybody who brags like this is trying to cover up an inferiority complex. What do you make of him?

LOCAL GIRL: He's probably a better liar than lover. But as a "real catch for any woman"—I'd be inclined to throw him back in.

DEAR ABBY: What can I say to a woman who calls me on the phone and talks for over an hour? This happens four or five times a week. I try to end the conversation, but it does no good. I've used up all the excuses, like someone is at my door, or company just came in, but she keeps right on talking. My husband threatens to have the phone taken out. I shudder every time my phone rings. Sometimes I don't answer it. I've missed some very important calls this way. I don't want to hurt her feelings. What can I do?

SORE EAR: The moment you pick up the telephone and hear her voice, say, "I'm sorry, I can't talk to you now"—then hang up. If you do this often enough, she'll get the message. Don't worry about hurting her feelings. If she's as busy as you say she is, she'll call the next person on her list and talk HER ear off.

DEAR ABBY: We recently gave our lovely daughter a beautiful church wedding. It almost broke our hearts to learn that she is going to have a baby soon. She managed to keep it from us until after the wedding. She must feel terrible to have to face friends and relatives in this condition so soon after her wedding. We had looked forward to the day when we would become grandparents—but not this way. We are a respectable family, Abby. It is so embarrassing. What can we say to people when the gossip starts? Tell me, for the children's sake as well as our own.

DEAR MOTHER: Your daughters' lucky to have a husband. Count your blessings and tell 'em nothing!

DEAR ABBY: I smiled to myself when I read that letter from the teen-ager asking, "How much allowance am I entitled to?" You see, Abby, my husband left me, but my kids are with me 100 per cent. My daughter earns ALL her clothes money babysitting evenings and weekends. She is 16. My son gets up at 4:30 in the morning to deliver newspapers. He is 15. Another of my sons already has $600 put away in the bank for his college education and he is 15. (He runs errands for a druggist.)

Please print this for some teenagers who ask, "How much allowance am I entitled to?"

MOTHER OF SIX: For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50c to Abby, Box 3385, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
