Lovely Wedding Event Of June 8

At 8 p.m. June 8, Mary Anna Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. West, and David Albert Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Barber, were married at the First Baptist Church. The Rev. Eugene Gerlitz performed the double ring ceremony before 100 relatives and friends.

Baskets of white gladioli and pink carnations were used to decorate the church. Donna Johnson sang "Because" and "Wedding Prayer." Organist was Mrs. Roy Hanford.

Earl M. West gave the bride in marriage. She was charming in her white wedding gown which was styled with a lace bodice and organza skirt. A pearl crown secured her veil. The bride carried a white orchid on a white ribbon. Darlene Watson of Portland was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Karen Freeman and Vivian Ness of Spokane, Wash. All were clad in blue and white brocade dresses and carried white gladioli.

Diane Johnson was flower girl, and candelighters were Janet Jenks of Tangent and Theresa Ann Long of Eugene, niece of the bride. The candelighters wore white and pink brocade frocks. The flower girl's dress was made of the same material. She carried a basket of gladioli.

Ron Grant of Portland was best man. Ushering was done by the bridegroom's brother, Gary Barber; Vines Dykeman of Hillsboro; Alan Tanimoto of Hawaii; and Roy Jones of California.

The bride's mother was attractive in a blue lace dress which she wore with a white hat. Mrs.

Reno Marriage Event Of June 3

Miss Barbara Joy Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Phillips of Salinas, Calif., former Glendale residents, and Thomas Elmer Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Myers of Lake Tahoe, Calif., were married in Reno June 3. The double ring ceremony was witnessed by the bridegroom's parents.

The bride wore a blue suit and white accessories for the ceremony. After an extended honeymoon which included sightseeing in Virginia City and visiting with the bridegroom's parents at Lake Tahoe, as well as a brief visit in Glendale, the newlyweds are now at home at the Coos Head Naval facility.

The bride's family were Glendale residents for 11 years and she attended Glendale High School before the family moved from there in 1961. She was graduated from the Salinas High School in 1962.

Her husband was graduated from the St. Helena, Calif., high school in 1960 before enlisting in the U.S. Navy.

GEORGINA ARNAUD, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bononcini, 442 NE Boston, Roseburg, has left for France and Italy visiting relatives and friends for the summer. She boarded a Pan American plane in Portland and went via the Polar route to London and Paris. She will visit in Paris and then go to Bordeaux to stay with Mrs. Bononcini's sister and family. In July she will go to Italy and then return home in August by ship, the Vulcania, which will stop in Greece, Naples, Barcelona, Lisbon and New York. Mrs. Bononcini and Philip took Georgina to Portland and after her plane left they enjoyed a visit to the zoo before returning home.

Both young people were reared in the Roseburg area and attended local schools. The bridegroom was graduated from Oregon State University in Corvallis. The bride has been employed as a bookkeeper for the Douglas County State Bank. In August the couple will move to Dallas, where the bridegroom will be teaching at Perrydale High School.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. William Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Vince Dykeman, Roger Johnston, Harold West and Ron Grant, all of Portland; Cookie Hill, Edie Stollar, Mrs. Everett Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Boyer and Teresa Ann Long, all of Eugene; Darla Walker, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Price Roop, Harrisburg; Merle Jager, Corvallis; Dale Westberg, John Wilson, Bruce Overdyke, Janet Jenks and Gene Shippen, all of Tangent; Vivian Ness, Spokane, Wash.; Ray Jones, California; and Alan Tanimoto, Hawaii.

CUTTING their wedding cake at the reception following their marriage are Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Will Stanton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rabern of Surprise Valley and the bridegroom is the son of Dwight Stanton of Canyonville.

Lindley-Stanton Wedding June 7

The double ring ceremony was used Friday, June 7, for the wedding of Lois Ann Rabern of Surprise Valley and Lindley Will Stanton of Canyonville. The nuptials took place at 7 p.m. at the Assembly of God in Canyonville, the Rev. Claude Malan officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rabern of Surprise Valley. The bridegroom's father is Dwight Stanton of Canyonville.

White roses, lilacs and other spring flowers were tastefully arranged in an arch over the church aisle. Miss Carol Spahn was organist and accompanied Mrs. C. J. Brent, who sang "Together."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was lovely in her gown of all-white lace styled with a floor-length tiered skirt. The bride carried white and turquoise carnations.

Miss Kathy Rabern, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Kathy Pearson was bridesmaid. Both wore dresses of lavender lace with lavender, green and white print taffeta overskirts. Their bouquets were white carnations.

Mrs. J. Wheeler Is Complimented

Mrs. John Wheeler observed her 91st birthday anniversary June 9, and was honored at an impromptu celebration when her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Poole of Tillamook, arrived in the afternoon with a lovely cake made and decorated by Mrs. Poole for the occasion. It was iced in white and decorated in pink, reading "Mother" and the numerals "91."
