

Al Downing Fires One Hit Shutout; Yankees Pad Lead

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Al Downing and Dave Morehead can console each other today over coming so near, yet so far, in their bids for no-hitters. Downing, the 22-year-old New York Yankees' southpaw, held for 6 2/3 innings Tuesday night but had to settle for a one-hit 3-0 victory.

And Morehead, a 19-year-old rookie right-hander for the Boston Red Sox, had a no-hitter going until the eighth against the Cleveland Indians.

"I would have liked to pitch a no-hitter," said Downing, "but I am not complaining a bit. Winning the game was more important."

Morehead was equally philosophical. "I did my best," he said, "and I'll take a two-hitter any day of the week."

Yankees Pad Lead

Downing's victory was his third and the Yankees' fifth in a row, stretching their American League lead to three games. The Yankees left-hander, who had held the Red Sox hitless for 6 1/3 innings in his previous start last Friday night, had visions of a "no-no"—as the ballplayers call it—Tuesday night until Camilo Carreon rapped a sharp single off his glove with two out in the seventh.

There wasn't the least bit of doubt about Carreon's hit, which skipped over second base and rolled into center field. But that was the only one of 134 pitches by Downing which was hit safely.

He struck out 10 batters, walked six and got the only run he needed when Tony Kubek singled home Hector Lopez in the third inning. Lopez then hit a two-run homer in the fifth. The Yankees' run in the third was their first off loser Ray Berbert (8-5) in 20 consecutive innings.

Morehead, whose record now is 5-5, pitched perfect ball until he walked Willie Kirkland with two out in the seventh. He lost his no-hitter when Fred Whitfield led off the eighth with a grounder that took a freak bounce over second baseman Chuck Schilling's head for a single.

Hits Pinch Homer

There was nothing freakish, however, about John Romano's pinch homer in the ninth. Romano had been restored to the active list just before the game. The Red Sox scored two runs off loser Barry Laitman (5-4) in the second inning and Lou Clinton's homer featured a four-run outburst in the sixth.

The Minnesota Twins reeled off their eighth straight victory and took over second place with a 7-4 triumph over the Detroit Tigers, the Baltimore Orioles outlasted the Los Angeles Angels, 4-3, and the Washington Senators downed the Kansas City A's, 7-2.

In the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers climbed into first place with a 1-0 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, Cincinnati hurled Houston, 6-4, Pittsburgh shaded Philadelphia, 3-2, the Chicago Cubs beat the New York Mets, 4-1, and the San Francisco Giants prevailed over the Milwaukee Braves, 1-0 in a 16-inning thriller.

Homer's Tell Story

Bob Allison's two-run homer and Jimmie Hall's three-run walk-off homer for the Yankees' victory over Detroit. Allison's 20th homer in the third put the Twins ahead, 4-1, and kayoed loser Bill Paul, while Hall's eighth homer came off reliever Tom Sturdivant in the sixth and put the game out of the Tigers' reach. Dick Stigman struck out nine and scattered eight hits before Bill Dailey came on in the ninth to nail down Stigman's seventh victory.

Bob Johnson's single and Al Smith's double were the key blows for the Orioles in a two-run seventh-inning rally that took care of the Angels. Baltimore scored all its runs off Paul Foytack, who suffered his second defeat against one victory. Dick Hall, second of three Orioles pitchers, was credited with his third win. Albie Pearson hit his fifth homer for the Angels.

Bennie Daniels limited the A's to seven hits, as his Senators teammates took advantage of four errors to hand Orlando Pena his 11th setback. Marv Breeding and Jim King paced Washington's eight-hit attack with two hits apiece.

LOS ANGELES DODGERS' message board tells the story as Dodger manager Walt Alton goes out to meet pitcher John Drysdale after a 1-0 win over the first place St. Louis Cardinals Tuesday. The win put the Dodgers one-half game ahead of the Cards in the National League race. (UPI Telephoto)

Dodgers' Don Drysdale Hot In July; Downs Cardinals In Battle For Loop Lead

Oregon AAU Track, Field Finals Set For Thursday

EUGENE — World record holder, national AAU champion, NCAA All-American and outstanding local talent highlights the Oregon AAU track and field championships, scheduled for Thursday Field Wednesday and Thursday.

Preliminaries in the 100 and 220 are scheduled for Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. with a 19-event program set for Thursday, starting at 1:30 p.m.

Meet director Bob Newland has lined up a nifty field, which should produce plenty of exciting competition. In the running events, the 440, 880 and mile loom as interesting events.

Long-time rivals Uli Williams, NCAA and AAU champ, and Adolph Plummer, world record holder, continue their personal duel in the 440, while veteran Jim Dupree, Oregon State's Morgan Groth and former Olympic star George Kerr match strides in the 880.

A sub four-minute effort is a distinct possibility in the mile, where former Oregon great Dyrol Burleson comes off his victory in the national AAU test to battle Cary Weisiger, Jim Grelle and current Duck star Archie San Romani.

The two-mile presents a rematch between USC's Julio Marin and Oregon's Vic Reeve. Marin withstood a late surge by the Duck runner to capture the three-mile in the NCAA meet last month and their rematch figures to be a thriller.

In the field events, the high jump boasts the best of possible fields. NCAA champ Lew Hoyt, AAU kingpin Gene Johnson, and Oregon's twosome of Paul Stuber and Terry Llewellyn are scheduled to fight it out for top honors in that event.

Kart Races Slated At Tri-City Track

Karting enthusiasts from throughout Southern Oregon will be on hand to compete in the Fourth of July trophy races at the Tri-City track.

Time trials will begin at noon, with the regular races to start at 1 p.m. The elapsed time system of classifying drivers will be used to insure thrilling action throughout the afternoon.

Thursday's races will be sponsored by the Sio-Kart Club.

The redheaded outfielder - first baseman was the only lefthanded batter Alton left in the starting lineup against southpaw Curt Simmons. Ron went down swinging his first two times up, but delivered the single in the seventh inning—his 44th run batted in of the year, highest total on the team.

To win the opener of the three game series against the Cards Drysdale found it necessary to pitch a shutout, his initial blanking of the season. In his previous start, he was on the losing end of a 1-0 shutout by Warren Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves.

Don Drysdale pitched the Los Angeles Dodgers into first place with a 1-0 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Houston Colts, 6-4, the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-2, and the Chicago Cubs downed the New York Mets, 4-1.

Drysdale picked up his 10th victory for the Dodgers with a five-hit effort against the Cardinals.

Willie Mays' Homer Ends Great NL Pitching Battle

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

With one swing of his bat, Willie Mays broke up the National League's greatest pitching duel in 30 years and all but broke Warren Spahn's heart.

Mays accomplished his handiwork when he lined a home run over the left field fence with one out in the 16th inning Tuesday night to give Juan Marichal and the San Francisco Giants a 1-0 victory over the Milwaukee Braves.

For 15 dramatic innings, the 42-year-old Spahn called on all his cunning and pitched on dead even terms with the stronger and harder-throwing 25-year-old Marichal, but Mays' 15th homer ended the league's finest pitching duel since Carl Hubbell of the Giants went 18 innings to beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 1-0, exactly 30 years to the day.

Marichal scattered eight hits and struck out 10 in posting his 13th victory of the season and his ninth in a row.

The defeat was doubly tough for Spahn. Not only did it snap his personal five-game winning streak and represent his fourth loss against 11 victories, but it also nullified a valiant 14th inning effort in which he heroically pitched himself out of a jam by getting Ed Bailey on a fly ball for the final out with the bases full.

It was the Giants' only other serious threat of the night against the Milwaukee veteran, who walked only one batter and struck out two.

Legion B Team Gets 14-2 Win

The Lockwood Legion B team, riding on the crest of another sparkling pitching performance, blasted out 16 hits Tuesday night to topple a Myrtle Creek Babe Ruth all star team 14-2.

Pat Long paced the Lockwoods to the win by striking out eight and walking five to set the Myrtle Creek team down on six hits for the victory. Long's curve ball was effective throughout the game and he was seldom in trouble.

In the hitting department for Roseburg, Dick Davidson went three for three, David Fenner two for three, Dany Withers one for one, a triple, Jim Coon two for two, Jim Kaiser one for two and Bill King two for five.

Birenbaum went three for four for Myrtle Creek.

The Lockwood B squad will travel to North Bend for a single game Friday night, then return home to host Myrtle Point in a double-header at Legion Field Sunday, beginning at 1:30 p.m. They dumped Myrtle Point 10-1 in the first game of the season.
