

Missionaries Friends In Azalea

By MRS. G. B. FOX
The Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Chick and children, temporarily of Long Beach, Calif., who are on furlough from service in the mission field in Brazil, were Azalea visitors last week.

The Rev. Mr. Chick is a former pastor of the Azalea Community Church, having served here in 1953 and 1954. They spent Wednesday evening, June 19, at the Lawrence Worley home and ate dinner on Thursday with the Leo Allen family. After visiting with several other friends in the area, they continued on a trip which is taking them through Oregon, California, Washington, Montana, Colorado, New Mexico, and Arizona. Rev. Chick has been recuperating from hepatitis, suffered about the time they left their mission station, and Mrs. Chick recently underwent surgery for a non-cancerous tumor in the throat. They will return to their station at Campinas, Brazil, this fall, where they work in the Igreja da Biblia (Church of the Bible). In addition to his pastoral work there, Rev. Chick and his wife are to be associated with an orphanage and home for needy children upon their return to the field.

The vehicle struck the bank, crumpling the left fender and damaging the front of the car. The 1957 car was totaled out.

Glendale Olivet Presbyterian Church, which had an enrollment of nearly 90 for its Vacation Bible School, held a closing program recently.

Parents and friends had opportunity to view a display of work done by the children.
