Canyonville Woman Back From Hawaii

By BETH CHAPPELL

Mrs. Keith Olsen of Canyonville recently returned from a two-week visit in Hawaii where she stayed with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Redford, near Diamond Head near Honolulu.

A son, Dana Carrington Redford, was born of Mrs. Redford during Mrs. Olsen's visit. At the time, the new father was on a submarine tour.

Contract in Offing

Bud Olsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Olsen, is living with a relative, Mrs. Lewis Benedict of North Long Beach, Calif., while negotiations are being made for him for a singing engagement at Disneyland. Bud previously stayed for a short time at Palm Springs. The talented Olsen is a recent graduate of Canyonville High School and had had much success singing at various affairs.

While in North Long Beach, Bud reportedly saved a young neighbor child from drowning. When Bud was 9 years old he had similarly saved another child's life.

A. L. Stephens of San Bernardino recently visited his daughter and her family, the D. L. Daniels.

Canyonville Rebekah Lodge, with Mrs. Rene Stanley, noble grand, presiding over a regular business meeting, voted to recess during the months of July and August.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Doris Wilbanks, and Mrs. Donna Richey concluded the meeting.

Initiation Held

South Douglas Rainbow Assembly with Sharon Olson, worthy adviser, initiated Debbie Melvain into the order.

During the business meeting, it was voted to hold a "date car wash" July 12 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Hancock's Richfield Service Station. No Rainbow meetings are scheduled in July and August.
