Mary Ann Erbe Is New Bride

The Community Methodist Church in Tenmile was the scene of a beautiful candlelight wedding Saturday June 8, at 7:30 p.m. when Miss Mary Ann Erbe of Tenmile became the bride of Rex Eugene Catt of McMinnville.

Dr. J. T. Dixon of the Tenmile Community Methodist Church performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of 75 relatives and friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Erbe of Tenmile. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Catt of McMinnville.

Mrs. Robert Schulz was organist. She accompanied Mrs. James Taylor who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a floor-length gown of white brocade satin with chapel train, fashioned by her mother. The elbow-length veil was held in place by a band of satin. Her bouquet was a cascade of white roses.

Mrs. Don Page of Corvallis was matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Leona Shepherd and Mrs. John Erbe, sister-in-law of the bride. They wore blue peau de soie satin with matching slippers, white headresses and gloves. They carried white carnations and blue roses. Miss Carmen Butts, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. She wore blue and carried a miniature bride's bouquet. Roger Crumpacker, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Candlelighters were the brother of the bride, John Erbe, and brother of the bridegroom, Ron Catt. Best man was Don Davis of McMinnville. Ushers were Ron Catt and Kennis Catt, brothers of the bridegroom, and John Erbe, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore blue with white accessories and a white corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore blue and white with white accessories and a blue corsage.

Following the wedding the bride's parents were host and hostess at a reception in the Tenmile Ladies Club House. Arrangements of white stock and blue delphiniums decorated the tables. The wedding cake had been decorated by Mrs. John Erbe.

Mrs. A. A. Jacoby of Lookingglass and Mrs. John Erbe were responsible for the decorations in both the church and clubhouse.

Serving cake, coffee and punch were Mrs. Mark Olivier of Salem, Mrs. Ron Catt, Mrs. George Butts and Mrs. John Crumpacker. Miss Tonya Swanner presented the guest book. Mrs. Jack Williams was in charge of gifts. The bags of rice were distributed by Claudia Murdoch.

For her wedding trip to Lake Tahoe the bride wore blue with white accessories.

The bride was graduated from Douglas High School and attended Oregon Technical Institute. She has been employed by the Children's Clinic in Salem. The bridegroom was graduated from McMinnville High School and O.T.I. He is employed by Yamhill County in McMinnville. The couple reside at 1511 Lever St., McMinnville.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Catt and Kennis, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Catt and Scottie and Don Davis, all of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Oliver and Tanya Swanner, Salem; Don Awalt and Bob of Chico, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Henderson, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Waggoner, Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Murdock Jr., Claudia and Vickie, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Page, Corvallis.

Family Gathers For Anniversary

Four generations were represented at a recent family gathering at the Dumont Creek campground upriver from Tiller. The event honored all the fathers present and also complimented Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bigelow of Shady Cove on their wedding anniversary.

In addition to the Bigelows and their five small children, those present were Mrs. Bigelow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Erling, all of Tiller.

Proceeding a picnic dinner, swimming, and fishing were enjoyed. Mrs. Collins had baked and decorated a special cake for the dual celebration.

In the evening, the children roasted wieners and marshmallows over a glowing campfire. Appropriate gifts were presented to all honored guests.

Gary Kummerts Complimented On Anniversary

A lovely anniversary party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Gary Kummert on their 25th wedding anniversary by their daughter, Janice.

Open house was held from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday. Those who dropped in during the day were Irene Burke, Anne Mumby, Loren Burlison, Jo Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hinthner, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Coomes, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Piekarski, Lee McCullum, Judy McCullum, Carol Coomes, Don and Pat Martin, Art and Clara Herrman, Gene and Carolyn Kemp, John and Vera Millar, Lewis and Vera Wilson, Glen and Charles McCullum, Jo Johnson, The Rev. and Mrs. D. W. Henricks, Fred and Ann Leonard, Mrs. Silvia Anderson and Mrs. Kate Lampi.

Refreshments were served throughout the day. Mrs. Millar cut and served the cake. Carol Coomes served coffee. Mrs. McCullum served punch. Mrs. Clara Herrman helped with arrangements. Mrs. Ethel Leonard provided flowers and Ethel Decor provided the silver service.

Supper Club Is Entertained

Mrs. George Wharton was a most gracious hostess Wednesday evening, when she entertained her bridge club at a delightful supper at 7:30 o'clock at her beautiful home on SE Claire St. Lovely arrangements of mixed wild blossoms formed the attractive decorations.

Covers were placed for Mrs. J. R. Wharton and Mrs. Roy Catching, guests, and Mrs. H. H. Turner, Mrs. S. C. Richmond, Mrs. Adrian Fisher, Mrs. O. M. Berrie, Mrs. A. J. Ellison and the hostess, Jennifer Bunch, granddaughter of the hostess, assisted during the evening.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the social hours with Mrs. George Wharton winning high score; Mrs. Catching, second, and Mrs. J. R. Wharton the traveling prize.

Club Is Hosted At Tozer Home

Red roses and white hydrangeas formed the room decorations for the delightful luncheon given Wednesday by Mrs. W. L. Tozer for members of her bridge club.

The hostess held high score for the afternoon card play. Mrs. Virgil Lomax was second.

Members present were Mrs. Robert Savage, Mrs. Carl Teague, Mrs. Glenn Gibbons, Mrs. Ken Bailey, Mrs. Kenneth Kirk, Mrs. Philip Quisenberry, Mrs. Lomax and Mrs. Tozer.

W-D Women Meet On Wednesday

Betty Kleiner conducted the meeting of the Winston-Dillard Toastmistress Club, Wednesday evening at Douglas High School, using the theme, "We Learn By Doing," which was also used for the topics with Marge Brady in charge.

Birthdays Celebrated

Birthdays were recently given Wade Worthington, Evelyn Worthington, Alice Green and Milton Cooper, all of Canyonville, on their respective birthdays.

Milton Cooper received a money tree and he in turn presented his guests with a petunia plant apiece. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ash of Porterville, Calif., guests of the Coopers joined in the party fun. Mrs. Ash sang and accompanied herself on the guitar.

"Be Well Informed" was the title of a speech given by Velma Albertus, and Marge Brady chose "Astronauts" as the subject of her speech presentation.

Speech critic for the evening program was Mary Tomlinson. Carol Talbert served as timekeeper. The closing thought was rendered by Edna Ebner.

Phyllis Parrott was guest toastmistress for the evening. Two guests, Mary Lee Weinberg and Joyce Benton, were present for the meeting.

At the close of the meeting, members met at the home of Carol Talbert, who served refreshments. She was assisted by Betty Kleiner. The social occasion was in the form of a farewell gesture before Mrs. Talbert departs for Bend to make her home.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT GULICK, above, were united in marriage at the First Church of God in North Bend. The bride, Kathryn Lois Palmer, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Palmer of Coos Bay, formerly of Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Estel Gulick of Everett, Wash. (Picture by Camera Shop, Coos Bay)

Former Resident Becomes Bride

The First Church of God in North Bend was the scene June 14 of the wedding of Kathryn Lois Palmer of Coos Bay and Robert Ray Gulick of Everett, Wash. The Rev. Glenn Henricks performed the double ring ceremony at 8 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Palmer who lived in the Roseburg area for many years before moving to Coos Bay. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Estel Gulick of Everett.

The bride wore a gown of silk-faced peau de soie, accented with Alencon lace motifs, applied on the bodice and skirt. The fitted bodice had a scoop neckline and lily pointed sleeves. The billowing skirt flowed into a chapel length train. She wore a pearl and diamond pendant, a gift from the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of white butterfly roses centered with a white Cattleya orchid.

Jeannette Palmer was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Dawna Hutchins and Sharon Leverett, both of Roseburg. They were dressed alike in China blue satin street-length dresses, their hats circles of blue satin and blue net. All carried colonial nosegays of white butterfly roses and white feathered carnations.

The duties of best man were performed by Willard Gulick, brother of the bridegroom. Charles and Melvin Palmer Jr., brothers of the bride, were ushers.

Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Waddie of Riddle announce the engagement of their daughter, Carmen Ida Mitchell Sell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sell of Azalea. Both were graduated from Riddle High School. No date has been set for the wedding.

Candlelighters were Jim Gulick, brother of the bridegroom, and Ray Kirtley, his cousin.

The mother of the bride wore a sheath of silk crepe in soft azure blue with short overblouse of Chantilly lace. The bridegroom's mother wore a powder blue sheath dress. Both mothers had white accessories and wore corsages of white butterfly roses and white feathered carnations.

A reception was held at the church. The lovely five-tiered cake was encircled with white daisies. The cake had been made and decorated by Mrs. Victor Demarest, who also had charge of the reception arrangements.

Serving cake, coffee and punch were Mrs. Charles Palmer of Springfield, Mrs. Clifton White of Coos Bay, Mrs. Melvin Palmer Jr. of Coquille and Mrs. Willard Gulick of Everett.

JoAnn Kirtley of Everett registered guests, and Mrs. Violet Morin and Miss Jerriene White presided at the gift table.

For traveling, the bride changed to a light blue suit of summer wool. With it she wore white accessories and a white orchid corsage. The couple will be home at 4506 Colby Ave., Everett, after July 1, following a honeymoon in Canada.

The bride attended Roseburg elementary schools and was graduated from Marshfield High School in Coos Bay. The bridegroom was graduated from Everett High School. Both attended Warner Pacific College in Portland.

Guests attending from Douglas County included Mrs. Lydia Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Palmer and daughter, Jane, of Reedsport; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Weatherly of Elkton; and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Delaney, Dawna Hutchins and Sharon Leverett, all of Roseburg.
