Chapel Wedding Unites Couple

Miss Noralou Preston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Orr Preston of Riddle, and Leslie L. Roos Jr., son of Leslie L. Roos and Mrs. Susan Roos, all of San Francisco, were wed Monday, June 17, in an afternoon ceremony which took place in the Stanford Memorial Chapel on the Stanford University campus, Palo Alto, Calif.

The Rev. R. M. Minto, chaplain, performed the double ring ceremony in a setting of white gladioli and ferns used to decorate the chapel. The wedding music was played by Herbert B. Nanney, church organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white organza dress with bateau neckline, short sleeves, and a bell shaped skirt embroidered with lilies-of-the-valley, finished with a short train. She wore a short Mantilla lace veil and carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and gardenias. The bride's veil was secured with a solid gold hairpin set with pearls, an heirloom from the bridegroom's family.

Maid of honor was the bride's roommate at Stanford, Miss Nancy Arbutnot of LaVerne, Calif., wearing a gown of raspberry pink silk and carrying pink bouvardia and garnet roses. Best man was Stephen Williams of Palo Alto, Calif. Ushers were William H. Rayner of Altadena, Calif., and George N. Merce of Ukiah, Calif.

Pink and white were the colors used for the reception held in the garden of the home of the bridegroom's uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Bacon, on the university campus.

The bride's mother wore an aqua boucle lace dress with white accessories, and the bridegroom's mother wore a turquoise print with white accessories.

The three-tiered wedding cake topped by three wedding bells, pink punch and tiny sandwiches were served by Sara Preston, sister of the bride, and University friends Janine Burford, Rhea Pendergras, Hope Hague and Mrs. Kathy Williams. Connie and Kathy Roos, sisters of the bridegroom, presented the guest book during the reception.
