Gift For Kennedy

Left By Late Pope

ROME (UPI)—The late Pope John XXIII left a gift for President Kennedy, it was reported.

Richard James Cardinal Cushing, archbishop of Boston, said he would make the presentation Tuesday morning when the President visits the North American College during his stay in Rome.

Cushing said the gifts include one of the three existing autographed copies of John XXIII's great encyclical on peace, "Pacem in Terris" (Peace on Earth).

The other gifts are a series of three medals struck in honor of the pontiff receiving the Balzan Peace Prize and three medals honoring Pope John's encyclical "Mater et Magistra" (Mother and Teacher).
