

TROUBLE IN BRITISH GUIANA — Top photo shows armed guards and barbed wire surrounding the office of Premier Chedi Jagan in Georgetown, while bottom photo shows Janet Jagan, wife of the Premier, leaving her home for her job as Minister of Home Affairs. Early this week anti-government terrorists bombed the education ministry, and the government blamed the anti-Communist Trades Union Council.

STATE PRESIDENT — Jim Waterfield of the Roseburg Rural Fire Department has been elected president of the Oregon Firemen's Association.

IMPOSTER GUILTY — Ferdinand Waldo Demara Jr., "The Great Imposter", is shown in Federal Building in Los Angeles, Calif. this week after sentencing of Demara on charges of using the mails to defraud was postponed. Demara, whose life of personal frauds was the basis for a movie, is now an evangelist. He has been indicted by a Boston grand jury for filing false information in a teaching application.

LUCKY LEATHERNECK — El Toro Marine Corps Air Station Pilot 1st Lieut. Clift J. Judkins III, 26, is shown aboard the Navy Hospital Ship USS Haven in Long Beach, Calif. Judkins jumped from his disabled F-8 Crusader Wednesday and plunged 15,000 feet into the sea when his main parachute failed to open. His descent was slowed only by the small drogue or pilot chute. He suffered internal injuries and broken ankles. Judkins was picked up 600 miles out to sea by the minesweeper Embattle after spending three hours in the water.

FIRED BY CZECHS — Mrs. Helen Kozersky, center, who spent 38 months in a Czechoslovakian prison, accused of being a Central Intelligence Agency spy, bursts into tears as she is reunited with her 14-year-old daughter, Helen, and son, Michael, 23, at Idlewild airport Monday. She declined to discuss her experience.

HELPFUL COP — Patrolman Joseph A. Konenfal holds up the baby he had just delivered in a car so that the mother, Mrs. Doris Patter of New York City, can see her new-born offspring early Thursday morning. The mother was enroute to a hospital when the stork arrived ahead of schedule and the police officer "stood in" for the doctor.

BATHYSCAPH TRIESTE wallows helplessly partially submerged in 4-foot waves as it has trouble getting under water in area where the submarine Thresher disappeared in early April. However, trouble was later corrected and the Trieste made an historic 8,400-foot dive for clues of the missing submarine.

SPEEDS CANCER TREATMENT — Framed by molecular structure symbols, Dr. Paul Feng, scientific advisor in physics and manager of Chemical Physics is shown in his office at Illinois Institute of Technology in Chicago. Dr. Feng has recently discovered a method of manufacturing Cobalt 60, which is used in radiation treatment of cancer and other radiation therapy, in three months rather than five years as has been the case.

TRAIN DERAILED — Two boxcars and a caboose were toppled from the Southern Pacific Co. tracks in Roseburg Tuesday. The caboose and a boxcar jumped the tracks on a northbound train, and tumbled into the side of a parked string of cars, derailing one of them. SP officials are investigating the cause of the derailment, which occurred at the foot of SE Burke St. (News-Review Photo)

SECRET SERVICEMEN look on in dismay as a youth runs out to shake hands with a smiling President Kennedy during his visit to West Berlin early this week. West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt looks on at right. President Kennedy was greeted warmly by West Berliners before leaving for Ireland to visit the homes of his ancestors. So successful was the President's visit to the German capital that it prompted Soviet Premier Khrushchev to make a like visit to the Communist capital, East Berlin.

Picture Page

All pictures via UPI Telephoto Service

14 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore.—Sat., June 29, 1963