Melrose Church Young People Have Outing

By NETTIE WOODRUFF
Members of the high school class of the Melrose Church Sunday School who took part in a recent day's outing to Sunset Beach on the coast were Don and Carol Isakson, Sherrie Griffin, Tonya Howe, Marita Honn, Norma Lash, Myrtle Fagan, Mike and Jeff Johnston, Harry Buckwalter, Richard Roger, Noreen Friend, Diane Gausnell and Dan Simons. Accompanying them were class teacher Eli Sanders and Mrs. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Krohn and Mr. and Mrs. Don Isakson. The young people enjoyed riding on the sand buggies.

Springfield Visited
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sjogren spent the weekend in Springfield as guests of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Howard. On Sunday the group attended a reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Olson on their 15th wedding anniversary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hess, former Melrose residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thompson and four children of Rochelle, Ill., visited the past several days with the former's uncle, Wilbur Thompson, and family. Last week the Wilbur Thompson family and her sister, Beulah Snyder, of Farmland, Ind., visited relatives at Prineville and drove to coast points.

Mrs. Clarence Coffell left Thursday for Fruitland, Idaho, to attend a high school class reunion. She stopped in Bend to visit the Coffell's son, Don, and family. She is expected home the first of the week.

Attendance Good
The Melrose Community Church daily vacation Bible School ended Friday evening when a program was presented by the students to 225 people attending. The school's theme was "Living With Christ" and an average of 170 students attended each day.

The Church held a pulpit exchange Sunday with Pine Grove and Lookingglass churches. Rev. Davis from Melrose preached at Lookingglass. Rev. Titus at Pine Grove and Rev. Peterson at Melrose.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Moore and children are residing at Remote, where the former is employed for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shipp and children are visiting relatives in New Mexico for several weeks.

Mrs. Arthur Faulkner, Mrs. Charles Beecroft and Mrs. Irene Frear visited Tuesday in Eugene.

Richard Hill Spends Leave At Umpqua

By MRS. GEORGE MUNSON
Richard Hill, serving in the U.S. Army, is spending a part of his 45-day leave at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bacon, near Umpqua. He has been in Pasadena, Calif., for some time and is now to be transferred to Oakland, Calif.

Sister Visited
Miss Brenda Judd is spending her summer vacation at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Swalling. Billy Anderson of Klamath Falls is spending his vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson on Johnson Road near Umpqua. He plans to return to college in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nichols and baby daughter of Corvallis were guests over the weekend at the home of Mrs. Nichols' mother, Mrs. Archie Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Porter and daughter, Lorie, from Albuquerque, N.M., are spending a part of their vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Thennes on their ranch near Umpqua. Porter is serving with the Army at Albuquerque.

Brother Visited
Mrs. Irma Anderson of Eugene has been a house guest at the home of her brother, Edgar Solle near Umpqua.

Mrs. Emma Lansing has returned to her home in Cottage Grove after spending several days at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Murphy. She also spent some time with her granddaughter and family, Mrs. Jack Liles.

Qandra Monett has left for Klamath Falls with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gibson, who had been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Monett, near Umpqua.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bacon and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bacon and daughter, Judy, drove to Coquille on Friday where they attended the high school graduation of their granddaughter, Donna Hill. Mrs. Margaret Hannan accompanied them.

MAC IRKS TAILORS
TOKYO (UPI) — Communist China's English-language Peking Review took note today that British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's troubles include criticism from the tailoring industry. The Peking Review said London's Saville Row resents Macmillan because "he always wears the same suit and has even been known to wear patched pants."
