Initiation-Majority Degree Held By Bethel 8 Saturday

Honored Queen Sherry Engle's last official meeting was one of the most impressive of her term. The meeting, held Tuesday at the Masonic Temple, was both initiation and majority degree night.

Visiting the Bethel were past honored queens of Bethel No. 8, Cindy Sevall, Penny Ostrander and Mary Beth Hill.

The Job's Daughter representative to California, Donna Wolfe from Bethel No. 72, was introduced and welcomed. A special visitor, Mrs. Cora Young, was given honors by the girls of the Bethel.

Mrs. Bob Elliott, Bethel guardian, and Mr. Gustafson, acting associate guardian, were given Bethel honors.

Initiation was performed for Margo Murphy, Nancy Colburn, Ellen Perry, Suzanne Jacobson and Laurel Hoffman. The new initiates introduced their parents and were greeted by the Bethel members after the meeting.

During remarks and presentations, Mrs. Eva Craig was given a corsage and a gift in appreciation for her work as guardian secretary. Cindy Sevall and Penny Ostrander each received a gift as a remembrance of their majority degree ceremony. Mrs. Elliott also received a corsage and a gift in recognition of her work as guardian.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Queen Sherry gave her farewell speech.

A VERY LOVELY WEDDING took place at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, when Rita DeChiara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vince DeChiara, of Roseburg, became the bride of Butch Reese of San Rafael, Calif., son of Mr. and Mrs. Reese Sr. of Hawaii. Following a honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Reese are now at home to friends in San Rafael. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

Rita DeChiara Becomes Bride

St. Joseph's Catholic Church was the scene June 1 of the wedding of Rita DeChiara and Butch Reese, both of San Rafael, Calif. Father Marian Corbin performed the 3 p.m. ceremony before 80 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vince DeChiara of Roseburg. The bridegroom's parents reside in Hawaii.

The traditional wedding music was played by the church organist.

The bride was very beautiful in her full-skirted floor-length lace gown, the back extending in a short train. The bodice featured long sleeves ornamented with tiny buttons. Her fingertip veil was edged in lace. Her bouquet was a cluster of white carnations and stock.

Rita DeChiara, of Roseburg, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Two other sisters, Yolanda DeChiara of San Rafael and Lucia DeChiara of San Francisco, were bridesmaids. All wore pink frocks with nylon skirts and lace bodices. Their bouquets were of pink and white carnations.

Kathy Welch of Roseburg, niece of the bride, and Gary Beamer of Corvallis, her nephew, were flower girl and ring bearer.

Jim Matthews of San Rafael, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Virgil Beamer, her brother-in-law, and Ken Harrison, a nephew, both of Corvallis.

After the wedding, the bride's parents were host and hostess at a dinner for 80 guests, held at the Lariat Room. The center table was decorated with the beautiful wedding cake and wedding bells. Wedding bells and crepe paper streamers were used in decoration throughout the room.

After a wedding trip to Portland, Corvallis and California the newlyweds are now at home in San Rafael. For traveling, the bride wore a beige suit with matching accessories.

The bride attended Roseburg schools and is employed as a secretary by a California insurance company. The bridegroom attended California schools and is currently serving in the U.S. Air Force, stationed in San Rafael.

Barbara Kay Flagg Is Wed To Oren Lester Albertson

An archway covered with red roses, flanked by baskets of multi-colored roses and candelabra, was the setting at the Drain First Baptist Church, when Barbara Kay Flagg, of Corvallis, and Oren Lester Albertson of Halsey exchanged marriage vows June 8 at 7 p.m.

The Rev. Gary Shoemaker of Halsey and the Rev. Otis L. Doherty performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Flagg of Drain. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Albertson of Halsey.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautiful in a floor-length white lace gown, styled with a bouffant skirt and highlighted with seed pearls and sequins. The fingertip veil was secured by a tiara crown. Her bridal bouquet was white carnations.

Mrs. Jack McNeil was matron of honor. She wore blue and carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Joanne Albertson, sister of the bridegroom, and Rita Weinhold were bridesmaids. They also wore blue satin and carried nosegays of white carnations.

Flower girls were Peggy Flagg, sister of the bride, and Lynne Albertson, sister of the bridegroom. Ushers were Jimmy Flagg, cousin of the bride, Ralph Bebeau and Gary Bradshaw.

Edith Lethcoe and Miss Dorothy Alsop poured and served at the reception. Kathy Haines took care of the guest book.

The bride wore a yellow suit, white accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet for the wedding trip to Agate Beach.

The bride attended Drain schools and is now employed by Good Samaritan hospital in Corvallis.

The bridegroom attended Central Linn High School and is a senior student at the Oregon State University in Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Albertson are at home at 1500 N. 43rd Ave. Corvallis.

Carolyn Simms Now Mrs. Palmer

Large baskets of Madonna lilies and pink rosebuds were used in decorating the altar of the Yoncalla Methodist Church, Thursday evening June 20, for the wedding of Miss Carolyn Simms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stube, to Guy Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Palmer, all of Yoncalla.

The two large gold candelabra held tall white tapers, lighted by Miss Nancy Cogswell, cousin of the bridegroom, and Gary Simms, brother of the bride. Pink and white was the color scheme used throughout the entire wedding.

The impressive double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Palmer Sorlein, pastor of the church. Mrs. Felix Latham, ist, played nuptial music and the traditional wedding marches. She accompanied Miss Earlene Davis, who sang, "Always" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a fingertip wedding dress made with a very full skirt with tiers of lace. The bodice was tight fitting, with long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. Her shoulder-length veil of white net was held in place with a crown of white rosebuds and pearls. The neckline was outlined with sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias, tiny orchids and Esther Reed daisies.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Larry Palmer, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Bridesmaids were Miss Leona Simms, sister of the bride, and Judy Howell. All attendants wore light pink afternoon dresses made alike, and carried bouquets of Esther Reed daisies in pink and white.

Larry Palmer was his brother's best man. Ushers were Tom Rogers and Tommy Cogswell, cousin of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Stube chose an olive green dress with black accessories and a corsage of brown orchids. The bridegroom's mother chose a medium blue dress of taffeta with lace overskirt and a corsage of brown orchids. All the orchids used in
